

WHY PAY

$75 or more for a Bicycle when you can get as good a one, in all respects, The "White Star" Bicycle, For $50 spot cash (With usual guarantee.) AT NORTON'S.

Children's Carriages. New and handsome styles, About half the price Sold for at other stores. See them. They will surprise you. M. NORTON, 322 Lackawanna Avenue.

A Foe to Dyspepsia

GOOD BREAD USE THE Snow White FLOUR And Always Have Good Bread.

MANUFACTURED AND FOR SALE TO THE TRADE BY The Weston Mill Co.

PERSONAL.

J. Robert Simpson, of the police department, is ill at his home. Miss Moses and Miss Martha Moses have returned home from Atlantic City. Miss Edith Smith, of J. W. Guernsey's store, left yesterday for Ocean Grove to enjoy the sea breeze for two weeks.

RAILROAD NEWS.

The statement sent out by the Press association that the Debs will make war on the railway brotherhoods is not causing much uneasiness among the members of these conservative organizations. A gentleman of this city who is prominent in one of the railroad orders said yesterday that it would be better for Debs and those of his ilk to take a lesson in good sound horse sense from the railroad brotherhoods.

That electricity will eventually be the motive power of all the great railroads of the country is the firm opinion of the electrical optimists, and already they are stating that the steam road is doomed. The fact that the Nantasket branch of the New York, New Haven and Hartford road has recently been changed from steam to electricity and is now operating successfully under the latter power is the best evidence yet produced of the practicability of the scheme.

N. M. Allworth, of London, who was secretary of the English delegation to the International railway congress, in a recent interview said: "England, while ahead of America in the block and signal systems, has lots to learn in the matter of speed. The best train we have runs from London to Perth in nine hours and twenty minutes; the distance is exactly the same as that between New York and Buffalo, which is daily covered in eight hours and forty minutes. As a matter of fact, the French are gradually securing pre-eminence among European countries in the acceleration of the time made on long runs."

The Paris-Calais express time crisis that of any English train, and the Paris-Bordeaux service is not far behind. Safety in England is a greater desideratum than speed, but it has only been secured at a cost that has well nigh broken the back of many companies. English passenger fares and accommodations are all in favor of the poorer classes. While our first-class rates are high, the third-class ones are proportionately low. A workman can go from London to Edinburgh in eight and one-half hours on the swell express train and in a luxuriously cushioned carriage for $8. On the continent he could go the same distance for $5, but he would consume sixteen hours and be packed sardine fashion in a cheese box. Cheap railway transportation is in England, considerable influence is being brought to bear on the companies for a reduction in fares.

If You Lack Energy Take Horford's Acid Phosphate. It vitalizes the nerves, helps digestion, feeds the brain, makes life worth living. It is a great medicine, a food and a delicious beverage.

Horford's Flour Mills have a capacity of 7,000 barrels a day.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS

Miss Nellie Hopkins and James McGouldrick Married.

RECEPTION AT BRIDE'S HOME

Sale of the Old Street Car Barn to Mrs. Edgar C. Connell—Happenings on the South Side and Dunmore Briefly Told.

SOUTH SIDE.

Two well-known and popular young persons, James McGouldrick, conductor on the Peckville line of the Scranton Traction company, and Miss Nellie Hopkins, of Prospect avenue, were married yesterday afternoon at St. Peter's cathedral. William Cavanaugh, of Carbondale, was groomsmen, and Miss Agnes Durkin, of the South Side, bridesmaid. The gown of the bride was of pearl silk trimmed with lace; the bridesmaid wore pink silk. At the church a large gathering of the friends of the couple was present during the ceremony.

A reception was held at the home of the bride, and at 8 o'clock the guests enjoyed a sumptuous wedding feast. Congratulations were showered upon Mr. and Mrs. McGouldrick, and wishes of happiness and prosperity. Many of his friends among the motemen and conductors called and left appropriate presents as tokens of the esteem in which Mr. McGouldrick is held. The gifts from other friends were many. The couple left on the 2 a. m. Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train for Utica, where they will spend a few days with friends of the bride, and from where they will go to the Thousand Islands for a week. After returning Mr. and Mrs. McGouldrick will reside on Stone avenue.

Car Barn Property Purchased. Mrs. Edgar C. Connell, of Pittston avenue, represented by her father, John Gibbons, as agent, has bought the property on which the old South Side Street railway car barn stands. Mr. Gibbons formerly owned the ground and sold it to the street car company. Workmen began yesterday razing the barn, and after that is done, Mrs. Connell will let the contract for the erection of a large double dwelling.

Shorter Paraphrasis. Miss Margaret Murphy, Lizzie Snow and Mary Murphy will spend the ensuing two weeks at Crystal Lake.

