

Carbondale News.

MR. BUDD ASSAULTED.

Severely Beaten by an Unknown Person. Found Unconscious.

Sunday morning J. T. Budd, of Belmont street, was most cruelly and brutally assaulted by an unknown person...

Mr. Budd acts as night clerk at the freight house and one of his duties is to sell tickets for the late trains...

Shortly after he was discovered by Winton Carver, who is the assistant of Alfred Masters...

MRS. STANTON DEAD.

The Well-Known Lady Passes Away at Danville.

The many friends of Mrs. Emiline Stanton will be pained to hear of her death which occurred at Danville...

Mrs. Stanton was born in Preston, Wayne county, April 9, 1827. In 1849 she was married to Henry P. Stanton...

NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harrison and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. H. Coleman, of Paterson, N. J., spent yesterday at Stanton Pond.

Albert H. Vandermark left yesterday for a week's vacation, which he will spend at Sylvan Beach, Lake Onondaga...

Miss Bertha and Julia Hathaway, Susie Jadin, of this city, and Mrs. Wentzel, of Danville, N. Y., will leave today for Jamestown, N. Y.

Miss Cora Crandall and Mamie Daley have gone to Uniondale, where they will visit friends for a week.

Miss Maggie Duffy, of Gordon avenue, is the guest of Miss Annie Nealon, of Pike street, over Sunday.

D. W. Humphrey returned yesterday from the seashore, where he has been spending his vacation.

Harry Hall, of High street, entertained S. A. Cahoon, of Scranton, over Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Stroeheter and daughter Louise spent yesterday at the home of Mrs. H. D. Herring, of Salem avenue.

Miss Maggie Duffy, of Gordon avenue, has returned home after a week's visit with friends in Scranton.

Mr. Henry Robinson, of New York, and Miss Bonnie Fomalis, of Uniondale, are visiting the latter's brothers, Walter and Jesse Bounds, on Washington street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tucker, of

Scrofula Broke Out

On our boy when a baby. We gave him much treatment without avail. Noticing in the papers Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended for scrofula and blood disease...

Hood's Sarsaparilla and is now entirely well, hearty and free from all scrofulous symptoms. I have also taken three bottles for nervous headache and catarrh. It gave me great relief.

Mrs. T. M. SATTEN, Butler, Pa.

Hood's Pills

Great Clearing Sale of Carpets, Oil Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings, Lace Curtains, Chenille Curtains, Tapestry Curtains, Window Shades and Wall Papers.

Remember, this is a bonafide Clearing Sale to make room for Fall goods.

J. SCOTT INGLIS

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Mrs. Monroe Tyler, Saturday and Sunday.

Thomas J. Maxey spent Friday and Saturday as the guest of Hazelton friends.

Miss Minnie F. Gay has returned to her home at Millville, Wayne county, after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. M. Bivins.

Anna Thomas, of Herrick Center, who was recently elected a teacher in the Forest City graded school for the ensuing year, was a visitor in this borough Saturday.

Louisa Westgate returned Saturday from a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. T. D. Jones, of South Gibson.

J. R. Budd and family, who are spending the summer on their farm at Girard and Wayne county, were home over Sunday.

A very interesting meeting was held by the Christian Endeavor societies of this place at the Forest City church on Sunday evening.

The Presbyterian will hold a communion service at Uniondale, Ararat and Carbondale, and interesting reports of the international convention held at Boston were given by the delegates.

Miss Nettie Bloxham and Clark Avery, of Ararat, and Miss Frank Lewis and Howard Crane, of Uniondale, were present.

Miss Charlotte Giles spent Sunday at Crystal Lake.

Thomas Gilmartin, of Brooklyn street, is able to be around again after his recent illness.

William Merrick, of Pittsburgh, Pa., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Peter O'Neal, of Baiter alley.

J. P. A. Tingley spent Sunday with Captain Morris and family, of Scranton.

Mrs. Hannah Leonard, who has been camping at Crystal Lake, was called home by the illness of her sister.

