CITY NOTES.

The joint auditing committee of councils will meet tonight. noon at 2 o'clock in the hall of Camp 175 of the West Side.

Ten carloads of people came to this city yesterday on an excursion over the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

The May Day Engine company will hold its annual picnic and clam bake at Waller's grove today and tonight.

Employees of the Delaware and Hudson Canal company at No. 2 and No. 3 shafts, Plymouth, received their monthly pay yesterday.

In the estate of John Leese, late of Vandalia, letters of administration were granted yesterday by Register of Wills Hopkins to Mary Jane Leese.

A convention of representatives of the camps of the Patriotic Order Sons of America in the west district of Lackawanna county will be held Wednesday afternoon in St. Lawrence's church here. Fred A. Lyne, of Detroit, was inadvertently credited with an expression of opinion relating to Sunday newspapers which was really made by James E. Scriver, the millinaire publisher of Detroit.

Miss Jean Howison, of Perth, Scotland, will deliver a lecture at Young Men's Christian Association hall tomorrow night on Robert Burns, the poet. The Scottish-American Journal has this to say of her:
"Miss Howison has a fine, clear, self-possession, and a well-trained voice. For over an hour she captured the attention of her hearers. Her rendering of the poet's 'Man was made to mourn' was so full of pathos and feeling that many found the tears come unbidden; and in 'A Man's Man for A' That' she evoked a hearty and sympathetic accord with the glorious sentiment which it immortalizes; so much so, indeed, that the audience could not resist applauding her to the echo."

ARE GOING TO READING.

Knights of Pythias Will Attend the Meeting of the State Lodge.

A large delegation of Scranton Knights of Pythias will leave today at 1:30 over the Central Railroad of New Jersey to attend the meeting of the state lodge at Reading.

Those who will go are: Dr. H. N.
Dunnell, Eber Branning, Martin Joyce, D. H. Reese, Elias Williams, Thomas E. Williams, William D. Davenport, Broadhead, W. E. Lumley, D. B. Williams, Richard Reynolds, of Scranton; and David Orr, of Carbondale; Martin Schlatter, of Tunkhannock; A. D. Harding, of Susquehanna, and C. W. Broad-head, of Montrose. At Wilkes-Barre they will be joined by R. L. Wallace, Alexander Thompson, of Scranton, and Thomas D. Williams, R. Pickwell, Willam F. Walters, Frank E. Benjamin, James Gardner.

An extent of interest to Scrantonians in connection with the meeting of the state lodge will be the installation of Dr. H. N. Dunnell, of this city, as vice-grand chancellor. An effort will be made to have the next meeting of the state lodge held in this city.

A WHOLESOME FISHER.

Warden Hines Is After Him with a Sharp Stick.

At the instance of Fish Warden S. J.
Hines a warrant was yesterday issued for George F. Anthony, of Pittston, who is charged with illegal fishing and breaking open a fish dam.

Mr. Hines alleges that Mr. Anthony has been in the habit of catching fish whenever he wanted without reference to the state game laws, and that he went to Spring Brook recently and opening a dam allowed the water to escape. The pond was owned by the state fishery commission, and was used as a stock pond. It is claimed that Anthony spread a net over the opening in the dam and thus caught all the fish.
He is charged with breaking the dam and also with catching fish with a net.

LISTING THE YOUNG MEN.

Directory That Secretary Mahy Is Engaged in Compiling.

Secretary Mahy, of the Young Men's Christian Association, has a force of canvassers at work compiling a directory of the young men of the city. The list will be used in connection with the John Raymond Institute, which will open here this fall.

The canvassers have ascertained the name of every young man living here, together with his age, occupation and church connection.

AGAIN THE BANANA PEEL.

Mrs. Morrison, of South Scranton, Sustains a Broken Leg.

Mrs. Morrison, a resident of South Scranton, slipped on a banana peel at Lackawanna and Washington avenues Saturday night.

She fell heavily to the pavement and broke one of her legs. A cab was summoned and the injured woman, who is about 55 years of age, taken to her home.