An entertainment and social under the auspices of the Nineteenth Century Literary association will be held on Wednesday, Aug. 21, at Callery's hall.

John Hughes, son of Michael Hughes, of Stone avenue, was struck on the ear by a baseball in a game Tuesday and the drum was ruptured. Dr. Manly is attending him.

A "welching" social was held last night at the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church. Ice cream and cake was afterward enjoyed by all present.

A "poverty" social will be held to-morrow night at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association.

NORTH END.

Clarence Steele is improving the interior of his shoe store by the addition of some new shelves.

Mrs. Osterhout and Mrs. Joseph Gillespie, of Oak street, and Miss Philip, of Philadelphia, who is visiting with Mrs. Osterhout, spent yesterday at Honesdale.

Guy Osterhout, of Oak street, left yesterday for Nicholson.

Mrs. H. C. Tohey and children, who are visiting with Mrs. E. Guild, spent yesterday with relatives in Hyde Park.

The business men of the North End are rejoicing over the work which Street Commissioner Kinsley is doing on West Market street. The street has been in a very bad condition for several months.

Miss Annie Walsh, of Curlew avenue, spent Tuesday at Mountain Park.

Miss Katie Salley, of West Market street, and Miss Katie Manning, of Osterhout's store, will leave today for a two weeks' vacation at Atlantic City.

Miss Aggie Cullen, of Dunmore, who has been visiting with Mrs. P. J. Hogan, of Bloom avenue, has returned home.

Mrs. and Mrs. V. E. Arnold, of Summit avenue, Miss Laura and Miss Edith Fish, and Robert Fish spent yesterday at Farview.

Mrs. Thomas Morgan and children, of Church avenue, are at Crystal Lake. Miss Katie Hamilton, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Margaret Burke, of Wayne avenue.

MINOOKA.

A Polish laborer employed at the Glendale mines received a slight injury yesterday. He was jammed between the 5's and a loaded car.

Felix Hughes and Joseph Brown are visiting friends in the Empire state. James McDonald, of Waverly, Minn., who has been visiting here the past month, returned home last night.

Frank Jennings has been visiting in Nanticoke the past week. Henry Casey is convalescing.

DURANT CASE ADJOURNED.

It is rumored that an Attempt Has Been Made to Tamper with the Jury. San Francisco, Aug. 7.—Just after the opening of the court in the Durant case this morning, District Attorney Barnes and Mr. Dickinson, one of the attorneys for the defense, held a consultation, after which Mr. Barnes asked for an adjournment of the case. The attorneys for the defense concurred in the request. Mr. Barnes said that certain circumstances had arisen which made it necessary to ask for the adjournment.

CAUGHT HER HUSBAND.

A Parkersburg Woman Assaults Two Women and Gets Arrested. Parkersburg, W. Va., Aug. 7.—Mrs. C. A. Roberts, the wife of a well-known citizen of Jeanette street, met her husband straggling along Murdock avenue on Saturday night accompanied by Mrs. Nell Murray and Miss Sadie Green. Mrs. Roberts attacked the party, and managed to get in a few good blows before her husband overpowered her and gave his friends a chance to escape. The enraged woman overtook them, and again attacked them a few squares down the avenue. The second attack caused a savage fight, millinery, hair and clothing being torn and disfigured, amid the shrieks of not only the women, but also of children, whom Mrs. Roberts had brought with her in her search for her husband. The crowd which gathered finally parted the belligerents. All were arrested. Mrs. Roberts was fined $5 and costs for fighting, while her adversaries were committed to appear for a hearing later on, on the charge of not only fighting, but also of encouraging Roberts' attentions.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

(Under this heading letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be responsible for opinions here expressed.)

SOMETHING ABOUT LEW LLYWYO.

Editor of The Tribune: Sir: Harriet Frederic's London letter in the Sunday News, York, Times says: "Every person of Welsh blood in America has heard of Lew Llywyo, who began being a figure in eisteddfodau fifty years ago, and during the last dozen years these dispatches have chronicled his final disappearance from public view. Once, I think, he was supposed to be dead; it was said that he was a poor old wreck, existing some great obscurity. This week he burst forth as a prodigy in first-rate form, and walked off with the prize for an epic poem amid roars of applause. He is now over 70, but he talks jauntily of the career still before him."

Lew Llywyo is well known to the Welsh people of Scranton. He came to this country in 1828 and conducted an eisteddfod at old Washington hall in 1829. He remained in this country until the summer of 1831. It was his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

It is his intention to make America his home, but he soon left his first papers with that purpose in view. In those days he was not only the leading lecturer of his people, but he was also the leading orator of the nation. Since he was a young man he has been the most prominent figure of his countrymen as an orator, a musician, a vocalist, poet and essayist. He won the chief laurels of the always honored eisteddfod in 1850. He has had a long career and has probably ended his long life of remarkable victories in contests of poetry and song with the crowning effort of his life at the Llanelli eisteddfod, which was held last week, by winning one of the chief poetical prizes of the eisteddfod—an epic poem of two thousand lines.