Miss Evelyn Jones is visiting relatives at Wilkes-Barre and Morris Run.

Mr. and Mrs. Q. Kline have returned home after a week's visit at Atlantic City.

Miss Elizabeth Thomas, of Scranton, spent yesterday as the guest of Miss Elizabeth Thomas, of South Church street.

Miss Mary Manley has returned from Atlantic City, where she has been spending her vacation.

Miss Mary Meehan, of Brooklyn street, is visiting friends in Scranton.

The Misses Mary and Annie Mohan, of Moscow, are visiting Miss Mary Burke, of Brooklyn street.

The Misses Nellie Flannigan and Elizabeth Murray, of Newark Valley, N. J., returned home yesterday after a few days' visit with Miss Kate Walsh, of Terrace street.

John Hartman, of the H. W. Johns Manufacturing company, Philadelphia and New York, and Eli J. Mahan, chemist, of Scranton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith, of Eighth avenue.

Melvin Tappen, of Farview street, spent Sunday with friends in Tunkhannock.

Miss Pierce and wife will return today from Otseville, Orange county, where they have been visiting relatives for the past two weeks.

Edmund H. Hensley, of Dundaff street, is quite ill with typhoid fever.

The condition of Abe Sahn, who underwent an operation at Emergency hospital last week, is improved.

John T. Ball, of Honesdale, called on friends in this city yesterday.

The Misses Mary Burke and Lizzie Kiley, and Mrs. Mary McCawley are visiting friends in Scranton.

Miss Mamie McNichol, of Olyphant, is the guest of Mrs. Ruel Hampton, of South Wyoming street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cain and son, Thomas, of Middletown, N. Y., and Mrs. Henry Ball, of Honesdale, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Schmitt, have returned home.

Miss Kate Kelley, of River street, has gone to Lake Ariel for a ten days' outing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Payne, of Scranton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Sampson, of Jeffrey street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Marcy and son, Raymond, Misses Mary, Minnie and Isabel Marcy, of this city, are visiting at Lake Sheridan.

Miss Cecelia Clark, of Pleasant Mount, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Robert Bryson and Kirk Wickwire took a spin to Newton lake Sunday.

ARCHBALD.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garden and Mrs. Neal Kearney and son, Patrick, were in Dushore on Saturday attending the funeral of Mrs. Gilligan, who was a sister of Mr. Garden.

The borough council will hold a regular meeting this evening.

During the past week painters have been at work on the Ontario and Western depot, and they have beautified it inside and out with paint and varnish.

The building now presents a neat appearance, and as far as appointments go is second to none in the county. The officials are to be commended for the care they bestow on their property here.

Mrs. Robert Starley, of Worcester, Mass., a former resident of this place, is visiting relatives here. She is accompanied by her daughter Sarah.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McFate, Mrs. P. W. Fadden, of Olyphant, and Miss Julia Gownley, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with friends here.

Miss Jennie Kearney, of Laurel street, is spending a few days at Lake Winola.

On Friday C. M. Hathaway, Jr., of Olyphant, and representatives of an insurance association were here for the purpose of procuring data as to the value and character of insurable property in this borough. It is said that a re-arrangement of rates will result from this visit and there may possibly be an increase in the cost of insurance.

The general expression of themselves as being satisfied with our facilities of fighting flames, and also with the exceptional record of this borough because of its freedom from disastrous fires.

At present Archbald is reaping the benefit of a building boom, and in every part of the town neat and costly structures are being erected. Chief among them is the handsome white-brick residence of Rev. T. J. Comerford, and which is now being roofed and will be ready for occupancy within two months. The Presbyterian parsonage is also rapidly raising skyward, and it will be an ornament to the neighborhood in which it is located.

Frank Gaughan has broken ground for a large and costly dwelling near Daly's crossing, and Martin Cawley is also preparing to erect a new home on the site now occupied by his present residence. There are many smaller buildings going up on the outskirts of the town.

