

HORTON'S BULLETIN.

Rev. "Father" Lucas's new book, "Agosticism and Religion," $1.25. Dr. Throop's Book, "Half Century in Scranton," illustrated by numerous portraits of old timers, large 8 vo. cloth covers, $2.50. Taylor's New Scranton Directory, 25. Peloubet's Notes Sabbath School Lessons for this year, 25 cents, until balance of stock cleared out; Publisher's price of this book is $1.25. 35-cent cloth bound books, "Little Classics," our price 15c. 25-cent paper covered books, about 100 different titles, etc. Holland's "Katherine," cloth, 50c. Holland's "Bitter Sweet," cloth, 50c. New edition of old favorites, which were formerly sold at $1.25. School Lacka, beautiful new catalogue for ensuing year. Free, on call.

A Foe to Dyspepsia

GOOD BREAD USE THE Snow White FLOUR And Always Have Good Bread.

MANUFACTURED AND FOR SALE TO THE TRADE BY The Weston Mill Co.

PERSONAL.

Charles B. Wignate, of Syracuse, is visiting friends in this city. Misses Edith and Gerie Skout, of Dunmore, are at Crystal Lake. Undertaker Michael Bohan, of Avoca, visited friends in this city yesterday. Misses Maggie and Mamie Rowan, of Luzerne street, are at Atlantic City. Mrs. Alice Evans, of Eyon street, is enjoying her vacation at Rockaway Beach. Simon Lauer has returned from a vacation spent at points along the Atlantic coast. Mrs. A. J. Collins, of Monroe avenue, is entertaining Miss Anne Lake, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Marion Perry and Mrs. Marjo Mills are spending their vacations at Asbury Park, N. J. Mrs. John F. Joyce and her sister, Miss Agnes Mahon, of Third street, are at Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. George Miller and children, of Long Island, N. Y., are visiting friends in Scranton. Miss Alice Deegan, assistant secretary of the board of health, begins a two weeks' vacation today. Mrs. Nellie Kelly has returned to Scranton after spending a week at Baltimore and points along the coast. Henry H. Fordham, a well-known Montrose merchant, accompanied by his son, Edward, is in the city on business. Dr. John L. Wentz, of Scranton, is at the Brexton with Mrs. Wentz—Cape May correspondence in Philadelphia Press. Frank McCall, accompanied by Charles Lenahan, of Wilkes-Barre, left yesterday for Atlantic City, where they will spend two weeks. The Misses Jessie Phillips, Anna and Lizzie Jenkins, Alice and Kate Warner, Ella Hancock, Edith Skout and Miss Acker, who are at Dundaff villa, Crystal Lake, are expected home tomorrow.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The roof of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station is being repaired. Conductor John Rencher, of train 12 and 14, is at Heart Lake fishing. Conductor John Farrell is in charge of his train. It is said that Conductor Bond, of the Nicholson accommodation, who has been on a vacation for the past four weeks, is traveling with a band of gipsies for his health. What is the matter with the Railroad Young Men's Christian association? A game with Hoboken or Elmira or Binghamton would be interesting and would tend to cement the strong bond of friendship now existing between these branches. A very commendable enterprise is the excursion of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Mutual Aid association to Syracuse, Pleasant Beach and Maple Bay on Saturday, August 17. If Scranton people knew thoroughly the worthiness of these two institutions it would tax the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western to its utmost capacity to furnish cars for the crowds who would go. Every person who rides out of Scranton on the cars ought to feel a great sense of security in the fact that the crews of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western trains are made up of so many sober, faithful Christian men. This is a state of things largely brought about by the Railroad Young Men's Christian association and for this reason and for the reason that they are doing such a magnificent work among all classes of railroad men in railroad men take such an interest in the association as to crowd their little quarters at the rate of over 500 a day. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Mutual Aid for its humane idea in its organization, deserves as great support. Not a day passes but we hear of some brave man being killed on the rails or crippled for life, and we feel sorry for the helpless widow and fatherless children. It is just here where the grand work of the Mutual Aid comes in. The death of a member (there are not over 1,500) a check of $1,000 is—without grand work of the Mutual Aid comes in, the family of the deceased. There is also a sum given to those who are crippled in any way. For these reasons, if for no other, it is safe to bespeak a hearty support for this excursion.

