BRACE CAME TOO LATE.

antons Were Demoralized for Five mings and Then Began to Play-But Toronto Had the Game Won in the He

For five innings yesterday the Torontos hit the ball at will and cavorted around the bases in regular derby day fashion and piled up a sufficient num ber of runs to win easily, although in the sixth, seventh and eighth innings they failed to get a hit and were re-

Round Thomas Johnson, who in the early game pitched as though he was suffering from a stomach full of tacks, was responsible for only one of Toronto's five runs in the first two innings. but he quit in hollow fashion in the third, fourth and fifth and was pounded often and hard.

Huston Was Chief Offender.

Jack Huston was the chief offender In the second inning, with two out and two on bases, he made a lovely muff of an easy fly and permitted a run. A hit and Sweeney's poor throw to the the side was retired. In the first, with one out and Freeman on second, Huston fielded the ball high above Stearns' head, following Jud Smith's hit. Stearns chased after the leather and threw it to Schriver, who, in trying to touch Freeman out, dropped the ball.

Nine hits, including a triple and two doubles, and errors by Huston, Schriver and Sweeney netted the six Toronto runs in the third, fourth and fifth. From the fifth to the last inning Johnson recovered control of the ball and not a runner got to first; two singles were made off him in the ninth, but no runs were scored.

How Scranton's Runs Were Made.

Payne, who received splendid support permitted only a single and a double to Schriver in the first four innings. Ward sirgled in the fifth and came home on Eagan's double. Stearns spoiled a chance to score in the sixth by laying off second and being doubled from Lutenburg to Demont after Demont had stopped Sweeney's liner and thrown Sweeney out at first. The play retired

Johnson's single, a three-bagger by dence had the best of the argume Smith to the left field corner and pecially in the bunching of hits. Ward's single earned the two runs in the seventh. The two runs in the ninth to Lutenburg and Bannon's steal to the home plate when two were out and while Lake was playing for the batter, Stearns, who fanned out.

FOURTEEN INNINGS.

Wilkes Barre Had a Big Contract to De feat the Bisons. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 8.—In the ninth inning today between Buffalo and Wilkes-Barre the score stood 5 to 4 for Wilkes-Barre, and two out, when, on Clymer's single, Drauby, who had reached first on balls, started for second. Griffin throw the ball into Bonnes, putting out Drauby, when Botterys was within four feet of the plate. This should have retired the Fide and given the game to Wilkes-Berre, but Gaffiney was watching the play at assoons and did not see that the put out was made testore Bottenus had reached the plate. Bottenus, however, had crossed it before Gaffney had turned. and consequently extra innings were necessary. Each side thereafter drew blanks for four successive lanings, . 6 when, in the fourteenth, with one out, Lytle drew base on balls, Bonner was out at first and Lytle by a quick slide was safe on second. Lezotte then hit the ball for a vicious drive to Bottenus, scoring Lytle, the ball getting away from Bottenus, allowed Lezotte to This was enough to win out as ton lost through wild pitching and cost-ly errors early in the contest and then fourteenth. Toronto again today.

Would we rather have Wilkes-Barre win or Buffalo lose? is at present a very tender Jack Huston so seldom has an off day that he will be forgiven for yesterday's Scranton has won ten of its last four teen games and has taken seven out ten games from Toronto. Smith's triple was a hummer, and Schriver hit his two-bagger out after a fashion dear to the heart of the faithful. Toronto will try a new pitcher today. His name is Brennemer and he is from Brooklyn. Should he fall to arrive, Gray

Bull Schriver, formerly of the New Yorks, has signed with Scranton. He would have been a good man for Syracuse.

Beginning today the bleachers and grand stand will be policed by regulars. The management has decided to put a stop to hoodlumism.

Until Scranton audiences become more orderly, more loyal and less profane this city will have no license to criticise the portment of the Wilkes-Barre article. A long suffering public would cheerfully subscribe toward a padlock for Jack Neat's lips. If he would learn something new and commit it to memory he might be endured-but he has become tiresome

Buffalo begins a three days' engagemen here tomorrow, and then after three days at home with Wilkes-Barre the club goes away on its last trip of the season, re turning Sept. 10 for three games each with Springfield and Providence.

The blasphemer is probably the most ob noxious object outside prison walls, and there is a varied and sickening lot of them who pay 25 cents for the privilege of ex-ercising their porcine characteristics at the Scranton base ball park.

Wilkes-Barre, which is just ahead of Buffalo, is playing winning ball, as is Scranton, which is on the round below. Between these milistones the Bisons will soon be crushed to a "quivering mass of human jelly," as the lurid word painter of the police court might say,-Buffalo The jeers of the crowd so disgusted Luby

Wednesday that he retired from the box after the fifth inning and told Manager Barnie he would not pitch again for Scranton. Considering the provocation, Luby could not be blamed for his action. Last night, however, his anger had left him Toronto. The cranks will be glad to see Corbett against Buffalo next Monday, but there is no desire to see the game sacrificed for the sake of extra dollars. This condition has led to an arrangement whereby Scran-ton's chances will not be jeopardized Corbett will play in right field and Meaney will pitch. Says the Washington Post: "Frank Bonner drew salary from the Baltimores a long while on suspicion that he was a ball player and would prove a valuable man in event of injury to one of the regu lars on that team. After he was traded to the Browns it was soon seen that he was not fast enough for the league. Then he was sold to Wilkes-Barre and found too weak for that organization." Amateur Ball Notes.

Buffalo, N. Y. Aug. 8.-For the third time this year Joe Patchen defeated Robert J. Today the game son of Patchen, Wilkes, convincingly demon strated his superiority over the little knee-sprung pacer, and as a result of the struggle Hamlin's champion will be retired from the track until he regains

It was truly a battle royal, but one which Jack Curry had all the best of the argument. In the two fastest heats he sat in the sulky as immovable as a statute when the horses were fighting it out in the home stretch, while Geers worked like a demon and lashed Robert J with the whip time and time again. The track was in the finest possible condition and only a moderate wind was blowing against the horse

t the home stretch. Village farm money made Robert J a avorite at odds of 3 to 5 before the first eat, while Patchen sold at 4 to 5. In the toss for the pole Patchen won. On the second score the two went away neck and neck. Like a double team they paced to the three-quarters when Geers pulled out. But Curry called upon Patchen, and the great stallion responded promptly. In the home stretch they came with Patchen a half length ahead. Geers took to the whip, but it was of no avail, as Patchen was going well within his speed. Time

The second heat was simply a repeti tion of the first, but in the third heat Patchen fell back at the three-quarter pole. Robert gained a lead of two lengths going around the last turn, but Patchen came up on the outside and finished in a dead heat, though the
