ARE CHARGED WITH LIBEL

Proprietors Bell and Watkins of Times Placed Under Arrest.

DID NOT HAVE A HEARING

They Entered Ball at Once for Their Appearance at Court—What Frank Carlucci Has to Say—Affidavits That He Produces.

Proprietors Bell & Watkins, of the Times, were arrested yesterday afternoon on warrants issued at the instance of Vito Marzani and Rinaldo Lalli, hotelkeepers of Dunmore, by Alderman O. B. Wright. In the information on which the warrants were issued it is set forth that the complainants were libeled and held up by the publication of articles which appeared in the Times on Aug. 7 and 8. It is contended that these articles gave to the public the impression that the Mafia, a certain oath bound organization of unsavory reputation, held meetings in the hotels of the proprietors on Willow street, Dunmore.

It is set forth that this charge or insinuation is wholly untrue, and that no such organization as the Mafia ever met in the hotels of Mr. Girardo or Mr. Lalli. Messrs. Bell and Watkins, after the warrants were served, went before Alderman Wright, waived a hearing, and entered bail for their appearance in court.

Cause of the Arrest.

The arrest of the proprietors of the Times is the result of articles that have appeared in the Times charging that there is an organization known as the Mafia among the Italians of this city and vicinity. In discussing the matter Frank Carlucci, one of the most prominent Italians of the city, said last night:

"We feel aggrieved at the attacks that the Times has made on our people. They are very unjust and have a tendency to injure us in the eyes of the people of this community, whose favorable opinion every good Italian is striving for. Ten of us waited on Editor Bell Monday and asked him to give us the name of the person who inspired the articles against us, or else retract the damaging assertions made. He refused to do so, and we have therefore decided to sue him."

Mr. Bell says he has such little respect for Mr. Carlucci, and he is not prepared to begin other suits against him. He says that those in whom Mr. Carlucci and Mr. Girardo are prosecutors.

The statement published in the Times alleging to be an interview with Frank Carlucci, in which he swore to the affidavit sworn to today before Mayor W. L. Connell proves:

The Affidavit.

Lackawanna County, ss.: City of Scranton.

Before me, the subscriber, mayor of said city, in said county, personally came J. W. Conroy, of Scranton, who upon oath according to law, said that the statement made in the Scranton Times, on Aug. 13, 1895, to wit: "I don't care whether you say it in the paper or not, but if you want to say it, you can do so, all the lower class of Italians want to do it, and I will kill and then say nothing about it," etc., is untrue in every respect and is intended to injure me before the Italian people."

Sworn and subscribed this 15th day of August, 1895, at Scranton, N. J., Mayor W. L. Connell.

The following affidavit, which Mr. Carlucci also produced, he said, was conclusive evidence that there was no truth in the story in the Times concerning the existence of a Mafia here:

State of Pennsylvania, County of Lackawanna, ss.: Before me, a notary public duly commissioned and residing in Scranton, Pa., personally appeared Emilio Criscuolo, who, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says: "I never told the reporter of the Scranton Times or anybody else in regard to the statements made in the Times under date of August 7th and 8th, 1895, or any other time concerning the existence of a 'Mafia' society in this city; and further that I never reported that I had been threatened by any of the Italian societies or by any person in any form whatsoever; and further that I have never called and named in the Times as 'Lifer' and 'Cut-throat' any person, and I do not intend to do so; and I do not intend to make voluntarily by me and not through threats or fear of any person or society of persons, any statement in the Times or elsewhere, which would injure or defame any person or society of persons, and I do not know of the existence of any such society."

Sworn and subscribed before me the 14th day of August, 1895, at Scranton, N. J., Watson Browning, Notary Public. Witnesses present: Frank Williams, V. Cascese, Nicolo Lettieri.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

(Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied by the name of the writer, if desired. The Tribune will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.)

IT WAS MRN. J. L. BENTON.

To Whom It May Concern: "What's in a name?" Scranton people will answer "Everything!" In view of this fact we state in remembrance of the late Mr. Benton who was present at the seance last Monday evening was Mrs. J. L. Benton, of 28 Adams avenue. If further information be desired apply at the above address.

A QUESTION.

Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Can the learned people of Scranton inform me if there is a new gentleman lately added to the human race? I think there is something riding around on bicycles that looks like a gentleman, yet is not; neither is it a lady, for no true, modest lady would ever go around in that style. I hope some one will kindly answer this bewildering question and relieve the mind of a devotee of the bicycle.

MISSIONARY WORK IN CHINA.

Editor of The Tribune. Sir: I notice that your remarks on "Missionary Work in China" excited some comment from Mr. Richard Horns. Whether he can see all the future of the subject, or not, the "freedom of the press" manifested by The Tribune will certainly lead to a broader and clearer understanding of the subject—which we believe to be very little understood. And yet how many clearly understand the plan of Jehovah in dealing with the heathen, as given to us in the Scriptures? Surely we think that if the Bible view was clearly seen it would be the means of saving many valuable lives and millions of money. All Christians should see from past leadings of the church that God has a plan for everything, and that now during this Gospel age is His "due time" for the selection of "the church of the firstborn," which, when fully tried and disciplined, and proved to be "overcomers" are united with her Lord and Head, thus forming "the seed" of the Kingdom, that is to "bless all the families of earth," including "John Chinaman," both living and dead, as well as those yet to be born of every nation, "all shall hear His voice." "Light more lights is the catchword," submitted in the interest of truth, F. M. Dolph.
