KNIGHTS' BIG MEETING.

A Great Parade and Ball-Their Order of Business.

Business.

The twenty-fifth annual session of the Select castle, Knights of the Mystic Chain, met at 10 octock yesterday morning in Concordia hall, and there was a big representation from all over the state. Select Commander Ralph C. Clare, of Philadelphia, called the meeting to order, and at the roll call C. Clare, of Philadelphia, caned the meeting to order, and at the roll call it was found that over 200 delegates were present. Mr. Clare then intro-duce Mayor Nichols, who made the address of welcome.

The mayor made an excellent address and spoke in high terms of the order, extending to the delegates a hearty welcome to the city and he vouched for the hospitality that would be extended by the citizens to them, as guests. He said that they had conferred a rare honor on Wilker Berei. iddress of welcome. ferred a rare honor on Wilkes-Barre when they selected it as the place of their meeting, and the community ap-preciates the fact and will do its best to deserve its reputation as a liberal, hospitable city.

Select Commander Clare made the response and said it was one of the happiest things in life to know that one is welcome. He thanked the mayor for extending to them the hospitality of extending to them the hospitanty of thecity, and felt that a great kindness was being done. We will not abuse the privlege extended and when we re-turn home you will not regret the kind-ly words of welcome you have spoken. Pennsylvania is the Gibraltar of Mystic Chainism. These are 15 000 members in Chainism. There are 15,000 members in this state alone. During the past year we have done as well as any kindred organization, and far better than many. The Mystic Chain is one of the progressive organizations of the age. We have everything that pertains to progressive organization. We have a funeral relief fund which stands out as a monument to our organization. We have also a military organization with one of the greatest generals at its head. Our military is strictly patriotic and our tactics thoroughly American. In addition we have a ladies' degree, which stars out as the flower of our organization. Our wives and sisters can become members and thereby acquaint themselves with Mystic Chain-ism. We are very thankful to you, Mr. Mayor, for your address of hearty wel-

After Mr. Clare's address the conven-tion went into secret session until noon, when an adjournment was taken for dinner. The following data of interest when an additional way of the following data of interest was obtained from the published reports of Select Recording Secretary John J. Davis:
