a safe majority in the convention.
Governor Hastings has sent the following letter to each delegate:
"Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 20, 1895.
"My Dear Sir: I would be greatly pleased if you could arrange to be in Harrisburg on Tuesday morning next, the day before the convention and I. the day before the convention, and I would be glad if you would call upon me as soon as convenient after your arrival. I feel confident that I will be able to convince you that the present contest, to be determined by the state convention, is not one of my seeking, that it has been precipitated upon me and my administration because I re-fused to break my pledged word in re-gard to the appartionments of the gard to the apportionments of the state, and further because I declined to withdraw my support from Colonel Gilkeson for re-election to the chairmanship of the state committee.

Ex-Chairman Thomas V. Cooper will take the chair in the absence of Gilke-son, and a roll of delegates will be make up, minor convention officer-selected and other details attended to. A long conference of the Quay people was held tonight to map out a plan of action. Those present declined to say what was done. Haywood headquarters have been opened at the Lo-chiel and he will easily be nomi-nated for state treasurer. There is more talk tonight of the Quay people turning down three or four of the su-perior court judges.

ITALIANS WERE PEACEFUL.

No Trouble at Spring Valley Until Negroes Came, Says Mr. Schilling.
Springfield, Ill., Aug. 25.—George Schilling, secretary of the state bureau of labor statistics, who was sent to Spring Valley by order of Governor Alt-geld to investigate the trouble between the Italian and negro miners there, will state in the report to the governor that the imported colored miners were the cause of the trouble entirely. The town had always been peaceful until the negroes were brought from the southern fields by the company.

Colored women were allowed to carry an orgies and dance indecently in sa-loons; houses and people were robbed, and frequent assaults were committed after the negroes came to town. All citizens side with the Italians. The re-port concludes with the recommenda-tion that the disturbing negroes be re-moved from the valley, or more trouble will break out.

PIPTEEN INDIANS MURDERED

They Are Shot Down in Cold Blood the Stockmen, Led by One of the Numerous Smith Family.

Chicago, Aug. 26.—A special from Burns, Ore., says: A courier from Dia-mond Valley reports the killing of fif-teen Bannocks by cattlemen under the leadership of "Rye" Smith. Smith's reason was revenge for the murder of his father in 1878 in Diamond Valley. There is great excitement in the town and throughout the country. Troop A is in readiness to march on short notice and is awaiting orders from the county and is awaiting orders from the county sheriff for authority to act. While particulars of the affair are difficult to obtain, it is learned that the matter has no bearing on the Jack-son Hole troubles. Ever since Smith's father was killed in 1887 by warriors of the Bannock tribe, he has been "on their trail," and not a few of them met death at his hands. leath at his hands.

It seems a party of Indians were on their way to Diamond Valley and killed a number of cattle belonging to the stockmen whose herds range in that vicinity. A party of cattlemen were organized to punish the marau-ders and Smith readily undertook to ders and S lead them.

The pursuers located the Indians about an hour before sundown at their camp near the western edge of the valley, and, without warning, opened fire ley, and, without warning, opened fire upon them. The Indian bucks were thrown into a panic and fled for the hills, the squaws following suit. The stockmen pursued them and fired a vol-ley at the fugitives, dropping several ley at the fugitives, dropping several of them, including one or two squaws. The pursuit was not continued, the cattlemen believing sufficient punishment had been inflicted. The courier reports fifteen dead Indians were found after this one-sided battle.

WILD MAN SEEN AGAIN.

Big Hunt for the Mysterious Creature to Start from Winsted Today. Winsted, Conn., Aug. 25.—The wild man in Colebrook has been seen again, this time by Morris Paefflin, a well-to-do farmer of Colebrook, who owns one of the largest farms in the Litchone of the largest rarms in the Liter-field Hills. While on his way here yesterday he saw the wild man eating blackberries in the berry patch near the Holmes farm. Mr. Paefilin got a good view of the hermit and describes his features as did Head Selectman Black W. Smith who are the contin nis features as did Head Selectman Riley W. Smith who saw the man in about the same locality a week ago to-day eating berries. Pacfilin's story so terrorized the inhabitants of Cole-brook that they came here in groups today and by roundabout ways. They did not dare to leave their homes un-less armed. A Colebrook-citizen, with an old musket or bull-dog revolver at-tached to an old army belt is a com-mon sight in Winsted streets. Some old settlers think the wild man a baboon which escaped from a menagerie here a score of years ago. It is thought the creature lives in a cave in the mountains around Indian Meadow. Hundreds of citizens say they wouldn't go near him for fear of being killed.

