Washington, Aug. 7.—Minister Yang Yu, of China, and his secretaries, Messrs. Hoo and Chung, have returned to Washington to take any action that may be requisite in connection with the reported massacres of missionaries and the destruction of American and English missionary property in China...

Mr. Yang Yu follows his usual policy of declining to discuss publicly a subject which may involve diplomatic questions. Yet in view of the wide publicity given to the massacres, the minister authorized his official interpreters to express his profound regret at the reports...

It is the feeling among the Chinese officials here that the secret societies of Southern China are at the bottom of the present trouble. The central government at Peking is said to be ready and anxious to keep these societies in check, but there is difficulty in dealing with them owing to their remoteness from the center of government...

The United States anticipated Great Britain in taking the most energetic steps for the protection of the American missionaries in China. The injustice of the criticisms that have been uttered in some quarters upon the alleged indifference of United States officials is fully shown by a mail dispatch that has just come to the state department from the minister...

MEETING OF ABSTAINERS

Catholic Temperance Workers Attend Pontifical High Mass.

ARCHBISHOP RYAN'S SERMON

Six Hundred Delegates from Catholic Total Abstinence Societies Are Present at the Impressive Ceremonies.

New York, Aug. 7.—The formal opening of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America took place this morning in Columbus hall. From early morning the delegates, who have been pouring in from all over the United States, kept thronging to the hall, which will be the headquarters of the convention, and when Father J. M. Cleary, who is general president of this organization, called the convention to order about 9 o'clock, about 600 delegates were on hand. Father Callahan, of the Paulist church, opened the convention with prayer. After the appointment of several committees the delegates marched to the cathedral, where a solemn pontifical mass was celebrated by Monsignor Sattoli, Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, preaching the sermon. The delegates, when they were marching to the cathedral, all wore their blue badges and silver medals. Seats had been reserved at the cathedral for the delegates, and the general public occupied the rear of the church. The high altar was a blaze of light, and the perfume of flowers perfumed every part of the sacred edifice. Precisely at 10 o'clock the procession of clergy emerged from the vestry and filed into the sanctuary. The celebrant of the mass was Monsignor Sattoli, the apostolic delegate, who was robed in full pontifical. The apostolic delegate occupied a white silk decorated throne on the epistle side of the sanctuary. The assistant priest was Very Rev. Vicar General McNamara, of Brooklyn. The deacons of honor were Rev. P. P. McSweeney, D. D., and Rev. J. Conaty, D. D., the deacon of the mass was Rev. J. H. Moran, and the sub-deacon Rev. Morgan J. Sheedy, of Altoona. Pat Archbishop Corrigan sat on a throne at the gospel side. He was attended by Vicar General Mooney, and had as deacon of honor the Rev. J. Dougherty. An elaborate musical programme was rendered. The sermon was preached by Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, archbishop of Philadelphia.

A POWERFUL RIFLE.

Of Very Small Bore, But the Bullet May Disable Torpedo Boats.

Washington, Aug. 7.—There has been received at the navy department a sample of steel, three-fourths of an inch in thickness, which had been pierced by a rifle bullet of a caliber less than that of the present army rifle, or about 20. The sample is interesting, in that it shows that the torpedo boats may be rendered useless by good shots from such rifles. The distance at which the steel sample was pierced was about 200 feet. A torpedo's boat armor, her boiler and other parts might easily be pierced at this distance, or before she could make her projectile dangerous to a ship. The bullet was of steel and pointed. It made a remarkably clean hole in the steel.

DUEL AT YOUNGSTOWN.

An Attorney and a Young German Threaten to Do Battle.

Youngstown, O., Aug. 7.—Society here is all a-gog over a proposed duel which seems likely to take place between Edward Miller, a young attorney, and a young German named Rahl, employed by the Ohio Steel company. It is said the latter ejected a tete a tete with a young lady a few nights ago. Miller saw them and jokingly remarked he hoped he had not disturbed them. Nothing was said, but the following day Rahl met Miller and challenged the latter to a duel. Miller tried to pass the matter off as a joke, but Rahl insists that a duel is the only thing that will settle the matter. Friends of both are kept busy keeping them apart.

RESTLESS CENTRAL AMERICA.

United States Minister Young Urges Federation of All the Republics.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 7.—Speaking on the condition of Central America General P. M. B. Young, United States minister to Guatemala and Honduras, who is here on leave, said in reference to the proposed federation of all the republics: "I believe that a large majority of the intelligent patriotic citizens of Central America would like to see a union of all those republics. They believe that such a federation would be greatly to the advantage of each and all of them, and at some time all of these governments have expressed themselves in favor of such a union. They have had several conventions on the subject in the past, but for some reason they have never been able to reach a practical result. Before any agreement can be reached each must be willing to transfer certain of its powers to the federal government. I believe that at this time all of the presidents of the Central American republics are patriotic, conservative men. The government of the United States has but one sentiment for these Republics, and that is one of affection. It hopes and wishes that each of them shall be permitted to pursue its happiness in its own way, uninterrupted by foreign powers. The people are intensely American in their sentiments and are great believers in the United States, modeling their government as much as possible after our own. Their republicanism is very strong in character—that is, one state with the others; they have much the same soil and climate, and it would seem that they have a common destiny. Still it is, of course, the policy of this government to hold hands off and wish them God-speed in the working out of their salvation in their own way."

The delegates will be accompanied by a much larger number of representative countrymen, so that the total attendance will be over 10,000. The business meetings of the delegates will be held in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian association, but it is expected that reunions will be held in one of the big halls of the city.
