

a well-known character about town, was sent up to jall for six months by Alderman Millar yesterday.

ing Wednesday thue. Lackawanna avenue.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and West-ern company will today pay trainmen and employes of the Pyne, Taylor and Holden mines, completing the month's payments.

Nine car loads of Knights of the Mystic Chain went over the Delaware and Hud-son road to Wilkes-Barre yesterday to at-tend the annual convention of that order.

Frank Levandwski, charged with as-sault and battery, entered bail before Judge Archbald yesterday. Lew's Ga-howski became his bondsman in the sum of $300.

Marriage licenses were granted by the clerk of the courts yesterday to Thomas J. O'Boyle and Nora Margaret Healey, of Scranton, and John Paszmka and Annie Morugin.

The annual meeting of the members of the Pennsylvania Oral School for the Deaf will be held at Secretary Belln's office on Friday, Sept. 27, for the election of four directors

George W. Williams obtained a writ of replevin yesterday directed against Will-fam Shea, executor, and C. Q. Carman, constable, to recover $300 worth of house-hold goods selzed for rent.

Justice of the Peace Robert Scott, of Dunmore, committed Michael Morisino, of Dunmore, to jail yesterday because he could not furnish ball. Joseph Cassesse is the prosecutor. The charge is faise pretenses costs of the proceedings

Rev. D. J. MacGoldrick, president of St. Thomas' college, has consented to give a number of lectures to Branch 35 of the Catholic Mutual Benefit association. The first will be delivered on Friday evening, Sept. 29, after the regular meeting of the second tion.

Attorney Ira H. Burns is the plaintiff

the funeral have not yet been made. Stephen Judge, who was with Patrick Connaghty when he made away with Mer-chant Charles W. Stone's horse and car-riage, was held under $500 bail yesterday to answer at court the charge of horso stealing. He was also fined $15 for resist-ing arrest. He paid the fine and secured the required bail.

the required ball. Rev. A. C. Dixon, D.D., will give an address in Penn Avenue church this even-ing. He is one of the most brillant orators in this country and is considered the only man who has successfully an-swered ingersoil on the platform. Inger-soil attempted to bring him into the courts for libel, but failed. In the sectors of Butfold Groom has at for libel, but failed. In the estate of Patrick Grogan, late of the borough of Archbaid, letters of admin-fatration were granted to Margaret Gro-gan by Register of Wills Hopkins yes-terday. The will of Matthew Hodgson, late of the township of Covington, was ad-mitted to probate and letters testamen-tary granted to Maria Hodgson and H. Wardell. Wardell.

