THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-WEDNESDAY MORNING. AUGUST 21, 1895.

[The Tribune has opened a branch of-fice at No. 29, Laning building, Public Square, Wilkes-Barre. It is the purpose of the publishers to issue a newspaper as valuable to the general public as the met-ropolitan dailies, and deliver it to the peo-pic throughout northeaster Pennsylvania from three to five hours earlier than the Philadelphia and New York papers can reach them.]

METZGAR IN JAIL.

Bowman's Alleged Accomplice Is Behind the Bars for Scovall's Murder.

the Bars for Scovall's Marder. George Metzgar, the young man who is charged with the murder of the Arabian peddler, John M. Scovall, at the red bridge, about fourteen months ago, and who has been at large ever since, was captured at Mauch Chunk on Mon-day night last, and was brought to this city at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and taken to the county jall. Metzgar is a physical wreck, and looks as if he had suffered undescribed tortures since he went away from Wilkes-Barre. He does not seem to realize his own condi-tion, or for what he is wanted, and for awhile, is was thought that his reason has been affected. Metzgar is evidently in the first starges of a general break-down, physically and mentally, and many who saw him, thought that unless the boat of care was given him, he would never itye to stand trial. ment.

the best of cure was given him, he would never live to stand trial. Metzgar was arrested at Mauch Chunk, by Constable Lauth, who, with the officers from this city, brought the criminal to Wilkes-Barre yesterday, and who will claim the reward offered for Metzgar's apprehension. He knew Metzgar from the description and pho-tograph, and had no difficulty in arrest-ing him. High Constable Charles Bauer, who arrested Bowman, and who has devoted considerable time to the case, went to Mauch Chunk early yes-terday morning, and accompanied by Officer Evans, brought Metzgar to this oty.

Officer Evans, brought Metzgar to this oty. When the train arrived a big crowd had assembled at the depot, and this mob followed the officers through the streets to Akkerman Thomas' office, where the culprit was given a prelimin-ary hearing. Attorney T. R. Martin, who represented Bowman, at his trial, has also been retained for Metzgar, and he came to the alderman's office ac-companied by the young man's mother, who was much affected when she saw the wreck of her son. Metzgar looked at his mother and did not seem to realize who she was, and she burst into tears at his appearance.

t his appearance. The hearing was short. Squire Thomas read the warant charging the boy with the murder of the Arabian. Col. Martin said "Not guilty," when the boy was asked what he had to say. The Colonel pleaded for a stay of the hearing be-cause neither the defendances or the commonwealth were in a position for a hearing. So the squire committed Metzgar to jail for another hearing.

The young man was taken at once to the jall, and was told by Colonel Martin The joint main was told by Colonel Martin not to say a word about the murder to anyone. W. P. Bowman, who is now under sentence of death for the same crime, was told by Colonel Martin not to talk. Metzgar was asked where he had been since he left here, and gave a disconnected account of going from here to Philadelphia, then out to Youngstown. O., where he worked in a boiler shop three months. The rest of his time has been spent in wandering about the country. He was in Wilkes-Barre three days ago, but did not go near his home, and only spent a few hours in town for fear of capture. He had only been in Mauch Chunk one day when arrested. He was searched in the office and only an old razor, shaving brush and razor strop were found on his However, the daily output was consid-erably lowered. Yesterday the output was larger, but not up to the average, which is about 600 cars daily. The drivers and runners claim that while office and only an old rator, shaving brush and rator strop were found on his person. Metzger was poorly dressed, his clothing plainly show the hunted life he led. He only work whit, a black cotton one, old black wat and pantaloons, slouch hat and well-worn show unjust.

power was given to them to appoint a finance committee to solicit contribu-tions, and such other committees as mights be necessary to further the work in Judge Rice's interests. Chair-man Robinson, who presided at last evening's meeting, then apointed the following committees for the neighbor-ing towns to ascertain who would go on the trip, and send out notifications of the fare, hotel accommodations, etc., to their fellow townsmen: Ashley, Charles E. Keck; Pittston and West Pittston, William Tompkins, Theodore Hart and C. K. Campbell; Plymouth, Dr. F. L. McKee; Nanticoke, Philip J. Richards; Wyoming, Joseph D. Lloyd; Forty Fort and Luzerne, Isnac G. Eckert; Kingston, George Boyle; Ed-wardsville, James D. Edwards and David J. Thomas; Wapwailopen, W. J. Scott; Miners Mills, Joseph Moore. MI the sub-committees will report to the committee of five, and the advertis-ing is to be done by the Central rall-road, th all the neighboring towns, Mr. Weiss to have charge of this depart-ment. Then the question of a band came up. subscription rates cheerfully submitted.] At 6 o'clock yesterday morning. Thomas D. Shea, of Nanticoke, and Miss Teresa C. Maloney, eldest daugh-ter of Mayor Maloney, of this city, were united in marriage at St. John's Catholic church. The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Father Fin-nen, assisted by Fathers Greve and Kelly, after which a nuptial mass was celebrated. Charles A. Shea, brother of the groom, acted as best man, while the bride was attended by her sister. Miss Kathryn G. Maloney. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. After the mass the bride's parents on North Main street, where a sumptous wedding breakfast was served by Caterer Hochnichter, of Wilkes-Barre. Florist Harris, of West Pitton, prepared the beautiful floral decorations that adorned the dind manual context. beautiful foral decorations that adorned the dining room and parlors. Mr. and Mrs. Shea left on the noon train for Bufalo, and will spend their honey-moon on the shores of the great inland ment. Then the question of a band came up. Mr. Bacharach said it would cost $284 to take a band down with the party, and it was decided to wait until after the finance committee reports before deciding this question. The good effect of a band is acknowledged by all, and if the finance do not warrant taking The game of ball to be played at West Side park this afternoon between the Pittston and Plymouth teams will be a Pittston and Plymouth teams will be a very interesting one. As these teams are the leaders in the Tri-County league a lively contest may be expected. The game will be called at 3.30. After the game a one-mile foot race between Pat-rick Ruane, of the West Side, and Thomas Walsh, of the East Side, will be run. The race will be for $50 a side. A telegram was received this morning by Dentist E. E. Wolsard announcing the death of his father, which occurred at his home in Norwich, Conn., yester-day morning. He had been a sufferer from a complication of diseases for a long time. Dr. Wolsard and his wife will leave tomorrow for that place to if the finances do not warrant taking a band along, one will be engaged at Harrisburg to take the delegation from the train to their headquarters, sere-

