Mr. Martin Scoffs at the Idea That Dele gates Chosen as Hasting . Republicans Would Go Over to the Opposition. Harrisburg a Scene of Activity.

Philadelphia, Aug. 23.-Forty-one of the delegates elected from this city to support Governor Hastings at the Re-publican state convention in Harris-burg next Wednesday, met this afternoon at the Republican city headquar-ters and pledged their support in stick-ing to Governor Hastings for permaing to Governor Hastings for perma-nent chairman of the convention and to Colonel B. F. Gilkeson for re-elec-tion as chairman of the state commit-tee. After the meeting, which was held in secret, it was announced that a caucus of the Hastings-Gilkeson delegates would be held in Harrisburg on Tuesday night. The anti-Quay leaders claimed that thirteen of their Philadelphia delegates were absent from the meeting, but that their pledges had been secured. Harrisburg, Aug. 23.—Today Senator Quay sent the following letter to the delegates elected to the state conven-tion:

tion: Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 23. Dear Sir-A caucus of delegates to the Republican state convention favorable to my election to be chairman of the state committee will be held at the rooms of the board of trade on Court House avenue. from his burning flesh was the specia-cle that startled the residents of Vine street in the vicinity of Eleventh street shortly before noon today. John Mal lin, who was employed by the Bush Electric Light company, ascended a pole for the purpose of stringing a new wire. He had been working but a few moments when a scream of terror directed the gaze of passers-by to the net work of wices. There lying partially upon several of the wires through which a strong current was passing and partly sustained by one of the cross trees of the pole was the lineman. His right arm hung powerless over a live wire which had burned through his whirt sleeve and into the flesh and from the point of contact a white smoke curled up. The man's face rested sgainst another wire and the spectators
