HORSE RAN AWAY.

Driver Quite Badly Hurt and the Stood's Logs Were Broken.

While driving up Belmont street. Theodore Pierce's horse ran away and threw Mr. Pierce to the ground, injuring him quite badly.

The animal driven was young and very spirited. When Mr. Pierce was in front of Mr. Wylle's house he saw several cows coming down the street. The horse also saw them, and becoming frightened turned suddenly around and dashed down the street at a terrific speed. Mr. Pierce hung pluckily and dashed down the street at a ter-rific speed. Mr. Pierce hung pluckly on to the reins, but could not control the animal in the least. In turning the corner at Moon's blacksmith shop the horse ran into a large pile of lumber near the side-walk and was thrown to the ground. Mr. Pierce was also thrown from the wagon by the shock and struck on the ground with great force, landing on his head. Mr. Pierce was badly hurt, his face being scratched and sustaining many bruises. After striking the lumber the horse got up again and continued its headgot up again and continued its head-long rush down the street. In front of Burr's residence it fell again, but on getting up could hardly walk. It was then seen that one of its fore legs was broken and it was obliged to kill the animal. Peter Rivenburg doing the job. The body was then removed to the bone yard.

The wagon was completely smashed in the rush.

VALUABLE DOG POISONED. A Pointer That Cost One Hundred Dollars

Dies Suddenly. Horton Lee, of Mayfield yard, is very indignant over the loss of a dog which somebody poisoned. The dog is a first-class pointer, and was recently pur-chased by Mr. Lee from a person in Jackson, one hundred dollars being paid for the animal.

On Thursday Mr. Lee was absent from his hotel in Mayfield yard, going with the Columbia Hose company to with the Columbia Hose company to Susquehanna. It was while he was ab-sent that the dastardly deed was done. Persons who saw the dog just before It was poisoned, say that the pointer, with three other dogs belonging to Mr. Lee, ran to meet a wagon in which they thought their master was riding. He was not there, however, and they all ran up an alley. Coming back soon after two of the dogs were very sick. The pointer zoon died, but the other was saved by Dr. Widmer. When Mr. Lee came back and heard what had happened he was very indig-nant and had the contents of the stomach analyzed. Traces of arsenic were found. Every effort possible will be made to find the guilty person, and he will be treated very severely if caught.

TRAMPS ARRESTED.

Four Tough-Looking Knights of the Road Are Pinced in the Cooler.

Saturday word was sent to police headquarters that four suspicious-looking men were hanging about in the vicinity of Seventh avenue and their actions were such as to alarm the in-brought the four individuals to the city bastile, where they were searched.

Ail the prisoners had an abundance of cigars on their persons and it is thought that they must have been concerned in some burgiary. They said their original number was five, but one of them was after something to eat when the arrests were made. when the arrests were made.

What makes them look more suspi-cious and strengthens the theory that they had robbed some place was that the shirts worn by the prisoners were all alike and their shoes do not fit them. Three have shoes alike, but the Jersey City, have registered at Hotel fourth wears shoes several sizes too Anthracite and will make a short visit large. They were given twenty days

CASES SETTLED.

The Traction Company's Property Will Not be Sold.

The Traction company is not to be sold out, as they have settled with the gentlemen who hold the claims against them. I. H. Burns represented the plaintiffs and B. Price the defendants. I. H. Burns represented the It is somewhat of a surprise that the cases have been settled. They have been in court for a number of months, and one has been tried three times. This makes twenty-two cases in all against the Traction company, all of which grew out of property owners claiming damages for the injuries done their property while grading the roads on Belmont and Brooklyn streets. What the terms of settlement were is not known, but from what Mr. Burns says are entirely satisfactory to the

BEAT HIS WIFE.

Wallace McMullen Holds High Carnival While Intoxiented.

While Intoxicated.

The other evening the people who live in the "Swamp" were treated to quite a little bit of excitement.

Wallace McMullen, of Archbald street, came home full of fight and whiskey. Having nothing else on which to vent his fighting spirit, he took his wife in hand and proceeded to give her a beating. The woman's cries were heard by the neighbors, who sent for Special Officer Wright. The officer could do nothing with the drunken brute, however, and came to the city, where he secured the assistance of Officer Bell. Bell soon stopped the chastisement. No arrests have been made.

HONESDALE.

A great deal of excitement was caused in Honesdale Saturday after-A great deal of excitement was caused in Honesdale Saturday aftermoon by a farmer who was driving a heavy wagon and ran, into a buggy standing alongside the curb, smashing the rear wheels. The buggy was owned by John G. Walsh, a stranger in Honesdale. The farmer was William Scully, of South Canaan. Walsh demanded damages from Scully. The latter was partly intoxicated and refused to settle. Both parties got well warmed up to their respective sides and a wrangle ensued, lasting over an hour. This dispute occurred in the middle of Main street. A large crowd gathered, teams stopped and the street soon blocked up. Finally Mr. Walsh swore out a warrant for the arrest of Scully for damages. The warrant was served by Constable Smith. Scully's chief argument was that he didn't own anything, and you can't collect snything. He was evidently a teamster and did not know his employer was responsible for his reckless driving.

The Amities, of Honesdale, again defeated the Actives, of Scranton, on the Lake Ariel ball ground, Saturday. Score, 7 to 3.

The Honesdale banks were open Saturday morning. The postoffice was open all day. Neither institution observed Labor Day.

MOOSIC.

The opening of the new school at Moosic took place Saturday afternoon with appropriate exercises. One of the principal features was the presentation of a handsome slik flag, which was unfurled to the breeze on the tall flag pole in front of the school. Addresses were made by Rev. L. H. Lindermuth, of Moosic; Rev. J. J. McCabe, of Avoca, and other prominent orators. Theron G. Osborn will be the principal. His assitants are Mrs. George Ellis, Miss Hannah Thomas, Miss M. A. Connolly, and Miss Lizzle McMurtrie. The citizens of Moosic may justly feel proud of her new school building. It will never be the fault of the citizens of Lackaher new school building. It will never be the fault of the citizens of Lacka-wanna township if children grow up unable to cope with the battle of life for lack of school training. Enormous sums of money are spent each year to provide ample room for her children and to open wide the doors to all who knock for admission.

Another man expresses his gratitude to Dr. Smith and staff for curing him of a bad case of catarrh of the head. Mr Gust Lager called on Dr. Smith and staff. He was suffering from a bad case of catarrh. It had caused catarrhal inflammation of the throat and had extended to the inner ear, impairing his hearing and causing peculiar sounds in his ears, whch annoyed him very much. He would frequently !magine some one had spoken to him when, in fact, there was no one near him at the time. He commenced taking magnetic treatments. The first two weeks he thought he was worse. The second two weeks showed a slight change for the better. He kept on improving and in ten weeks was satisfied that he was cured. All chronic diseases are cured by those doctors. Call and see them.