HOLDING SECRET SESSION

Executive Committee of the P. O. S. of A. in Conference Here.

PREPARING FOR STATE CAMP

Proceedings Are Not Given Out for Publication—A. J. Colborn, Jr., Addresses Last Night's Reunion of Many Camps—Will Adjourn Today.

State officers of the Patriotic Order Sons of America held an executive session at the meeting rooms of Camp 212, at 209 Wyoming avenue, yesterday morning; in the afternoon they were taken to Lake Ariel and enjoyed the picnic of the Elks, returning at 6.30. After supper a reunion of representatives from Camps 174, 175, 226, 241, 242, 261, 280, 342 and 436, comprising the Lackawanna Eastern district, was held, at which the state officers delivered addresses, and an eloquent one was also given by Attorney A. J. Colborn, Jr.

This morning the state officers will leave the city for their homes. They are as follows: State president, C. P. Huth, of Shamokin; state vice president, George Anderson, of Philadelphia; state secretary, William Weyand, of Huntington; state master of forms, Lincoln Brown, of Wilkes-Barre.

Proud of its Progress. Their visit here is merely an executive session preliminary to the state encampment, to be held at Allentown in three weeks. The business pertains only to the order, and no information of the proceedings is given out for publication. Secretary Weyand was interviewed in reference to the standing of the order in Pennsylvania, and he gave a very flattering account of its progress during the past year. There are now camps in the state with an active membership of 3,106.

The officers feel proud of the increase in membership, 34 camps, representing a membership of more than 5,000, having been added since the last state encampment, and the indications are that the progress of the order will continue in the future. It becomes one of the most flourishing in the country. No state organization, according to statistics, the secretary claims, has a better record than the Patriotic Order Sons of America.

The Order Was Honored.

The order received an honor in the appointment of President Huth as a member of the Pouch Investigating committee, he being one of the two citizens to be appointed on the commission. The order is very prosperous in the Lackawanna district and the outlook is very encouraging.

MRS. GARDNER LOCATED.

She Has Determined Not to Go Back to Her Husband—Found as a Servant in a Connecticut Family.

Norwich, Conn., Aug. 7.—Mrs. A. M. Gardner, the Christian Endeavor delegate to the Boston convention of Arcadia, Neb., who mysteriously disappeared after the close of the convention, and for whom the Boston police, together with Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, the woman suffrage leader, have been searching, was located tonight. For the past ten days she had been working as a domestic in the family of Edward R. LaPiere, at Norwichtown, in the suburbs. The incident of Mrs. Gardner's disappearance is a very queer one. She is a plump, comely and vivacious western country woman, the wife of a well-to-do and respectable farmer at Arcadia. She has three small children in her far western home. She went to Boston as the regularly accredited Endeavor delegate of her home church. During her stay in Boston and boarding with a Cambridge family she wrote three affectionate letters to her husband. In the second one she informed him that she was dangerously ill. This was followed by a third one purporting to be in the writing of a Mrs. Brown, who informed Mr. Gardner that his wife was dead and buried, and that it would be idle for him to look into the case further.

On receipt of that epistle the husband at once sent a friend, J. W. Landers, of Arcadia, to Boston to learn the circumstances of his wife's death. With the aid of the Boston authorities Mr. Landers strove for many days fruitlessly to obtain a clue to the missing woman. He reached Norwich this afternoon, and after a couple of hours of search located her at LaPiere's. Immediately after the close of the Endeavorers' convention she had come to the town and registered here as a member of the summer school for teachers, describing herself as Dorothy Mansfield, of Michigan.

In an interview with Mr. Landers, she told him that she was satisfied to stay in the east and peremptorily refused to return home. She added that her husband had accused her of being insane. Mrs. Gardner and the LaPieres had gone to bed when a Times reporter called at 10 o'clock tonight, but she came to an upstairs window in the dark and repeated substantially her statement to Landers. She is satisfied with her present place, and will remain there as a domestic.

FASSETT'S POWER GONE.

Platt Men Declare He Was Badly Defeated Last Saturday. New York, Aug. 7.—J. Sloan Fassett, Richard Hoerns.

