

The Scranton Tribune

Published at Scranton, Pa., by The Tribune Publishing Company...

G. S. HIRSHBURY, Prop. and Gen'l. Man. S. H. RIPLEY, Secy. and Treas. L. V. G. RICHARD, Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Scranton, Pa., as Second-Class Matter.

Printed at the Postoffice at Scranton, Pa., at the Second-Class Mail Matter.

Published at Scranton, Pa., by The Tribune Publishing Company...

Published at Scranton, Pa., by The Tribune Publishing Company...

SCRANTON, AUGUST 31, 1895.

Senator Quay's assertion that he will control the state convention without needing a vote from Philadelphia...

The Result in Philadelphia.

At 1:30 o'clock this morning sufficient returns had been received from the primaries in Philadelphia to indicate that Senator Quay had made unexpected gains...

This result leaves the issue of the fight for the state chairmanship in doubt. Estimates by the Quay people elect the senator by from 10 to 20 plurality...

Should Quay win, who would be his Lackawanna broker, Penman or Joe? We trust that "Kurnel" Robert is not unreasonably trying to unhorse his distinguished sire.

For a Short Campaign.

Eighteen of the forty-nine members of the Republican national committee have responded to the inquiry of the Chicago Times-Herald as to whether they favor a long or a short presidential campaign next year...

The County Convention.

Lackawanna Republicans will take notice that, in accordance with the decision of the county committee, the Republican county convention to nominate candidates for coroner and surveyor...

Although the local offices to be contested for this year are of minor importance, it behooves the Republicans of the county to enter into the contest with as much zeal and unanimity as if weighty interests were at stake.

With a presidential contest near at hand, carrying with it extraordinary consequences of industrial revival in the event of a sweeping Republican victory...

Time to End This Farce.

The wholesale charges embodied in the latest edition of Cornelius Smith, Esq., cap the climax to a long series of erratic allegations calculated, if presented in good faith, to reflect upon the fame of prominent Scrantonians...

Time to End This Farce.

On general principles we should say that Governor Hastings also has grounds for an action against the Philadelphia Inquirer.

In common justice, therefore, we submit to the bench and bar of this county that it is time a serious effort were put forth either to establish that a large number of the most eminent attorneys and jurists of northeastern Pennsylvania deserve to be incarcerated in the penitentiary...

Some Personal Remarks.

For the benefit of two or three contemporaries that seem to be greatly agitated concerning the political future of the proprietors of The Tribune...

The delegates are by this time so nearly all elected that there can be no motive for hesitancy in the expression of honest opinion.

Another thing, if it shall appear, one week from today, that Senator Quay has won his battle, The Tribune will not imitate the cry-baby tactics pursued by the local Quay organ...

Should Quay win, who would be his Lackawanna broker, Penman or Joe? We trust that "Kurnel" Robert is not unreasonably trying to unhorse his distinguished sire.

For a Short Campaign.

Eighteen of the forty-nine members of the Republican national committee have responded to the inquiry of the Chicago Times-Herald as to whether they favor a long or a short presidential campaign next year...

The County Convention.

Lackawanna Republicans will take notice that, in accordance with the decision of the county committee, the Republican county convention to nominate candidates for coroner and surveyor...

Although the local offices to be contested for this year are of minor importance, it behooves the Republicans of the county to enter into the contest with as much zeal and unanimity as if weighty interests were at stake.

Time to End This Farce.

The wholesale charges embodied in the latest edition of Cornelius Smith, Esq., cap the climax to a long series of erratic allegations calculated, if presented in good faith, to reflect upon the fame of prominent Scrantonians...

Time to End This Farce.

On general principles we should say that Governor Hastings also has grounds for an action against the Philadelphia Inquirer.

In common justice, therefore, we submit to the bench and bar of this county that it is time a serious effort were put forth either to establish that a large number of the most eminent attorneys and jurists of northeastern Pennsylvania deserve to be incarcerated in the penitentiary...

can four years ago, but the Democratic leaders have ignored this fact and insisted on making a nomination this year.

While nothing can be said to the detriment of Mr. McLean as a man or as a lawyer, and while his general fitness for the judiciary is freely recognized, it is also universally admitted that Lyman H. Bennett possesses in a much larger measure the peculiar qualities which constitute the unexceptional and successful jurist...

Luzerne county has had a line of eminent judges, among those more readily recalled being the revered Conyngham, the elder Woodward and the scholarly soldier-jurist, General Dana. Judge Charles E. Rice was a worthy successor of these eminent men...

The Pottsville Miners' Journal has the sublime effrontery to call upon Governor Hastings to abandon his fight, when he has it won!

An Imminent Reform.

Superintendent Jackson, of this division of the United States railway service, is receiving many compliments upon the excellent record of his department. With 40,365,670 more pieces carried in the fiscal year of 1895 than in 1894, there was an average of only one error for every 18,626 pieces distributed...

It is probable, however, that there never will be this equality of services so long as it remains the custom for local postmasters and their responsible assistants to be changed at every turn in the political tide.

The time will come when postmasters and revenue collectors will be appointed upon their merits as ascertained, first, by practical examination and secondly by general indorsement among patrons of the affected offices...

Will Stop at Nothing. Philadelphia Bulletin: "Mr. Quay's restoration of his purpose to call the state committee together on the eve of the Harrisburg convention means that he will hesitate at no scheme which will enable him to bulldoze the representatives of the party."