More than one party of berry pickers have been shot at from ambush while gathering berries in Indian Meadow in the past few years. Frank Keefe says that while he, in company with Nut Reidy and Al Simons, was berrying at the foot of Colebrook mountain two years ago this summer two frightful looking men emerged from an open place in the ground and ran like deer, shooting as they went. From Smith's description of the man he saw on last Saturday, the boys say they are posi-tive that it is one of the two men that nearly scared them to death two years

The searching party organizing to leave here at 8 o'clock tomorrow morn-ing will number about 500 men. Many members of Company I. Fourth reginent. Connecticut National Guard, will participate in the hunt. They put in three hours practice work at their rifle three hours practice work at their rife range this afternoon. (Merchants are selling revolvers as they were never sold before, and if some of the volunteer cracksmen are not killed or fatally wounded by each other in tomorrow's search it will be strange. The spot where the wild man is thought to hide in the mountains will be surrounded by squads of men. Justice John F. Simmons threatens to arrest every man seen with firearms tomorrow.

Irish National Party to Meet at Chicago in September.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—The Irish national convention, which has been called to meet in Chicago Sept. 24, continues to stir up the fighting factions of the varistir up the ignting factions of the various organizations in this country and evoke the bitterest denunciation of those who have identified themselves with "the new movement" convention. The text of the latest attack was given The text of the latest attack was given to the United Press tonight. It is addressed to the members of the American Board, Ancient Order of Hibernians, and is signed "James J. Hagerty, national delegate; Patrick Garry, national secretary; Dan P. Battle, national treasurer Ancient Order of Hibernians, Board of Erin." McGarry was a prominent "Camp 2" witness against the murderers of Dr. Cronin.

The address or appeal is largely a vituperative elaboration of the confederated Irish societies' denunciation of the proposed convention and its promoters. The address continues: "If this convention is fairly successful the Republican leaders will treat with Alexander Sullivan for the delivery to their presidential candidate of the Irish vote, ander Sullivan for the delivery to their presidential candidate of the Irish vote, which he no more controls than they do—and, the Democrats will implore Maurice F. Wither, of Pennsylvania, and other co-conspirators of Sullivan to avert the stampede. This confidence game was successfully worked by the same men in the three last presidential campaigns." campaigns.

Captsin Anderson Reports Game and Fish Plentiful—Ten of the Buffelo Killed.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Captain George L. Anderson, United States army, acting superintendent of the Yellowstone National park, has submitted his annual report to the secretary of the Interior. He says that the past winter was exceedingly mild, with but little snowfall, and it was possible to make a complete four of the park on June I, a condition never before known. Travel, however, was very light, and has continued so all summer. The number of fish captured by tourists excited Captain Anderson's surprise. The fish tumbled over each other in their desire to be caught.

The National association, to be organized tomorrow, will make another advance of 15 per cent., making 40 per cent. in three months. Captain Anderson Reports Game and Fish

Captain Anderson points out, and is liable to cross into Idaho at any time. At least ten have been killed within the last two years, and only about 100 of these animals still exist. Idaho should be persuaded to pass a law to protect them in her territory. The act of May 7, 1894, has had the effect of perfectly protecting game within the park. The protecting game within the park. The beaver have multiplied and the larger game are practically unmolested. The Smithsonian institution has placed Smithsonian institution has placed $2,000 at Captain Anderson's disposal with which to build an enclosure and provide food for as many buffalo as can be driven within it during the coming winter.

Moose, elk, antelope, deer and bear are plentiful and increasing. The bears visit the hotels nightly and are a source of amusement and entertainment to the tourists.

KILLED IN A FEUD.

Three Men Lose Their Lives in a Shooting Affray at Looney's Creek.