John B. Lack, of Main street, spent Sunday at Asbury Park, where Mr. Lack has been stopping during the past two weeks.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles. Symptoms—Molature; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. It allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At drugstore, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

AVOCA.

Mrs. J. R. Wagner returned on Saturday, after a week's visit with friends at Lehman.

Mrs. Charley Stegmaler, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting at the home of Chris. Druffner.

Mike Clifford, of the West Side, is sick with an attack of malaria.

Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Wagner are entertaining Mrs. T. H. Brown, of Lehman.

Miss Dora Davis, of Albany, is spending her vacation with Miss Anna Dece, of English street.

Misses Teresa M. Hannan and Lillie Schreiber, of New York, are the guests of Miss Ella O'Malley.

The Olyphant Base Ball team crossed yesterday with the Avoca business men on the latter's grounds. The score was 12 to 13, a victory for the Olyphants.

Henry Gerrity and Will Blast, of Pittston, were entertained last evening by friends here.

Mart Collins spent last evening with friends here.

Miss Lizette Clifford, of Dunmore, is the guest of the Misses Connor, of Vine street.

Storling Keith returned yesterday from a two weeks' vacation at Atlantic City.

Ethel Sammon, the 6-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. William Sammon, died yesterday of cholera infantum. Funeral at this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The funeral of Patrick Cuner, which occurred yesterday morning, was largely attended. The high mass of requiem was solemnized by Rev. M. F. Crane, who preached a very appropriate sermon in tribute to the deceased. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery. The pall-bearers were Michael Quinn, Major James O'Malley, Owen McClain, John Gardner and Alexander Hastie.

PECKVILLE.

All members of Blakely Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, are requested to attend their lodge meeting next Wednesday evening, as the grand councillor and grand vice councillor will be present to transact important business.

Councillor W. H. Stevens was one among the many from here that took in the excursion to Ocean Grove last Saturday.

Mr. Homer English and three children are rusticating with friends at Moscow.

Thomas Swales is erecting a new house on North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Snyder and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garrison spent Sunday at Lily Lake.

The employees of the Riverside colliery were paid yesterday.

R. M. Hoffecker took a spin on his wheel to Lily Lake Sunday.

Mrs. P. G. Harding is very sick.

MAYFIELD.

H. J. De Gray visited Charles A. Hoyt, at West Pittston, over Sunday.

A game of ball will be played on the East Side grounds this morning, between the Jermyn clerks and a team of the Loyal Knights of America, of Jermyn.

P. F. Kilker is holding down "the key" nights at Pittston, for the next two weeks.

W. J. Berzan and son Alphonus visited Peckville Sunday.

The remains of Mrs. Thomas Reilly, of Plank road, who died Saturday night, will be taken to Girardville, Pa. for burial on the 19 o'clock Delaware and Hudson train today. A high mass of requiem will be celebrated in Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock.

Relief in Six Hours.

Distressing Kidney and Bladder ailments relieved in six hours by the "New Great South American Kidney Cure." This new remedy is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and ureters, and in urinary passages, in male or female. It relieves retention of water and pain in passing it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure in six hours, apply to C. M. Harris, Druggist, 125 Penn. avenue, Scranton, Pa.

W. M. T. SMITH.

AYLESWORTH'S MEAT MARKET

The Finest in the City.

The latest improved furnishings and apparatus for keeping meat, butter and eggs.

223 Wyoming Ave.

CLARK'S GREEN.

Bert Smith and family, of New Milford, spent several days with relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. Grace Fractory, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Skinner.

Miss Gibson, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting her cousin, Miss Lizette Clifford.

Miss Carrie Wells is visiting friends in Taylor.

Miss Maud Benedict returned to her home in Park Place on Saturday last.

Fred Brown and Arch Courtright left yesterday for an extended trip through the west.

Miss Maud Mullenix started for a visit to friends in Park Place on Saturday evening last.

