WEDDING AT ST. ROSE.

Miss Maggio Swartz and E. F. Ryan

Vesterday morning at St. Rose church occurred the marriage of Miss Maggle Swartz, daughter of Mr. and Mis. W. Swartz, of 203 Dundaff street, to E. F. Ryan, of Honesdale.

The wedding was one of the prettlest ever seen in this city At 9.15 the contracting parties met at the church and to the strains of a wedding march, played by Professor Stockman, walked down the aisle and stood before the altar, where the Rev. T. F. Coffey, pastor of the church, pronounced the words which unfed them for life. Philip Ryan, brother of the groom, acted as best man, while the bride was attended by Miss Emma Swartz, her sister. The bride wore a dress of white shot silk and looked charming; she carried a large bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmald wore a gown of canary-colored silk and carried a bouquet of Marechal Neil roses.

A reception was given the young couple at the home of the bride's parents immediately after the ceremony, to which the friends of both parties were invited. At 11.20 Mr. and Mrs. Ryan left on the Delaware and Hudson train for an extended tour, which will include New York, Philiadelphia, Washington and other places. The young couple will be at home to friends on Oct. 1. at their newly-furnished home, at 33 Park street.

was administered and the patient was soon under its power.

Then Dr. Burns made an incision in the abdomen nearly three inches in length, and when the appendix was reached they found it full of pus, although there was no perforation. The operation was very timely, and if nothing else sets in, the chances are very much in favor of the patient. Gangrene had already begun on the outer end, and if the operation had been delayed the case would have become layed the case would have become much more serious.

The wound was packed with gauze for drainage and sewed up. No inflammation has occurred, and the outlook at present is very favorable.

This will also cause some of the brickwork to come out.

One of the things objected to by the architect is the roof braces, which had been put up in two separate pieces, and which he claims that the joints will show. Mrs. Mary F.
