a sure victory up to the seventh in-ning in today's game with Wilkes-Barre when two bases on balls, Mc-Mahon's single and a drop fly owing to Lyons and Murray colliding made the score a tie. Murray's triple and an outfail fly nut the Grans in the lead in the score a be. Murray's triple and an outfield fly put the Grays in the lead in their half of the seventh inning, but Wilkes-Barre won the game in the eighth through Griffin's base on balls and his darfify base running along with Earle's single and wild throw by Me-Anley scoring Farls.

Auley, scoring Earle. Providence earned all her runs and the feature of the game was the work of Smith and McMahon. Weather fine.

Through the Mazes of 1896. The meeting of the stockholders of the Scranton Base Ball association an-nounced for last night was adjourned owing to the absence of a quorum. The result of the meeting had been an-ticipated with much interest, as it would have decided the identity of the manager for 1896, and would have given a line on the future policy of the club Although no business was transact-ed, many of the stockholders were ed, many of the stockholders were present and they were a unit in an-nouncing Manager Barnie as their choice for manager next year. The opinion expressed was that while the work of the club has been far from satisfactory, Manager Barnie has done all that could have been expected, con-sidering the many things he was obliged to contend against.

DIAMOND DUST.

Springfield today. Meaney, will be in the box. Next week Manager Barnie will begin a sustle for 1896 players.

nustle for 1896 phyers. Umpire Swartwood, since hast in Scran-ton, has grown a bristling moustache of small but pugnacious aspect. Manager Burns, of Springfield, don't care a rap for players with records. He mays it's the head that counts. Luckey, the Mousic Anthracite plicher, MINOOKA.

Miss Mary Bohan, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Minooka friends yesterday. Miss Mary Jane John, of Miners' Mills, is the guest of Miss Ray Morgan, of Miners' Hill. Joseph Kelly will leave this evening for St. Michael's college, Toronto, Can-ada, to resume his studies. The funeral of Mrs. John Ratchford will take place this morning at 8.30 o'clock. Interment in Minooka Catho-

Twenty-five girls employed at the Taylor Silk mill struck yesterday morning for a two weeks' pay. Their re-quest was granted. The Independents will hold their reg-

Struck on the Head with a Stone. Morens Jakovits, a South Washington avenue merchant, complained to Chief Simpson yesterday that he is frequently tormented by a crowd af small boys in Bailroid alley who stone him when driv-ing along on his wagon. On Monday night one of them struck him on the head with a stone, cutting a deep gash in his scalp and rendering him partly unconscious.

Pillsbury's flour mills have a capacity of 17.500 barrais a day.

Included addresses by Harry Luce and A. B. Williams, Jr., both local young men who are about to enter the foreign mission field. Mrs. B. T. Jayne sang a pleasing solo. "His Salvation is Near Them That Hear Him," was sung by Tom Beynon in excellent voice. A. J. Harber sang "I Heard a Voice," and Allie Jones and Lizzie M. Howell gave a vocal duett entitled "Saved by Grace." Miss Elsie Brown sang "Pity the Heathen." The programme, as has been seen, was chiefly musical and was much appreciated.

Found on the Streets.

Found on the Streets. Frank Burns, a wanderer, supposed to be half-witted, was picked up by the police last evening on this side. He is about 18 years of age, and claims to have come to this eity on a wagon from Binghamton, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Burns, of 4 Van Buren avenue, live. The chief of police of the Parlor City will be communicat-ed with in regard to the hoy.

Another Teacher May Be Added.

Another Teacher May Be Added. There is a probability that one more teacher may be placed in grammar A department of No. 14 school, now taught by David Owens. The attendance num-bers 85, while only 52 can be accommo-dated. In this room is the biggest crush of any department on the West Side. In Principal Hughes' room the attendance is about 172, a score more than can be seated. The matter has been brought before Superintendent and a large force of men are now lay ing the sewer on North Main avenue.

EIGHT BAD BOYS.

They Will Be Tried in Court for Some o Their Pranks.

There was a hearing before Alder-man O. B. Wright last evening in the examined. DON'T WAIT. case where Jack Merryweather, the colored barber, had warrants sworn out for the arrest of twelve youths. out for the arrest of twelve youths, who are charged with malicious mis-chief in breaking the roof of a house belonging to him, going down through the roof like the spirits of old, and destroying some relics that the owner had stored away. Four of the young chaps were dis-charged because of their tender years; the other eight Tommy Davis Johnay the other eight, Tommy Davis, Johnny McDowell, Jack Roberts, Gene Roberts, Arthur Davis, Harry Rice, Harry Wil-liams and Jimmy Collins, were held to ball in the sum of $300 each to await the action of the grand jury. Their parents qualified as bondsmen.

Small Talk.

From Harper's Basar. Gus-How did you hapen to ask her to marry you the first time you ever met her. Cholly-Well-aw-you see I had just been introduced to her, find I-ah-couldn't think of anything else to say.