NEW LETTERS GRANTED.

Lili Howard's Estate Will Be Administered by Frank G. Harisk. Register of Wills W. S. Hopkins amended the record yesterday in the estate of Esther M. Walker, deceased, so as to make it read: Walter and not Smith, as the letters of administration granted by ex-Register Koehler were to "Doe" M. D. Smith, and the name of the estate was accordingly that of Esther M. Smith. The register, on application of Attorney E. C. Newcomb, who represents Mrs. Asenath Davis Judson Comstock, and the other heirs-at-law, yesterday granted letters of administration to Frank G. Harisk. He will take charge immediately of the estate.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS

Republican Club Organized in Pickett's Hall, South Side.

TOOK SHOES FROM HIS FEET Experience That Michael Noonan Underwent at Minoaka Monday Night.

Events of the Day in Providence, Dunmore and Minoaka.

SOUTH SIDE.

A number of the workers of the Republican party in the Eleventh ward held a meeting last night at Pickett's Hall on Cedar avenue, preliminary to the organization of a club. Fred Schumann was elected as temporary chairman, and John Schuey, Jr., as secretary. Those present spoke in an enthusiastic way concerning the organization of a club, and it is proposed to strike out vigorously and lay the foundation of a substantial Republican majority from the ward at the November election; also to prepare the way for victory at the next spring elections. The secretary will communicate with every Republican voter in the ward and invite his presence at a meeting next Tuesday evening, Aug. 20, at the same hall, when a permanent organization will be effected.

They Took His New Shoes.

Heretofore, when Michael Noonan purchases a pair of new shoes, he will think twice before going to Minoaka to "wet" them. They played a scurvy trick on him up in that region Monday night. He partook of a sufficient quantity of fermented juices to induce the tired feeling and adjourned to the fields in the rear of John Kane's restaurant to rest. He had on a pair of new shoes, which he had bought yesterday morning with the dew on his brow the new shoes were gone. He walked home Trilby fashion.

Shorter Paragraphs.

Attorney M. J. Donahoe and P. J. Kelly were chosen delegates from Columbus county, Young Men's Institute, to the convention at Indianapolis on Sept. 22. Misses Ella and Kate Donahoe, Tessie O'Malley, Mary Mahon, Eliza Jordan and Mary Gallagher, of this side, Annie Connell, Bridget Brown, Mamie Coyne and Mamie Fitzhenry visited in Wyoming yesterday. C. T. Holland, of Pittston avenue, was a visitor in this city yesterday. Misses Maggie and Lizzie Schwartz, of Carbonate, visited friends on the South Side yesterday. A crowd of about 100, of Pittston avenue and Elm street, is moving his stock from that location. The congregation of St. John's German Catholic church of the West Side held a picnic at Central park yesterday. Chris Jonyt, of Elm street, is seriously ill at the Moses Taylor hospital. The William Connell Home company will picnic at Central park next Saturday. The Epworth league of the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church held a business session last evening. The St. Aloysius society of St. John's parish has rented Dr. Manley's hall.

NORTH END.