Harry Rhodes, of Greenwood, spent the vacation week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rhodes, and returned on Sunday afternoon.

Rev. James Fielding occupied the pulpit at the Electric Star church on Sunday and Sunday's Covenant meeting occasion.

Edith Wilson is visiting friends at Bald Mount.

An entertainment for the benefit of the Epworth league is being contemplated.

Samuel Amerman and family are spending a short time at A. F. Brigham's.

CLARK'S SUMMIT.

The festival and clam bake held in Nichol's grove Thursday afternoon and evening by the Electric Star band was a complete success. The boys have the best wishes of the community, which was shown by the vast throng of pleasant faces. Too much praise cannot be given to the boys under the instructions of their accomplished leader, George Warner, for their fine rendering of their selections. We take exceptions to the report by one howling of being, as everything passed off lovely, and we congratulate the boys for making it pleasant for every one. The boys are doing part over the proceeds, which amounted to $123.

MAGNETISM

Magnetism as a Curative in Chronic Diseases.

CAUTION

TO OUR PATRONS:

Washburn-Crosby Co. wish to assure their many patrons that they will this year hold to their usual custom of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new crop is fully cured.

MEGARGEL & CONNELL

Wholesale Agents.

KERR, SIEBECKER & CO.

Carpets, Mattings, Linoleums, Oil Cloths, Window Shades, and Lace Curtains, Draperies and Upholstery Goods.

SIX FLOORS FILLED WITH EVERYTHING

Pertaining to the Carpet and Curtain Trade.

406-408 Lackawanna Avenue, Scranton, Pa.

THE BELL

230 Lackawanna Ave., Scranton.

The Times May Not Be All It Should Be, but Our

BARGAINS!

Will go a great way toward evening up things--for our customers

WE SAVE YOU MONEY THIS WEEK.

SUITS.

Men's Suits, regular price $9, $4.65

Men's Suits, regular price 12, 7.75

PANTS.

Men's Pants as low as $1.65

Men's Cassimere Pants 1.45

Men's Fine Dress Pants 2.25

BOYS' CLOTHING

A Serviceable Suit for $1.85

A Good Wool Suit for 1.48

A Hobby Dress Suit for 2.75

2 Pair Knee Pants for .25

THE BELL CLOTHING HOUSE,

230 Lackawanna Ave.

SIGN OF THE BELL

EMPIRE DRY GOODS CO.

516 LACKAWANNA AVE.

The stock we purchased at the Sheriff's Sale at Hazleton, Pa., is being offered at a price that is very satisfactory to us. The crowd on Monday was enormously large, and carried away the Baggies and the stock which is left we will dispose of at your own prices. Sale all week at the following prices:

1 case of Unbleached Brown Cotton, 44 heavy, for abouting only, gross price, 4 cents. Our Price, 4 1/2 Cents

1 case Checked Crash, all lines, gross price, 10 cents. Our Price, 5 Cents

1 case Bleached Towels, by the pair, fringed, gross price, 30 cents. Our Price, 10 Cents

1 case 44 Bleached Mohawk Muslin, gross price, 25 cents. Our Price, 12 1/2 Cents

A great sale for the use of every household.

1 case of Turkey Red Covers, sizes 62x82 and 62x90, gross price, $1.00 and $1.10. Our Price, 50c. and 55c. Each Turkey Red.

YOURS FOR COMFORT | YOURS FOR $9.90

A well-made Couch, fringed all around, covered in latest design corduroy—which means durability—28 inches wide, 76 inches long, double roll pillow head—something new. Some stores have valued—not as good—at $15.00; others at $12.00. "ECONOMY'S" price is $9.90. Only two dozen of them—won't last long at the price.

Fall Carpetings

Are now ready for your inspection. Early choice means lower prices.

OURS---A Credit House Selling at CASH PRICES.

ECONOMY FURNITURE CO.

225 and 227 Wyoming Avenue.