

Wilkes-Barre.

[The Tribune has opened a branch office at No. 25 Lansing building, Public Square, Wilkes-Barre. It is the purpose of the publisher to issue a newspaper valuable to the general public as the metropolitan dailies, and deliver it to the people throughout northern Pennsylvania from three to five hours earlier than the Philadelphia and New York papers can reach them.]

DR. DAVIS DEAD.

The Well-Known Physician Passes Away After a Long Illness.

Dr. Rees Davis, after an illness of more than a year, died at his residence, 14 South Washington street, on Saturday, of muscular atrophy. Expected as the news was, his many friends and acquaintances who have long honored and respected him, were deeply grieved when the announcement was made and many expressions of sorrow and regret were heard.

Dr. Rees Davis was born at Warren, Bradford county, Pa., July 5, 1837. He received a common school education, prepared for college at the academy and Susquehanna Collegiate institute at Towanda, Pa.; attended Marietta college, Ohio, one year, and graduated at Hamilton college, Clinton, N. Y., in 1861. He attended the medical department of the Michigan university one year; graduated at Bellevue Hospital Medical college, New York, in 1867; located in 1867 in the city of Scranton, Pa., where he has since resided.

Dr. Davis has always allied himself to the Welsh Presbyterian church of Wilkes-Barre. He has been active in the church since 1867, and has been one of the foremost workers in musical circles in this city. He was president for six years of the Welsh choir of this city, and later of the Grotto choir. He was chairman of the committee of the great estafado held in the old market house in 1875, and engaged Eos Mocalis, and Joseph D. Lloyd, respectively, to sing at that estafado and to give forty concerts throughout the country. Dr. Davis was also foremost in the great musical festival that gave the prize of $1,000 in 1888, and he has been one of the most untiring workers to advance the musical interests of the city.

The dramatic season at Music hall opened tonight with "Dora," "The Girl," which was seen in the opera house last season at regular prices. It will be seen here for the first time at popular prices, which means a money saving of much more realistic scenery. There will be matinees on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday "The Tale of our Cities," a spectacular drama, will be the attraction at Music hall. Matinees Friday and Saturday. Popular prices.

Traverser's Troubles. Charley Traverser, who has been arrested by Colonel Orr for criminal libel, is having a hard time keeping himself out of jail. The ball he secured on Friday was only for one day, and when that was up after a great deal of hard work he induced Joseph C. Schwartz to become his bail until Monday. Orr says as soon as the papers can be made out he will commence civil proceedings for damages, and Traverser will again have to look for more bail.

Habeas Corpus Hearings. W. S. McGuire, the well-known ex-Lynch Valley fighter, charged with assaulting Alice Phillips, Walter D. Gibbons, charged with highway robbery, and John Holde, charged with rape on a 7-year-old child, were down for a habeas corpus hearing on Saturday, but as no judge was present they were sent back to the jail until today.

Services at Hanover Park. The services of Zion African Methodist Episcopal church were held at Hanover park yesterday. George Gaines addressed the meeting in the morning, followed by prayer and a benediction. In the afternoon there was a song service and sermon by Rev. G. C. Carte.

More Burglaries. Burglaries are becoming altogether too common in this city during the past few days. Some time during Saturday the houses of William Puckey, on Jackson street, and of Harvey Horton, of Horton street, were ransacked and many valuables taken.

A Boy Killed. John, the 12-year-old son of Thomas Bollen, a saloonkeeper near Ashley, was instantly killed on the Jersey Central railroad Saturday afternoon. He had been swimming with his brother and some other boys just before the accident. After he had dressed a Jersey Central train came along, and in attempting to jump on his hand slipped and he was struck by the wheels and his head was cut off. The body was taken on the train to his father's residence.

BEER AT PICNICS. The Trouble It is Making for Some of Our Social Managers.

Some time ago the liquor men in the county held a secret meeting relative to adopting some plan by which they could stop the sale of beer at Hanover and Mountain Parks by picnicers. They claim that any few persons can call themselves a club and sell beer without a county or revenue license. The first public notice was given when fifty warrants were sworn out before Squire Kemmerer for trustees or managers of societies, which have held picnics lately in the different parks.

Their Commissions Arrive. The commissions of the newly appointed judge and controller, L. H. Bennett and Joseph D. Lloyd, respectively, arrived in Scranton on Saturday. Both of the new officials will be sworn in today.

Off for the Seashore. The excursions to the seashore on Saturday carried about 700 people from this city. The low rate of $3 induced the great musical crowd, and the $1,000 prize in 1888, and he has been one of the most untiring workers to advance the musical interests of the city.

HUNTING FOR WEALTH. Farmer Mulford Believes That He Will Find a Fortune.

Stroudsburg, Pa., Aug. 11.—A cavern, thought to have been made centuries ago on the farm of Julius M. Mulford in the hill country, three miles back of Dingman's, has recently been discovered. It is believed to contain a fortune.

Mulford, imbued with the spirit of Cortez, is firm in his belief that there are gold and silver mines on his farm, and has made extensive excavations at different times in his search for the precious metals.

A careful examination of the sides has convinced Mr. Mulford that the place had been made with human hands, and that it was a vault in which great riches had been stored by unknown Indians. He therefore set a compass in the cavern and as the needle deflected to the right he began to dig.

Professor Mercer carefully examined every acute angle of rock and revelator of the real prospectors are not exactly suit the enthusiastic Mulford, who exclaimed: "Gentlemen, I firmly believe that this white mound or cliff, as you call it, was made with human hands and I'm going to know what it is sure as my name is Mulford. Didn't Cortez find wealth in Peru in just this manner?"