the train to their headquarters, sere-nade, etc. The question of badges was then dis-cussed, and this, too, was left to the general committee. Mr. Chase agreed to find a man to go to Harrisburg In person, and negotiate for the hotel rooms, banners, headquarters, etc. The excursion was discussed by all those present at the meeting, and from all appearances, one of the largest and most enthusiastic delegations at Har-risburg will be that from Wilkes-Barre, in Judge Rice's interest. will leave tomorrow for that place to attend the funeral, which will take place Friday morning. ners, drivers and nippers complained of being docked an unusually heavy amount, some of them being from two to five days. They complained to the foreman, but received no satisfaction. On Monday the drivers and runners went to work in a body as usual, and be held on September 13. Miss Harriet Brotherton, employed at the hundry, had one of her hands badly crushed in a cuff ironing machine about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She was taken to her home and a physician was summoned, who hopes that he will be able to save her hand. At the adjourned meeting of the se-lect council Monday evening the ap-pointments of Mayor Maloney were con-firmed as follows: B. Harding, 5 years; John Jordan, 2 years; Dr. O'Malley, 3 several of them went to Foreman Mor-ris to try and receive redress for what ris to try and receive redress for what they believed a grievance. They were told that what the company had done was considered by them right and just and could not be rescinded, and if not thought fair by the persons docked they had the privilege of quitting work. It was then determined by the drivers and runners to go on strike until their griev-ance would be redressed. They quit work immediately on being told that the company would not recall the dock-age order, about fifty going out. The company met this demonstration promptly, securing a number of other men to take the places of the strikers. However, the daily output was considdental death. The Hughestown council met Monday evening and passed a resolution post-poning the proposed investigation of the auditing committee until the an-nual meeting of the committee. The Methodist Episcopal church of Inkerman gave a lawn social last even-ing. The Plainsville band was in at-tendance and rendered pleasing strains pantaioons, slouch nat and well-work shoes. There was somewhat of a wrangle over the boy at the jail, as Constable Lauth expected that the reward offered for Metzger would be paid him at once and refused to give him up to Warden Boland until compelled to do so. Bow-man, Metzgar's accomplice in the mur-der, was very much struck with the worn and wasted appearance of the man, and said: "Well, if that is Metz-gar, I wouldn't have known him on the street." Metzgar gave no sign of recog-nition when he passed the cell of Bow-man. Dr. Kirwan was telephoned for, and found Metzgar in a terrible condi-tion. Warden Boland sent out and had a good meal brought in, which Metzgar a good meal brought in, which Metzgar ate with great relish. The crime for which George Metzgar

The crime for which George Metzgar is now under arrest and for which Will-iam Penn Bowman is now under sen-tence of death, was the shooting of John Mike Scovall, an inoffensive Arabian peddler, near the red bridge. At his trial Bowman made a confes-sion, admitting his own presence, but claiming that Metzgar fired the fatal shot. The evidence at the time proved that the larger man fired the pistol, but on the trial of Bowman the Arabian who accompanied the murdered man, swore positively that Bowman was the man, and he was forthwith convicted. The arrest and trial of Metzgar may change the fate of Bowman.

A well attended meeting of the Re-publican league was held in the league rooms last evening to complete ar-rangements for the excursion to go to the Harrisburg state convention in Judge Rice's interests. Receiver of Taxes E. H. Chase, who was chairman of the committee to ascertain railroad rates and hotel accommodations, re-ported that the Pennsylvania, Lehigh Valley, Philadelphia and Reading and Jersey Central roads had given favor-able terms, and that the whole dele-gation can be accommodated at the Boiton botel. There was considerable discussion as to the road to be taken to the capital and return. The Jersey Centray road offered to run a special train to the capital if 100 persons could be guaranteed for $3.52, while the Penn-Judge Rice's interests. Receiver of Taxes E. H. There was considerable discussion as to the road to be taken to the capital and return. The Jersey Centray road offered to run a special train to the capital if 100 persons could be guaranteed for $1.52, while the Penn-sylvania road wanted a guarantee of 150 persons. It was decided to go by way of the Jersey Central road, and to accept the offer of the Bolton house for accommodations. Seats will also be reserved for the Luzerne delegation at the convention, and from all indica-tions, a big crowd will go down to the convention from Wilkes-Barre. Fifty-three pledged themselves last evening to go and shout for Judge Rice. As to the other matters, the commit-tee of five, under the chairmanship of Mr. Chase, was continued, and all

Assistant Superintendent Chase said yesterday that in a day or two the mine would be working as usual, the places of the strikers being filled with new hands. Mr. Chase says the boys acted in an upright, honorable spirit, coming to him and stating their case. He would have been glad to grant their re-quest, but was unable to do so without breaking an inflexible rule of the com pany.
