RAILROAD NOTES.

Lehigh Valley trainmen whose runs begin at Easton must live there hereafter or pay fare going to and from their homes.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has introduced a new method of "frictio" locomotives at the Mount Carbon station. A thin covering of soft coal is thrown on the grate bars and saturated with oil.

Tim Carney's aggregation of Indians had a special "jimmie" yesterday and went to Kingston to play the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western employees of that place.

What's the meaning of this? said a Tribune reporter yesterday at Ticket Agent M. L. Smith as he was tacking up a huge placard which read "To New York and Return, $2.75."

A very pleasant birthday surprise party was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hufford, on Jaden street.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

The eighth annual reunion of the Stanton family was held at the residence of Eugene Stanton, corner of Parker street and North Main avenue, yesterday afternoon and evening.

SOUTH SIDE.

A large party of young people from the West Side had a trolley party to this side of the city today.

The building associations of this city are nowhere more progressive than on the South Side. Three have been prospering for many years, and now a new German, during the present month, has begun business very auspiciously.