Boston. On account of Knights Templar conventions at Boston, the Lehigh Valley road will sell tickets at very low rates on Aug. 23 to 26, inclusive, good for return until Sept. 10, inclusive. A choice of various routes will be offered. For rates and

EVANGELIST'S WORK BEGUN

Schivera Starts His Tent Campaign on the South Side.

SANGUINE OF GREAT SUCCESS

Three Services Yesterday in the Tent at Brook Street and Cedar Avenue.
Tells of Experiences in Homestead and Chicago.

Schivera, one of this country's famous evangelists, yesterday began a tent campaign on the South Side that will last at least ten days and possibly several weeks. While he is no stranger to the city at large, having conducted revival meetings last year in the North End, West Side and central city, both his work and his personality are practically an innovation on the South Side, where no similar movement has been put forward in many years.

The tent has been located at the corner of Brook street and Cedar avenue, where the meetings can be conveniently reached by cars running on Pittston avenue. Services will be held each night, and the evangelist will each noon preach to workmen and factory girls in the tent or will go to them at their places of work in case where permission is secured. The first of these noon meetings will be held in the tent tomorrow, when the services will be especially for factory girls, although everybody is invited to attend.

Services were held morning, afternoon and evening yesterday, and while the attendance was not large, the gatherings represented as many persons as usually come on the first day.
It is Schivera's own eloquence, magnetism and practical Christianity that draws the people, and within two days each meeting will probably be attended by a throng that will tax to the utmost the capacity of the tent, which seats 1,200 persons. This has been true of every meeting Schivera has held. He governs himself and his utterances according to the needs of the class among whom he is working, calls things by their simple and right names, does not theorize and is merciless in lashing away the sham of milk-and-water Christianity.

In a Depraved Community.

Near Haymarket square, Chicago, a district abounding with thieves and the lowest possible element of humanity and where occurred the memorable riot of the anarchists, Schivera began his campaign several years ago. Hundreds of the degraded inhabitants of that region nightly congregated about the tent and would not enter, nor would they permit others to participate in the services.

It was characteristic of the evangelist that he announced that baby rattles each with a whistle attached, would be given the next night to each child brought to the service. He kept his word, and, as was expected, a bedlam followed, but he began preaching about the Virgin Mary, the mother of Jesus, and the mothers present stilled the noise, and thereafter the meetings were successful. He related this incident yesterday and at the same time told of how he gave away a wagon load of watermelons and another of bananas in order to get new converts and how he promising to give her a position in her boarding house here.

The girl consented, and upon her arrival at the station she was unceremoniously or tenderly discarded by Mrs. Wallace. Being unable to find any trace of the woman the girl inquired of two young men if they could locate her. They related this incident
boarding house here.

It was during the afternoon session that he related the story of the hundreds of young girls he had seen walking Lackawanna avenue the night before.
He said he had observed the same thing in other cities, but never on so large a scale as in Scranton, accompanying his observation with some and forceful remarks to the parents among the auditory.

A feature of the services is the singing. The songs are selected gospel hymns, copies of which are distributed throughout the audience. The leader is H. A. Wolfson, a baritone of considerable merit, who is ably assisted by a choir of South Side voices, and yesterday they sang with a swing and spirit which drew much of the attractiveness of the meetings.

Laborer in Homestead.

Schivera remarked yesterday upon the fact that the workmen of the South Side and their labors might be compared to the working population and the industries in Homestead, where a short time ago he conducted similar services. He had received discouraging reports while arranging to go to this great iron and steel manufacturing town, but went, nevertheless, and when he finished his work he left with the knowledge that a Christian lived in nine of every ten houses of the town.
He hoped to do as well, he said, on the South Side of Scranton. Judging from the interest shown in the first day's services, the evangelist's hopes will be realized.

The meetings are undertaken under an arrangement made between generous individuals of the working population and a few of the South Side churches; the former supply the incidental funds necessary to the work, while the latter furnish the singing and workers.
Wincher success will follow in a question upon which Evangelist Schivera himself has no doubts. He has never had a failure, and perhaps the reason for this is that he has a Christian in nine of every ten houses of the town.

ARE AGAINST THE SEWER

Nineteenth Ward Taxpayers in Arms Against the Project.

