1896-Notes About Local Religious Work-Services in the Churches of the City Tomorrow.

The selection of the city of Louisville as the place for holding the tenth gen-etal convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will, from present indica tions, prove to have been wire, the west especially large delet Fron are expected, while the eastern states are being relied upon to furnish their usual quota. It is the general custom to hold the convention in the first part of October of each year, but this year for some reason or other, the latter part of September was chosen as the most convenient time. The convention be-gins Wednesday, Sept. 25, and will end the following Sunday with a farewell meeting at 9 o'clock in the evening.

The canvass to determine which city is to have the honor of holding the next year's convention has already commenced. The brotherhood men of Pittsburg are planning to have the convention of 1896 held in their city. Buffalo, too, is in the field, and it will not be the fault of her churchmen if in 1896 the brotherhood docs not meet on the shores of Lake Eric. Although at Washington Buffalo was obliged to yield to the claims of Louisville, the Buffale visitors are going to Louisville full of determination, and hoping for better fortune this year. Their invka-tion is ready, and is backed by the invitation of the Churchmen's club and he resolution of the state convention of the brotherhood in New York. It is unnored that New York city is also function of the second ained a number of her friends Tues-evening in honor of her guests, Misses a Paiden and Sadle Bradley, of cood-natured contest for the honor of ntertaining the Brotherhood of St.