Affray at Looney's Creek.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 25.—A shooting affray, growing out of an old grudge between the Coxes and Thomases, in the vicinity of Looney's Creek, in the Cumberland Mountains, occurred on Thursday. The battle lasted for an hour, in which three men, William Cox, John Boyd, and Jack Thomas, lost their lives, and Samuel Cox was mortally wounded, being shot twice through the body. John Boyd ran an illicit still, and the Coxes and Thomases met there by chance. One of the Cox boys fired the first shot, which struck Jack Thomas, inflicting a slight wound in his arm. Then the battle struck Jack Thomas, inflicting a slight wound in his arm. Then the battle began. Besides John Boyd there were two Cox boys and three Thomas boys. They were armed with pistols, and shot from behind trees and stumps with telling effect. John Boyd tried to act as peacemaker, and was killed for his trouble by a bullet from one of the warring factions. Jack Thomas and Will Cox were killed instantly.

The tragedy resembled the famous Mullen-Fleming battle at Pond Gap. in Letcher county, in May, 1892, when Mullen-Fleming battle at Pond Gap, in Letcher county, in May, 1892, when Ira Mullen, his two sons, and one of the Flemings were killed, and for par-ticipating in which battle Dr. Taylor was hanged in Wise, Va., in Septem ber, 1893.

The officers this morning arrested Burton Thomas and Hiram Boyd and Burton Thomas and Hiram Boyd and took them to Wise, Va., where they were put in jail. Burton Thomas is thought to have been the man who fired the shot that killed William Cox. and Boyd is accused of being also mixed up in the battle.

CHOLERA IN THE EAST.

Eight Thousand Cases and 4,804 Death in Japan Up to July 19. Washington, Aug. 25.—Consul Gen-eral McIver, of Kanagawa, Japan, in a despatch dated July 22, informs the department that the total number of deaths from cholera in Japan during 1895, up to July 19, was 4,504, the num-ber of cases being 7,901. In the pre-vious year there were only 314 deaths. In a period of two weeks prior the number of cases of Asiatic cholera re-ported in Kobe was 210, and the num-ber of deaths 196. These figures show a marked increase in the proportion of deaths, the usual average being about 62 per cent. Secreta received about 62 per cent. Reports received by Mr. McIver from the consul in Osaka and Hiogo (Kobe) indicate that that port has been declared to be an infected port. The latest cholera in-formation received at the Marine hospital shows that the disease is further ending July 19 show that there were two deaths from cholerale diarrhoea at Hong Kong. This is the first indi-cation of the plague in that part of China, and, while the cases may be simply choleraic in nature, the belief is that they will prove to be full-fledged

CAPTAIN QUICK'S YARN. Claims That He Was Chased from the

Guano Islanda Near Peru. Philadelphia, Aug. 25.—A strange story was brought to Philadelphia today by Captain Quick, of the British ship Stuart, who claims that he was driven from a guano island in the South Pacific Ocean by the Chilian ironclad warship Esmeralda. Captain Quick says the Stuart had been ordered to proceed to the Islands, which are known as the Lebos de Apeura, to lead guano for Liverpool. He had taken 190 tons when the Esmeralda came in sight and ordered the Stuart to leave He weighed anchor and bore away for Callao, 200 miles distant.

The reason assigned for the order from the Esmeralda was that Peru owned the islands until a short time ago, when they were selzed for a war debt owed to Chili. Captain Quick says the Esmeralda demolished the dock used to load guano by the aid of dynamic. Railroad tracks were torn dynamite. Railroad tracks were torn up and the work of years was laid waste. The few residents of the lebels were made prisoners of war aboard the warship, which bore away to Valpa-

New York, Aug. 25.—Erie basin dry dock proved a new Sunday resort for New Yorkers and Brooklynites today. All day long streams of people flocked to the place where the English cutter lies in dry dock. The hull of Valkyrie was partially hidden from view by screens of canvass hung over her sides to protect her new paint from the blistering heat of the sun. For the first time since she was placed in the basin her decks were clear of tools and a maze of rope and sizel rigging.

She looked quite prepared for being taken out of the dock and she will be tomorrow morning, when she will be owed to the hook, her sails bent on the way, and then given her first sail in racing trim in American waters.

German-American Warriors Will Have the Preedom of Berlin.

TO PARADE BEFORE THE KING

Soldiers of the War of 1870 Will Bo Accorded a Warm Reception. United States Ambassador Runyon's Delicate Task.

