

Wilkes-Barre.

The Tribune has opened a branch office at No. 21 Lumber building, Public Square, Wilkes-Barre. It is the purpose of the publishers to issue a newspaper as valuable to the general public as the metropolitan dailies and deliver it to the people throughout northeastern Pennsylvania from three to five hours earlier than the Philadelphia and New York papers can reach them.]

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR THE COMING YEAR.

The annual prize drill of the uniformed rank, Knights of the Mystic Chain, was conducted by the following: Companies A, B, C and D, of the Third regiment, and Company A, of the Fourth regiment, this city. The adjudicators were: First prize, Captain D. S. Myers, Lieutenant George S. McCleery and Captain Charles S. Peck. The first prize was won by Company C, of York, Captain Adam Garner, percentage 91, time eighteen minutes; second prize, $60, won by Company B, of Lancaster, Captain W. McElroy, percentage 67, time twenty-five minutes; third prize, $40, won by Company D, of Reading, Captain W. B. Marks, percentage 58, time thirty minutes.

ALDERMAN'S QUEER ACTION.

Refuses to Accept Bail Offered by a Friend of a Prisoner. Yesterday morning a Slav appeared before Mayor Nichols and asked advice on a matter, which, if his side of the story is true, places Alderman Coniff, of Georgetown, in a peculiar light. It seems that the alderman committed John Andraska to jail on a charge of assault and battery which he never committed. The charge was preferred by Mary Matzonska, and from the evidence it was shown that the little son of Andraska, aged about five years, was playing with the prosecutor's little daughter recently while his parents were absent from home, and during a quarrel which ensued, the girl struck the boy, who, in return, bit her on the arm. The mayor advised the friend to go see a lawyer, and he left vowing vengeance on the "squirt."

THEIR POSITIONS SAFE.

One of the ordinances passed finally at the meeting of the council Tuesday evening was that introduced at a previous meeting and provided for the removal of the aldermen during good behavior. The ordinance is one looked upon as a most sensible one and will doubtless operate to the better efficiency of the council. Heretofore aldermen were handicapped in the discharge of their duty by fear of dismissal, but the passage of the ordinance referred to leaves them comparatively safe in this respect and free to act as their conscience dictates. Heretofore the entire force has been reappointed at the beginning of each fiscal year.

A DRILLING TEST.

A drilling contest took place yesterday afternoon in Owen D. Jones' yard, between the blacksmiths of the city. The contestants were John M. Evans and Henry Francis, and Samuel Miles and Oliver Tucker. For a prize of $5, time allowed was fifteen minutes. Evans and Francis drilled twenty inches in the time, and Messrs. Miles and Tucker fifteen and one-half inches. The contest was witnessed by a large number of rockmen and miners. Richard T. Edwards was referee.

A HANDSOME OUTFIT.

George St. John, of the fire department, and Robert Williams, chairman of the fire department committee of the city council, yesterday tried a handsome outfit of black which the city intends purchasing for use on the new hose wagon which they are having constructed by the firm of Gibson & Co. The outfit consists of Messrs. Evans and Francis drilled twenty inches in the time, and Messrs. Miles and Tucker fifteen and one-half inches. The contest was witnessed by a large number of rockmen and miners. Richard T. Edwards was referee.

TODAY'S PARADE.

A Big Demonstration by the City's Firemen. Today's parade of the firemen of Wilkes-Barre and vicinity will be the biggest parade of its kind seen in this city for many years.

THE DALLAS FAIR.

It is but a short time now till the Dallas fair will be held, and from present indications the exhibition will be a good one. Upwards of $5,000 are offered for premiums in the various departments this year, insuring an excellent display. The catalogues are now out. Should you desire one, drop a postal to the secretary, J. Harry Anderson, and you will receive it by return mail. The fair begins on Oct. 1 and ends on Oct. 4.

YESTERDAY'S FIRE.

The fire yesterday afternoon was in the house of Jacob Schwab, editor of the Wilkes-Barre Sun, on North Washington street, between Jackson and North. It started in the kitchen and was caused by an overheated stovepipe. The blaze was readily extinguished by No. 2 engine, which arrived in short order. Several other companies were on the scene, but their services were not necessary.

THE CUT-OUT MURDERERS.

Judge Lynch yesterday appointed counsel to defend Nelson Miller and the other negroes who are charged with blowing up the shanty on the mountain, by which several Hungarians were killed. The defendants were A. M. Freas, M. J. Mulhall, P. A. McNeill and B. W. Davis. Frank McCleary will also appear. Frank McCleary will also appear. Frank McCleary will also appear.

DR. YOUNG HURT.

Dr. H. N. Young, the well-known dentist, was hurt painfully on Tuesday night while bicycling. He was riding down South River street, and in turning Northampton street, he was struck by a horse. The animal reared, and when he came down one foot landed on the doctor's leg, inflicting a very painful, but not serious, injury.

RELEASED ON BAIL.

Charles H. Miller, charged with robbing the Moonic postoffice, was released from jail yesterday on $1,000 bail, furnished by his brother, William Miller. He will have a hearing off Wednesday next week before United States Commissioner Hahn.

BRIEF NOTES.

WHEN HOPE FADED.

Mrs. White, a Citizen of Ithaca, Was Saved. (From the Ithaca Herald.) Our representative, hearing of the case of Mrs. H. P. White, called to her at Seneca and Plain streets. We publish their conversation in the following interview: "Mrs. White, I hear you have something to say about a new remedy for backache and kidney disorders. Will you give me your statement for publication?" "Yes, I am quite satisfied to do so. I think the public should know when a really good remedy is to be had. It is the least I can do in gratitude for my recovery."

"Tell me about your complaint." "About a year ago I had the grippe, and after that my back ached constantly in the region of the kidneys; a dull pain at times, and at other intervals sharp, darting pains piercing through me, and giving out as the pain in my kidneys grew worse, and at last I had to stay in bed the greater part of the time. Finally, I gave up altogether, and suffered with headaches, and suffered so much pain my appetite left me."

"Did the disorder affect the bladder?" "Finally, it did. The urine was highly colored and varied in appearance and excess. I often told my friends I believed I should go insane from the pain. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, and began their use. After taking them two or three days I began to feel their good effects, I continued, and now am perfectly well."

CROSS-THE-WATER FUN.

Complicated from Foreign Exchanges. A Frenchman was boasting that he had thoroughly mastered the English language when he was asked to explain the following following choice specimen of our eccentric vernacular: "As Hugh Hughes was having a yule log from a yew tree in his garden, he said to his wife, 'If you will wait until I have cut the log with you to look for your ewe.' After an attempt the Frenchman admitted his mistake.

Barrister: "Now, sir, you have stated under oath that this man and the appearance of a gentleman. Will you be good enough to tell the jury how a gentleman looks in your view?"

Witness: "Well, or—a gentleman looks—er—like—er—"

Barrister: "I don't want any of your er's, sir; and remember that you are on oath. Can you see anybody in this courtroom who looks like a gentleman?"

Witness (with sudden sobriety): "I can't say I stand out of the way!"

KID GLOVES KID GLOVES

All the talking and advertising on earth wouldn't make a glove reputation if the gloves were not good. We don't say none are as good as ours. We do say none are better. That means that these gloves are as good as the best. Prices as little as they always are here, several shades below the usual. Our importation for fall is now in, and to attempt to describe it in full would take more time than you have to read it and more than we have to write it. We simply say that it is a great deal more complete than ever before, and includes better values, lower prices and every new shade that can be thought of. The are also some new patterns in the make-up that make them fit and wear better. Notice the display of One-Dollar Kids in our window, and then step in at the counter and examine them. Chances are you will be so well impressed that you'll buy. The result—Our mutual benefit.