Miss Gertrude and Miss Claudia Williams, of School street, will leave this morning to visit friends at Binghamton and Owego. The Providence convales of Heptasoph last evening and had a very large attendance, and special business was transacted. Miss Margaret Kennedy, of Putnam street, is visiting for a few days in Olyphant. Professors Thornton and Gerrity will give a social to their friends this evening in O'Donnell's hall. Patrick Cannon, of Hudson street, is visiting at Atlantic City. Mrs. Charles Zeigler and daughter, Jennie, of North Main avenue, will leave today for Washington, D. C., and will also visit Lake George, Montreal, Albany and places of interest along the Hudson river before returning home. Class No. 12 of the Sunday school of the Christian church held a very interesting entertainment in their church parlors last evening, and the enjoyment of the evening was shared with a large crowd which attended the entertainment. After the entertainment ice cream and cake was served. F. E. Hill, of Nantux, spent Monday with friends on Parker street. The marriage of Timothy White and Miss Nellie Kenahan will take place this afternoon at the Holy Rosary church on William street. George Silkman has returned from Block Island. Mr. and Mrs. James Flynn, of Warren street, left Monday for a week's vacation at Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Alvord, of North Main avenue, returned yesterday from Elmira, where they spent Sunday. Miss Lizzie Cullen, of Dunmore, is visiting Miss Clara Wells, of Bloom avenue. Miss Meta Osterhout, of Oak street, is entertaining Miss Annie McElroy, of Philadelphia. Guy and Burton Osterhout, of Oak street, returned Saturday from Nicholson. A. J. Phalen, of Brick avenue, a clerk in Gillespie's store, is spending his vacation at Narragansett Pier, Newport and other places in Rhode Island. Mr. and Mrs. Evan Gabriel and family, of Church avenue, will leave tomorrow for a two weeks' vacation at Lake Winola. Edward Keefe, of Summit avenue, wheeled to Carbonate and back on Sunday. Miss Price, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting Miss Meta Osterhout, has returned to her home. Mrs. Keefe, of Summit avenue, will leave tomorrow for a month's visit with relatives in Canada. Master Robert Fish is seriously sick. Mr. and Mrs. Mayer Fish and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Arnold returned yesterday from Preston Park, where they spent Sunday. Miss Lottie Fish, of North Main avenue, and Miss Grace Arnold are spending a few days at Livingston Manor, N. Y.

DUNMORE

Prayer meeting in the Presbyterian church tonight will be in charge of S. B. Bulkeley. C. L. Jay, of Webster avenue, has returned from Binghamton, where he had been attending the funeral of his sister. The social of St. Agnes' guild of St. Mark's mission, at the residence of Rev. A. L. Urban tonight, should be liberally patronized at good time is promised all who attend. Quite a little excitement was caused yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock on South Blakely street by a horse attached to a light spring wagon running away. The king bolt broke, letting the body of the wagon forward, striking the horse on the flank. Near the Methodist church the wagon parted and the horse continued his flight, taking the two front wheels with him. He was stopped before doing any damage. The funeral of Oscar, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Ridgeway, aged 1 year and 7 months, took place yesterday afternoon, interment being made in the Betselburg cemetery. Harry Cole and Miss Lizzie Krause, of Brook street, spent Sunday with friends in Waverly. Miss Nellie Wilcox, of Madisonville, is the guest of Miss Eva Osterhout of South Blakely street. The meeting of the school board, which was to have been held last night, was postponed on account of the lack of a quorum. The first pay night meeting of the Equitable Building and Loan association will hold a Manley ball on Tuesday evening, Aug. 27, at which time any person desiring stock can secure it.

The funeral of Ray Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jansen Cole, of Ambrose street, took place from the family residence yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was attended by a large number of number being reduced on account of a misunderstanding as to the time. In the absence of Rev. J. W. Williams, pastor of the church of which he deceased was a member, Rev. Richard Hester, of Scranton, had charge of the services and made a very appropriate and touching eulogy. Burial tributes were contributed, which were borne to the cemetery by Fred Russell, William Chamberlain, James Hopkins and Harry Smith. The remains, which were placed in a handsome casket, were carried to their last resting place by Messrs. Lott, Frank Van Horn, Howard Bone, Harry Young, Charles Foster and George Young. The deceased was a promising young man and had every prospect of a bright future. He had a host of intimate friends, who showed the remains were laid to rest in the Dunmore cemetery. The regular monthly meeting of the council adjourned last week, was held in the boardroom building last night with President Haggerty in the chair, and Members Walsh, Peyton, McAllister and Ward present. The reports of the various committees which have been in progress being reported. The fire alarm system was laid over to a meeting to be held on Aug. 29, as were several other matters of importance. The report of the chief of police for July showed six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to run their cars on certain streets passed second reading. J. J. Healy, tax collector for 1895, returned to appear before the council at the next meeting to settle his tax duplicate for that year. A notice was ordered served on John Stanton and Harry Broadbent, by the chief of police, for July showing six arrests and lights burning well. The street commissioner's report showed work to the amount of $838.17 for the month of July. The last month treasurer, P. D. Manley, was reported to the committee on bonds in conjunction with the burgess. An ordinance giving the right of way to the Dunmore Street Railway company to