Philadelphia Bulletin: "Mr. Quay's restoration of his purpose to call the state committee together on the eve of the Harrisburg convention means that he will hesitate at no scheme which will enable him to bulldoze the representatives of the party."

In speaking of the libel suits brought or pending against the principal Quay organ in Philadelphia because of its abusive campaign tactics, Editor George H. Welshons, of the Pittsburgh Times, telegraphs from Philadelphia:

There is a growing feeling among public men at this end of the state, that a man who happens to buy a keg of ink and a printing press does not thereby acquire an unlimited license to blackguard everybody whom he cannot blackmail.

Too Late Repented.

Federal Representative W. A. Stone, of Pittsburgh, somewhat flamboyantly announces his belief that "Senator Quay's policy in the legislature of 1897 will be to secure the passage of a law which will make a decided change in the political methods in vogue in our great cities."

It is exceedingly unfortunate that Senator Quay did not become enamored of this good resolution in its days of vigorous manhood, when, instead of building up a personal autocracy in Pennsylvania politics of a kind which has alienated from him and from his party thousands of the truest and cleanest citizens in the land, he might have struck powerful and effective blows in behalf of reform, and thus "endeared himself to the people" in time to avoid the present dangerous revolt from his leadership.

It is more than possible that the Scranton Republican is putting itself in the position of laughing too soon.

COMMENT OF THE PRESS.

Altoona Tribune: "Until a few months ago there was not the slightest intimation that Mr. Gilkeson was unsatisfactory to anybody. But Mr. Quay, in pursuance of his declared purpose to 'crush' General Hastings, and desiring to get the machinery of the party in his hands, partly for that purpose, and partly that he might the more easily control the delegation to the next national convention, announced himself as a candidate for chairman."

Lender Magee's Claim.

Pittsburgh Times: "Since Senator Quay announced his candidacy, Governor Hastings has lost only the delegates from Huntingdon and Montgomery from the list of his original estimate, which gave him a large majority, while his gains in Adams, Perry, Lackawanna, Luzerne and Schuylkill have more than made up the loss."

A Battle for Home Rule.

Philadelphia Bulletin: "The success of the fight against Mr. Quay's arbitrary system of party management will affect Philadelphia in three important points: (1) The establishment of the home rule idea in municipal affairs."

Will Stop at Nothing.

Philadelphia Bulletin: "Mr. Quay's restoration of his purpose to call the state committee together on the eve of the Harrisburg convention means that he will hesitate at no scheme which will enable him to bulldoze the representatives of the party."

Will Stop at Nothing.

Philadelphia Bulletin: "Mr. Quay's restoration of his purpose to call the state committee together on the eve of the Harrisburg convention means that he will hesitate at no scheme which will enable him to bulldoze the representatives of the party."

Will Stop at Nothing.

Philadelphia Bulletin: "Mr. Quay's restoration of his purpose to call the state committee together on the eve of the Harrisburg convention means that he will hesitate at no scheme which will enable him to bulldoze the representatives of the party."

Will Stop at Nothing.

Philadelphia Bulletin: "Mr. Quay's restoration of his purpose to call the state committee together on the eve of the Harrisburg convention means that he will hesitate at no scheme which will enable him to bulldoze the representatives of the party."

Will Stop at Nothing.

Philadelphia Bulletin: "Mr. Quay's restoration of his purpose to call the state committee together on the eve of the Harrisburg convention means that he will hesitate at no scheme which will enable him to bulldoze the representatives of the party."

Will Stop at Nothing.

Philadelphia Bulletin: "Mr. Quay's restoration of his purpose to call the state committee together on the eve of the Harrisburg convention means that he will hesitate at no scheme which will enable him to bulldoze the representatives of the party."

GOLDSMITH'S BAZAAR.

Advance Styles NOVELTY DRESS GOODS

OUR OWN IMPORTATION, FALL, 1895 Now Being Opened. YOUR INSPECTION IS RESPECTFULLY SOLICITED.

GOLDSMITH BROS. & COMPANY

Gold Band White China At Cost...

We are selling our entire stock of Gold Band White China at cost. Parties having Tea Sets can now add a few pieces and make up a Dinner Set...

THE GLEMONS, FERBER, O'MALLEY CO., [LIMITED.] 422 LACKAWANNA AVENUE.

BELT, CAP AND BALL CHEAP

Clarence M. Florey, the sporting goods dealer of Wyoming avenue, has devised a scheme to keep the boys interested in the matter of base ball or bat he will now give a fine cap and belt, which are uniform. Among the hustlers is Mr. Florey.

SUMMER FURNITURE AT Hill & Connell's.

Refrigerators The Best of Them All is the ZERO

Porch Chairs and Rockers, Fine Reed Chairs and Rockers, A Few Baby Carriages Left at Cost.

Cedar Chests, 9th Proof, in Three Sizes.

Hill & Connell, 305 WASHINGTON AVE.

DR. HILL & SON ALBANY DENTISTS.

THAT WONDERFUL WEBER PIANOS

OVER FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Advertisement for Gauthier Pianos. Features 'The Genuine Gauthier Pianos' and 'E. C. RICKER General Dealer in Northeastern Pennsylvania'.

Advertisement for Fine Stationery. Includes 'Blank Books, Office Supplies' and 'Edison's Mimeograph'.

Advertisement for Moosic Powder Co. 'Mining and Blasting Powder'.

Advertisement for Orange Gun Powder. 'Electric Battery' and 'Explosive'.

Advertisement for Roof Thinning and Soldering. 'All done away with by the use of HARTMAN'S PATENT PAINT'.