AN OPEN-AIR MASS MEETING

Citizens Who Object to the Proposed Sewerage District Sewer Speak Their Minds and Take Steps to Defeat the Projected Improvement.

A goodly number of Nineteenth ward property holders, who are adverse to the proposed Seventeenth District sewer, assembled at Irving avenue and Birch street yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock to take some formal steps against the improvement.

It was an open-air mass meeting, and while the proceedings were not carried on according to Cushing it was an unusually harmonious assembly, for every man stood about the same mind and all were deeply in earnest.
The men stood about in a group and talked over their grievances, then discussed various plans for according redress to the citizens. It was gathered from the talk that the sewer has been forced upon the people of the district, and while some are willing to stand the expense of the sewer, the majority is decidedly against it. They claim in addition to this that the report of the voters as shown by the first assessment was outrageously wrong, and further that they are left entirely in the dark as to what the sewer will do for the district. It was the consensus of opinion that the sewer should not be constructed, and further that it would not be constructed if the lower courts were a final result, the supreme court can be convinced that the necessity of the sewer will not warrant inflicting upon the people the hardship that will doubtless result.

Another Meeting Next Sunday.
James Fox, J. S. Utterott and George Gumbert were appointed a committee to secure St. John's hall for a meeting of the citizens of the district who opposed the sewer. The committee was appointed to solicit the necessary money for engaging lawyers and carrying out the plan of the citizens.

The territory through which the proposed sewer will extend is comprised mainly in the Nineteenth ward. This ward is peculiar in its topography, it is an almost every where one succeeding the other, from the low flat district on Pittston avenue to the furthermost end of the ward at the "bohemian" district known in local terminology as the "bush." The water which descends from the upper terrace finds lodgment on Pittston avenue, particularly the lower end of the ward, and the water which descends from the hill in a torrent, causing much damage.

As the water hill is what might be called a solid rock there is little or no absorption, consequently there is no way of disposing of refuse water, except to allow it to follow the gutter down the hill to the water works. There again there is a constantly flowing natural water which is carried by the gutter on Pittston avenue, and when it is little more than a constant volume causes many inconveniences.

In the face of these facts and the recommendations of the board of health, which has been and again has planned the sewer, the councilmen determined to put in a sewer, notwithstanding the strong opposition which they had met. The sewer is now completed their work and operations on the sewer are about ready to begin, and unless the objectors succeed in delaying the sewer it will be under way in the near future.

Say Expense Is Too Great.
It is quite evident from the expressions heard yesterday that few, if any, deny the value and necessity of the sewer, but the vast majority of the objectors claim, say that the expense is too great for the benefits that will be derived. Even though this assertion was correct they would not, they say, submit to the report of the viewers, which is flagrantly unjust.

The people on the hillside, who would not be helped nor harmed by the sewer, but who, in a sense of justice towards their neighbors in the lower district, feel their obligation to share the burden of the expense, are according to the viewers, called upon to pay the larger assessments. An instance was given of a property in the middle of a block on Irving avenue being assessed for the sewer at $100, while a property on the hillside, which Pittston avenue, whose value would be enhanced hundreds of dollars by a sewer was assessed only $25. At this rate, the sewer would pay for itself in a few years. The property on the hillside would be assessed $140, while the property that received all the benefit that the sewer derived from a sewer would be taxed $25.

Laterals sewers on the hill would also entail greater expense because of the rocky nature of the soil, and the great depth that would have to be reached to provide against future cutting, when the streets may need better grades.

IS ONLY TWENTY-THREE.
Nevertheless Nellie Connors Has Almost Drained the Cup.

Amid the human festum and jettam that found its way into the city station early Saturday morning were Miss Nellie Connors and Andrew Orlando, with whom she has been living for some time, and a half Scranton street. Nellie is only 23 years of age, but a wild career which began when she was a child of 15, has prematurely aged her and placed the index stamp of dissipation and riotous living on her once regular and attractive features.

