BEFORE THE MAYOR.

Only Two Cases Heard and the Culprits

Get off Easily.

Yesterday morning the eight Italians who were gathered in on Sunday night by the police, at Hazle and Metcalf streets, had their hearing. Through their attorney, Frank T. McCormack, they entered a plea of not guilty. Officer Wood testified that the Italians were stamping around like a herd of cattle, but in answer to Mr. McCormack's question he said he had seen no beer. The Italians all denied making noise and asserted they were sober. The attorney made a short, but logical argument in favor of his clients and doubtless influenced the mayor in imposing the smallest possible fine. The mayor said that the Italians must learn to conform to the customs of the country and as a part Get Off Easily.

Italians must learn to conform to the customs of the country and as a part payment of their tuition he fined each $1 and costs, total $3.50.

Then came trouble. None of them had the cash, and when the mayor gave the verdict the eight sons of Italy rose as one man and remarked: "Me no gotta da mon."

"Take 'em down below," said the mayor, and the Italians and their guards went down the stairs. When they got to the bottom, they held a pow-wow, and pretty soon Officer Gallagher came up with $28 cash, on receipt of which the mayor discharged the prisoners.

William Nener was next called up William Nener was next called up for keeping a bawdy house, but Attorney John F. Shea, Nener's counsel, explained to the mayor that the children had been sent to Scranton and that Nener and his wife had completed preparations to depart for England at once. The mayor postponed the hearing for two weeks, and if Nener and his wife are found within the city at that time the hawdy house charge will that time the bawdy house charge will be prosecuted. The two little children found in the house were given over in care of Humane Agent Walters.

BURGLARS STILL WORKING. Another Attempt Is Made by Professional or Amateur Cracksmen. Yesterday morning another burglary was reported to the police, who have thus far been unable to do anything with the numerous other cases reported. The work was done in the early morning, but through the haste or stupidity of the thieves, only a small haul was secured where they might have had a secured where they might have had a big one. The house entered was that owned and occupied by William Gabel. Who has been in Europe for some time. The thieves entered by raising a side window, and proceeded to search the bedrooms first. In John C. Gabel's room they secured a pair of trousers, $8 in money and a silver watch. From Frank A. they secured $14 and a promissory note which was in the pockets of his trousers, and in the youngest boy's room they secured some change.

room they secured some change.

They overlooked a gold watch which was lying on a sideboard, and the big safe, whose doors were open. In the latter was a large sum of money, checks, silverware, jewelry, etc., amounting to many hundred dollars.

Next morning when the family awoke each member experienced a headache, and there was a peculiar odor about the house. The dogs were sick, too, and it is thought that the burglars used drugs to stupefy the family before making

GOING TO HARRISBURG.

Arrangements Completed for the Rice

All arrangements for the crowd that will go to Harrisburg today in Judge Rice's interests are now completed, and it is expected that a delegation of at least 250 will go on the special train today. Rooms for all have been secured at the Bolton house, where Judge Rice's headquarters will be located.

cated.

The special train will leave the Central railroad depot at 9.45 this morning, and all who are going are requested to be at the Republican league rooms at 8 o'clock to receive the regulation cap and badge. The Ninth Regiment band will accompany the party and meet at the League rooms at 8 o'clock sharp. The band, delegates and friends of Rice wil leave the rooms at 9 o'clock and march in a body to the station. The special train will be gayly decorated with flags and banners and everything points to a rousing demonstration for Judge Rice.

Died at the Hospital.

Another Criminal Assault. Another Criminal Assault.

Yeterday morning a warrant was issued by the mayor for the arrest of Patrick Rowan, who was charged with making a criminal assault on a girl 15 years of age in a field near the Conyngham breaker. Rowan is a resident of Bowman's Hill, and it is said that he got the girl nearly drunk before making any attempt at assault. He was caught yesterday afternoon and held for court. for court.

The City Taxes.

Tax Receiver Chase reports that so far about four-difths of the total amount of the tax duplicate has been paid in, the taxpayers taking advantage of the rebate offered. The largest day of collections was on Aug. 13, when $38,300 was collected. Most of the heaviest property holders have paid their tax, and before December it is expected that the entire property tax will have been collected. The City Taxes. will have been collected.

Suing for Damages Jar es Clune, through his attorneys McGovern and Ruddy, yesterday began a suit for $5,000 damages against Plairs township. Clune fell in a ditch on Carey street, Plains, on a dark night and broke a leg. He claims the ditch was not properly guarded.

GOLDEN-MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Many years ago Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., compounded this medicine of vegetable ingredients which had an especial effect upon the stomach and liver, rousing the organs to healthful activity as well as purifying and enriching the blood. By such means the stomach and the nerves are supplied with pure blood; they will not do duty without it any more than a locomotive can run without coal. You can not get a lasting cure of Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, by taking artificially digested foods or pepsin—the stomach must do its own work in its own way. Do not put your nerves to sleep with soach must do its own work in its own way. Do not put your nerves to sleep with so-called celery mixtures, it is better to go to the seat of the difficulty and feed the nerve cells on the food they require. Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness and Nervous Affections, such as sleeplessness and weak, nervous feelings are completely cured by the "Discovery." It puts on healthy flesh, brings refreshing sleep and invigorates the whole system.

Mrs. K. HENKE, of No. 8% North Halsted St. Chicago, Ill., writes: "I regard my improve ment as simply wonderful.
