MAY RUN INDEPENDENT. Mr. Steele Bobs Up as Candidate for

Office of County Surveyer. It is said that a well known young ngineer by the name of Steele will run It is said that a well known yoursengineer by the name of Steele will run for county surveyor on nomination papers, as an independent candidate. It is to be hoped that before taking out this papers, Mr. Steele will see the folly of his course, and decide not to run. He will have no earthly chance of being elected, and his candidacy will seriously imperil the chances of Mr. Post, the Republican nominee. This is a thing that cannot be done at present, when every Republican county should work for the success of the ticket which represents his political principles.

Mr. Post, as the nominee of the Republican party for this office, is justly entitled to the vote and work of every Republican in the county, and he entitled to the vote and work of every Republican in the county, and he should have it. For the Republicans to bring on a battle for even a small office, is to imperil the chances of success of the entire ticket 'from Judge down. With hard, earnest work from now until election, the Republicans can elect their entire ticket, and it is hoped that Mr. Steele's friends will be able to persuade him that his duty is not to run as an independent candidate, but to turn in and help elect Mr. Post to the position for which he was nominated, and which he is amply qualified to fill. There is no use denying that the Dem-There is no use denying that the Democratic ticket is a strong one, and it will take hard work to elect the straight Republican ticket this fall, but if di-rected right, it can be done. No chances should be taken for even the smallest place on the ticket, and if from now on the Republicans present an unbroken front, the entire ticket can be elected. The anti-convention bick-erings and disputes should be passed over and forgotten, and every Republlean should work and vote for the suc-

AT THE CAMP GROUND.

Stirring Services in Progress at Wyoming Review of the Work.

Saturday evening Rev. Hugh C. Mc-Dermott, A. M., of Kingston, Methodist Episcopal church, was the preacher. He lifted the minds of his hearers to lofty heights of comfort and faith as he dein scholarly and glowing thoughts the substantial grounds of the Christian faith in the atonement. Sunday.—The day was glorious in its brightness. Several thousand people came to the grounds. The preacher of the morning was Rev. W. Treible, of Wyoming. His theme was "Lessons from the Transfiguration." Matt., xyli: 1-3 One: The hidden and final glory of Jesus revealed. Two: The story of redeeming love. Three: We have in Jesus Christ the union of all things and He becomes the all in all. Fully two thousand people listened to the dis-Afternoon.-Rev. William G. Simpson, of West Pittston, was the orator. The sermon was founded on John, x. 10, and Acts, 17-28, "The Religious Life and Incarnation." A large concourse of people listened to the discourse. An altar ser-vice of much interest followed, conducted by Rev. O. Severson, Ph. D., of Plymouth, Pa.

Evening.—The service consisted of a sermon by Rev. J. B. Sweet, of Ashley, who sought to follow up the force of the sermons of the morning and after-noon in calling the people to surrender to and obey the call of Jesus. Text Matt., iv. 19. Mr. Sweet proved him-self an able expositor of the word.

It was a great day in Zion. The order was all that could be desired. The Board of Managers received about $200 from collections and subscriptions.

The Methodist Protestant church on The Methodist Protestant church on Broad street, lately enlarged, remodeled and painted, was dedicated to the service of God on Sunday. It was beautifully decorated with bouquets of cut flowers, potted plants and ferns, the work of Florist Ellis. The services were appropriate and interesting to the large audience that assembled to hear and take part in them. Rev. Alexander Patten, president of the New York Conference, preached the dedication sermon from these words found in Haggi. i, 8, "Go up to the mountain and bring wood and build the house, and I will take pleasure in it and be glorified, saith the Lord." Three hundred people witnessed the game between teams of Pittston and Moosic at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon. The home team started a fast game and the second inning closed with no runs for either side. In the third McDonald, of the visitors, scored, the only run made in the first five innwith no runs for either side. In the third McDonald, of the visitors, scored, the only run made in the first five innings. Moosic spurted in the sixth and scored five runs to Pittston's one. The seventh was slow, but the Moosic team pulled three runs, Pittston scoring one on Price's three-bag hit. The first half of the eighth was quiet. Keogh stepped into the box for Pittston, and the game assumed a new aspect, which seemed to arouse the indignation of Gloosic, they scoring but one run. Gfbbert, Moosic's pitcher, went up to visit Venus in the last half, seven runs being made and only one man out. Three men were given bases on balls and three bases were stolen. The official score keepers became tangled over the tallies and a general row was narrowly averted. The game proceeded and another run was scored with two men out and one on base. The game was too much in favor of Pittston at this time to please the Moosicians, and a kick was made on Umpire Duffy's decisions. He ordered the game to proceed. The visitors dailied too long, so the game was forfeited to Pittston. Score, 9 to 0.