Editor of The Tribune: Sir: I would like to ask through the medium of The Tribune of there is any way to stop the racket made by the vendors of Sunday papers in the city. I will stop it, one's ears are assailed first by the names of the local papers and later "New York" and "Philadelphia," till one wishes papers, vendors and all concerned were far, far away. I will do it in the early morning to read. Very little good can I get for the names of all the different papers are sounding in my ears. I go to church, the same thing happens. Last Sunday morning while Dr. Raymond was praying in Elm Park church, the cry of the newboys outside ran parallel with the preacher's voice inside till it was a problem in my mind which could be heard most distinctly by the congregation. One of the elders went out to ask the boy to stop his noise, which he did not, and was saucy to the bargain. Now I think there ought to be authority to stop the racket to abate this nuisance and I hope you will call attention to it on behalf of the great number of intelligent Christians to whom it is an offense. Yours truly, Richard Hoerns.

Editor of The Tribune: Sir: In your issue of this morning you speak of me as being an instigator of the prosecution of Valentine Ballou, of Old Forge. This statement is a mistake. I had nothing to do with it in any way nor was it so testified at the hearing. Michael Shorak.

Editor of The Tribune: Sir: In your issue of this morning you speak of me as being an instigator of the prosecution of Valentine Ballou, of Old Forge. This statement is a mistake. I had nothing to do with it in any way nor was it so testified at the hearing. Michael Shorak.

Editor of The Tribune: Sir: In your issue of this morning you speak of me as being an instigator of the prosecution of Valentine Ballou, of Old Forge. This statement is a mistake. I had nothing to do with it in any way nor was it so testified at the hearing. Michael Shorak.

Editor of The Tribune: Sir: In your issue of this morning you speak of me as being an instigator of the prosecution of Valentine Ballou, of Old Forge. This statement is a mistake. I had nothing to do with it in any way nor was it so testified at the hearing. Michael Shorak.

Editor of The Tribune: Sir: In your issue of this morning you speak of me as being an instigator of the prosecution of Valentine Ballou, of Old Forge. This statement is a mistake. I had nothing to do with it in any way nor was it so testified at the hearing. Michael Shorak.

Editor of The Tribune: Sir: In your issue of this morning you speak of me as being an instigator of the prosecution of Valentine Ballou, of Old Forge. This statement is a mistake. I had nothing to do with it in any way nor was it so testified at the hearing. Michael Shorak.

Editor of The Tribune: Sir: In your issue of this morning you speak of me as being an instigator of the prosecution of Valentine Ballou, of Old Forge. This statement is a mistake. I had nothing to do with it in any way nor was it so testified at the hearing. Michael Shorak.

Editor of The Tribune: Sir: In your issue of this morning you speak of me as being an instigator of the prosecution of Valentine Ballou, of Old Forge. This statement is a mistake. I had nothing to do with it in any way nor was it so testified at the hearing. Michael Shorak.

Editor of The Tribune: Sir: In your issue of this morning you speak of me as being an instigator of the prosecution of Valentine Ballou, of Old Forge. This statement is a mistake. I had nothing to do with it in any way nor was it so testified at the hearing. Michael Shorak.

the anti-Platt leader, of Chemung county, arrived in the city for the purpose of consulting friends about the fight against the one-man power in the next state convention. Mr. Fassett's enemies claim at the meeting of the Chemung county committee Saturday he was badly defeated by a vote of 24 to 15, on a motion to have the executive committee and the enrolling committee jointly call the next convention. They say that the Fassett men are in a minority on both committees and that the machinery is therefore in the hands of Mr. Platt.

They are also saying that Fassett will not be able to go as a delegate to the state convention. Mr. Fassett laughs at this claim, saying that the Platt men have been crushing him for a year and have not succeeded in crushing him yet.

COST OF THE CENSUS.

Ten Million Dollars Expended to Ascertain How Many There Are of Us. Washington, Aug. 7.—United States Commissioner of Labor Carroll D. Wright, who succeeded Hon. Robert P. Porter as superintendent of the eleventh census, today submitted to the secretary of the interior the report of the operations of the census for the fiscal year 184-5. It shows that total expense of the census up to date has been $10,531,142.

The force has been reduced from time to time, as the work neared completion, until now but ninety persons are employed. All the work can be finished with the appropriation now available, except the final printing and binding. Mr. Wright is of the opinion that the work can be completed and placed before the public by the end of this calendar year.

A GOOD APPETITE and refreshing sleep at this season indicate a condition of bodily health. These are given by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It makes pure blood and good health follows.

HOOD'S PILLS are purely vegetable, act easily yet promptly and effectively. Buy the Best. At Guernsey Bros.

HAVILAND FRENCH CHINA

Known the world over as the richest, choicest of ceramic productions; thin, light, white, absolutely free from cracking. It compliments the good things on the table, pays its silent tribute to the good taste of the hostess. We keep a full line of it in

WHITE AND IN EIGHT DIFFERENT DECORATIONS

The newest and prettiest from the Limoges factory. You can have a Dinner Set made up to suit your requirements—can buy a little at a time until you have all you want.

China Hall