Three years ago Nellie was first introduced to police circles. She was brought here by a crook named Connors, whose name she bears, although she was never married to him. Nellie at that time was fair to look upon, although dissipation had even then begun to do its deadly work. Connors was arrested in this city for an offense committed elsewhere, was taken away, and Nellie found herself at the mercy of the cruel world.

She took the downward path and descended rapidly. Saturday morning Orlando beat her cruelly. She called for help and the police came and arrested both. Orlando was fined $10 and paid his way to the county jail for twenty days.

Excursion TO SYRACUSE.
Twenty-Five Cars Required to Accommodate the Crowd.

There were many excursions from the city Saturday, but the largest was that which went to Syracuse and Pleasant Beach under the auspices of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Mutual Aid association.

It was necessary to increase the allowance of cars provided and two big sections made up of twenty-five cars were added to the regular accommodation. The excursion was a great success and the visitors enjoyed the many attractions of the city and the beach.

The train bearing the tired but well satisfied excursionists arrived in the city at an early hour Sunday morning, and street cars on all the lines were waiting to take them to their homes.
A rumor that one of the excursionists was wrecked and killed caused unpleasantness about town for a time Saturday night, but fortunately the rumor proved to be unfounded.

HIGHWAYMEN AT OLD FORGE.
They Held Up Four Hucksters Early Saturday Morning.

A band of highwaymen held up four hucksters who were driving to this city early Saturday morning. A strip of woods in Old Forge township was the spot the robbers selected for their work.
Before day huckster Stocum was driving to this city with a load of garden truck and dreaming of quick sales and fat profits when he was awakened from his reverie by four men who pounced upon him from the deep shadow of the woods which skirt the road at that point. Stocum had a revolver, and he used it with such good effect that the highwaymen were glad to retreat.

Huckster Huff was the next person to bowl over the road and he was held up at the same place. He, too, was armed, and went Scott free, but soon afterwards hucksters Whitlock and Evans fell into the hands of the robbers and were relieved of all their valuables.

The men who did the holding up were well equipped, and were said to look like Italians or Hungarians.

DISTURBANCE IN A CHURCH.
Henry Holt Arrested for Being the Instigator.

For some time the congregation of the Little England mission, in the Tenth ward, have been annoyed by those who attend the services with a view to disturbing the worshippers.
As other means were of no use, a warrant was issued on Saturday for the arrest of Henry Holt, who is charged with being the instigator.

The warrant charges Holt with disturbance of the services last Sunday especially, but also at a number of other times. Mr. Lee, who was in charge of the services, several times requested him to stop and at last went to him and again requested him to keep quiet or else go out, which he refused to do.
On being requested the second time he insulted Mr. Lee and used profane language.

SACRED CONCERT AT PARK.
Fine Programme Rendered by Bauer's Band Yesterday Afternoon.

Over 1,500 persons heard the sacred concert at Laurel Hill park yesterday afternoon, when a fine programme was rendered by Bauer's band.

The programme opened with the march "Lullaby," by Coverly, which was followed by the overture from Ros-sin's "Stabat Mater." Other numbers were the gavotte, "The Queen's Favorite," by Walter; "Sanctus," from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass," selections from "Bohemian Girl," "Red Hussar," and "Poor Jonathan;" "Gloria," from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass;" Joseph Sum-merhill's "The Palms," a well executed cornet solo.

WANTED ON TWO CHARGES.
A Scranton Man Arrested in Oil City Friday.

Officer Stephen Dyer has gone to Oil City to secure August Penquest, who was arrested there Friday on information secured from Scranton charging him with defrauding his boarding housekeeper and refusing to keep his word with a girl whose confidence he had won by a promise of marriage.

Andrew Campbell's name appears as prosecutor on the warrant charging fraud and Miss Jane Anwyth is the young lady who charges breach of promise. She is a Swede and resides on the West Side.

The officer is expected back with his prisoner today.

DRIVER LUDWIG INJURED.
Horse Ran Away and He Was Thrown to the Ground.

John Ludwig, the driver of one of E.
Robinson's horse-drawn wagons, was severely injured on Saturday morning when his horse ran away and he was thrown out and dragged some distance, sustaining severe bruises about the hips.

It will be several weeks before he will be able to resume work.