Berlin, Aug. 25.—Misled by the exaggerations of the American newspapers, which represented that about 2,000 German-American veterans of the Franco-Prussian war of 1870 were coming here to take part in the fetes commemorative of that conflict, the German officials, acting under the ordersofthe kaiser, prepared to give them a reception which should be of a naxitional character. The emperor expected that about two regiments of these veterans would parade before him and would have made a special occasion of his reception of them. Official information has since been received, however, tion has since been received, however, which shows that the promised 2,000 men have dwindled down to about 216. Although the official and public re-ception of these veterans will be of the most cordial character, the officials feel most cordial character, the officials feel that their small number will not justi-fy a national demonstration in their honor, and the programme contem-plated will in consequence be very much modified. Nevertheless, all Germany knows that the German-American vidents represent American veterans represent an im-mense mass of the men who fought in the war of 1879 and will accord to each and every one of them a splendid reception.

It is proposed by the Berlin City gu-thorities that the veterans first parade before the United States embassy as a mark of recognition of their trans-fer of citizenship, but a final decision upon this question has been reserved. In the meantime it has been definitely arranged that the veterans arriving at Bremerhaven shall be welcomed by the local Krieger Vern, upon which the local Krieger Vern, upon which occasion a festival march especially composed by Conductor Kalbitz, of Chicago, will be played as the men disembark. The veterans will then march through the city to the warriors' memorial monument, where they will deposit wreaths. From the monument they will march to the Burger park, where they will be entertained at a special concert and later at a banquet. Each veteran will also receive a mespecial concert and later at a banque's. Each veteran will also receive a memorial medal from the Bremen senate. Upon the arrival of the veterans in Berlin, United States Ambassador Runyon will deliver to them a speech in which he will receive the men as citizens of the United States, and not as except the men as citizens of the United States, and not as societies of the German soldiers tak-ing part in the fetes commemorative of the war of 1870. This will involve a delicate task, inasmuch as the am-assador will have to avoid wounding the feelings of the French. The American veterans throughout their stay in Germany, from the moment of their landing, will be the guests of the Ger-

The Parade Arranged.

MYSTERY IN NYACK.

Skull Found Under the Stoop of an Old House with a Builet Hole in It. vack. Aug. 25.-A skull with a bulle hole behind the left ear and several bones of a human body, which were found under an old back stoop of a house on Jeckson avenue, this place, are occupying the attention of Coroner Feiter, of Piermont, this evening. The house where the portions of a human skeleton were found is occupied by Elmer Ackerman, a carpenter, and fam-ily. The house is an old one, and in the rear is a stoop which has stood for several years. Mr. Ackerman's young son was poking his hand in the soft earth under the stoop when it came in contact with a hard object. Catching hold of it and pulling it out, he was horrlied to find a human skull. The boy told his mother, who was much frightened, and when Mr. Acker-man came home he dug out several bones, which the doctors say belong to various parts of a human body. An examination of the skull revealed a bullet hole behind the left ear. The shot was fired on a level, as the hole went straight in, and it must have been fired by some other person, as a suicide would naturally fire upward. It was also seen that the bones had been cut through, indicating that the small space. The remains are those of a middle-aged or old man, and must have been hidden several years.

SOLDIERS ARE SICK.

A Very Gloomy View of the French Campaign in Madagascar.

Paris, Aug. 25.—The correspondent of the Laulois on board the French transport ship Provence, which arrived at Marseilles from Madagascar yesterday with a number of sick and wounded soldiers, sends to his paper reports of interviews had with several of the re turned officers and men, ali of whom regard the French situation in Madagascar in a most pessimistic light. One of-ficer frankly said: "The number of the dead among the French troops will never be known in France. About 5,000 are now lying ill in the sanitarium in Nossikomba and in the other hospitals who ought to have been sent home long ago. Many of the engineers are on the sick list in consequence of the very unhealthful condi-tion of the soil necessary to be removed in the work of making roads."

M'KINLEY AT CHAUTAUQUA.

The Governor Obliged to Hold a Reception After Church. Chautauqua, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Dr. W. W. Ramsey, pastor of the Tremont Street church, Boston, preached the sermon this morning. Governor Mc-Kinley and Senator Miller were both in the congregation. Governor McKin-ley left the grounds today with Dr. Flood for Williamsport, Pa., and Sena-tor Miller left for his home in Herki-

So eager were the people to see Governor McKinley and shake hands with him that he was obliged to receive in-formally at the close of the morning