*But two men out.

The game stopped with two men out in the last half of the eighth. The star plays were Brannigan's catch of a fly which he ran backward to reach; Price's three-bag hit to right field, McCue's throw to second and Gilbert's run, on a two-base hit of T. Dougherty, from first to home.

On Saturday evening Joseph Tompkins, of West Pittston, met a terrible death on the Lehigh Valley road. He was around town during the evening and had been drinking so much that when he entered the Eagle hotel with some companions and ordered drinks when he entered the Eagle hotel with some companions and ordered drinks the bartender refused, telling him he had had enough. Soon after he left the hotel saying he was going to the paper mill, where his nephew, Eugene Hines, was at work. It is supposed that in crossing the track he must have fallen and lay there when passenger train No. 3, due at 11.18, came along and struck him. His body was terribly disfigured; the head and parts of the shoulders were almost severed. Two disfigured; the head and parts of the shoulders were almost severed. Two young men from Oregon, walking along the track soon after the train passed, found the remains of the poor fellow and called for help. His nephew, Mr. Hines, identified him at once, an ambulance was summoned and the remains taken to his home on Exeter street. In the absence of the coroner, Alderman English empanelled a jury composed of Edward Small, foreman, Edward Evans, Thomas Walsh, James composed of Edward Small, foreman, Edward Evans, Thomas Walsh, James Coulter, Michael Burns and George Andrews, who, after viewing the body, adjourned to meet in the alderman's office at 7 o'clock Monday evening. Mr. Tompkins was 44 years old, and was a breaker engineer at the Exeter colliery. He leaves a wife and four children, two boys and two girls. His parents reside in Hughestown. The resolutions were mild in tone and merely stated in substance that it was the sentiment of the convention that a large majority of the Republican voters of the county were favorable to Mr. Quay, and inasmuch as Mr. Northrop refused to acquiesce in voting for him, it was resolved to elect another delegate, and instruct him to use all honorable means to secure the election of Mr. Quay. Major H. W. Bardwell, of this place, and Dr. D. W. Sturdivant, of Laceyville, were nominated for the position. A vote showed a considerable majority for Bardwell and he was declared elected. Hon. H. D. Tiffany, of Nicholson. was present, and was called upon for a few remarks, after which the convention adjourned. A fatal shooting accident occurred near Mehoopany yesterday, by which Linford, the 10-year-old son of Orin Love, lost his life. Young Love, in company with Fred Doty, 43 years old, son of Newall A. Doty, went to the home of Koon Arnts, two or three miles distant, to spend the day with some playmates. The boys, unknown to their parents, had secured a revolver, and soon engaged in playing "wild west show." According to accounts, young Doty put the weapon to Love's face and told him to open his mouth. He did so, when Doty pulled the trigger and the gun was discharged. The ball entered his mouth, passing through the back of his neck, and severed the spinal cord. Death ensued almost instantly. The unfortunate affair has cast the deepest gloom over the entire community. The bays, it is said, were unaware that the revolver was loaded, and were horrified when they haw the result of their imprudent action.

Not every case, but a large percentage of cases, and we believe, fully of per cent. are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, even after the disease has progressed so far as to induce repeated bleedings from the lungs; severe lingering cough with copious expectoration (including tubercular matter), great loss of flesh and extreme emaciation and weakness.

Do you doubt that hundreds of such cases reported to us as cured by "Golden Medical Discovery" were genuine cases of that dread and fatal disease? You need not take our word for it. They have, in nearly every instance, been so pronounced by the best and most experienced home physicians, who have no interest whatever in misrepresenting them, and who were often strongly prejudiced and advised against a trial of "Golden Medical Discovery," but who have been forced to confess that t surpasses, in curative power over this fatal malady, all other medicines with which they are acquainted.
