

Wilkes-Barre.

The Tribune has opened a branch office at No. 23, Lining building, Public Square, Wilkes-Barre. It is the purpose of the publishers to issue a newspaper as valuable to the general public as the metropolitan dailies, and to deliver it to the people throughout northeastern Pennsylvania from three to five hours earlier than the Philadelphia and New York papers can reach them.

THE FIREMEN'S PARADE.

A Large Parade and Some Perfect Marching Done.

Yesterday's firemen's parade was the largest seen in this city for many years and it was most creditable to the participants, who made a splendid appearance. There were about 600 finely uniformed men in line, and with the bands, drum corps and the handsomely decorated fire engines, hose, ladders, etc., the parade was about as fine an affair of its kind as this city has ever witnessed. Too much credit cannot be given to the firemen's organization, St. John and Constantine for the interest they displayed in the parade, and the enthusiastic work they did in having the demonstration pass off so smoothly.

The formation of the line was as follows:

- Police Department.
- William Briggs, Chief of Police.
- Mayor F. M. Nichols.
- City Officials and Fire Department Committees in Carriages.
- Patrol Wagon.
- Dorchester Fire Department.
- Robert W. Williams, Chief of Staff.
- Lieutenant Colonel C. Bow Dougherty.
- George L. Weitzel, J. D. Branning, J. F. Mack, Fred Turner, S. A. Finch, Alexander's Ninth Regiment Band, Temple Commandery Band, of Tunkhannock.
- Triton Hose Co., of Tunkhannock.
- Mechanics Fire Co., No. 3, Pittston.
- Eagle Hose and Steamer Co., No. 1, Pittston.
- Niagara Engine company, Pittston.
- Black Diamond H. & L. Co., Pittston.
- Volunteer Hose company, Parsons.
- Citizens' Independent Hose Co., Parsons.
- Franklin Hose Co., Edwardsville.
- Good Will Hose Co., No. 2, Plymouth.
- Plymouth Hose Co., No. 3, Plymouth.
- Rescue Hose Co., No. 1, Ashley.
- Kingston Fire Department.
- Luzerne Hose company.
- Dorchester Fire Department.
- Nanticoke Fire Department.
- Avoca Hose company.
- Stegmaler's Hose Co., No. 1.
- Marshal of Wilkes-Barre Fire Department, Robert Harvey.
- Aids—Ambrose Constine, Joseph Williams, Hugh Sharp, J. H. Montague, Lew Kniffen, Major W. C. Coe, Frank Kniffen, Fred Kirsholm, Fred Stegmaler, W. O'Malley.
- Old Volunteers Firemen and Engine.
- Darkeytown Fire Brigade, Pittston.
- Jr. O. A. M. E.
- WILKES-BARRE FIRE DEPT.
- No. 1 Steamer Co., Men, Hose Carriage and Engine.
- No. 8 Hose Co., Men, Hose Carriage.
- No. 6 H. & L., Men, Hook & Ladder Co.
- No. 7 Hose Co., Men and Hose Carriage.
- No. 2 Steamer Co., Men, Hose Carriage and Engine.
- No. 9 Hose Co., Men, Hose Carriage.
- No. 3 Steamer Co., Men, Hose Carriage and Engine.
- No. 5 H. & L., Men, Hook & Ladder Co.
- No. 4 Steamer Co., Men, Hose Carriage and Engine.

The parade formed on River street, with the right resting on Union, and at 2:30 o'clock the march was given, showing that the line had moved. The route of march was out Union to Washington Square, down south side of the square, to Main, to Square, around Public Square, out East Market to city hall, where the mayor and council received them, and they proceeded to the square, where they were met by the magnificent marching done by some of the companies. The entire police force was out, and they showed the excellent results of their marching practice under Sergeant Kline. But by far the best marching was done by the Eagle Hose company, of Pittston, who brought down the parade with a flourish of fifty-five men. Their drill squad of twenty-five men, under Captain J. M. Jones, was the best of the day. They wore coats of blue cloth, square collared, and with white braid, and dark blue trousers. Under Captain Jones they performed some difficult marching tactics on the route, and were hailed everywhere with applause. At the parade the drill squad appeared on the west side of the Square, and did some superb drilling, going through a large number of evolutions with wonderful ease and precision.

HURT AT A DANCE.

A Fireman Gets His Back Very Badly Wrenched.

After the firemen's parade last evening, a dance was held in Saengerboud hall and among those who attended were Sam Bartleman, foreman of Hose company No. 1, and employed at Macklin's store at Five Points. As he entered the hall about 9 o'clock Mr. Bartleman saw a friend, and the two began a friendly tussle. In the mêlée Mr. Bartleman slipped and fell to the floor, wrenching his back so badly that he was unable to get up. Dr. Sweeney was called and he recommended that the injured man be taken to the hospital as soon as possible. The police patrol was called and Bartleman put on the stretcher and taken to the hospital. His back is badly hurt, but he will be able to be about again in a few weeks.

A Brave Act.

About noon yesterday Patrick Gavin did a brave deed in stopping a runaway which had reached the Square in the crowded condition of the street just before the parade, would have done serious damage. One of Brennan & Ward's teams became frightened at the depot, where it was hitched and ran away up East Market street. Gavin, who is a driver for Barker's freight line, saw them and as they passed him on the run, seized the bridle of the horse nearest him and pulled it back, stopping the large crowd who saw the brave act cheered him heartily as he went to a drug store to have his foot treated.

Charged with Embezzlement.

J. C. Card, who has been an agent for trees, shrubbery, etc., for quite a length of time for different nurseries, has also been soliciting and doing some work for Florist Moore, of 81 Park avenue. Card was arrested by Constable Peter Kulp yesterday on the charge of embezzlement. It is alleged by Mr. Moore that Card solicited orders and then would cheat the customer by calling for, making the figures larger and thus increasing his commission.

A Bill in Equity.

Constable Lloyd yesterday filed a bill in equity against the county commissioners, asking that they be restrained from drawing warrants; that they be compelled to put all bonds in his custody; furnish him with an office and fix salaries for his clerks. The bill will be argued on Saturday before Judge Lynch.

BRIEF NOTES.

Al Lewis has been held court on a charge of firing a revolver at Thomas Caffrey, of Sugar Notch. Lewis was a leading and a ball.

General Miles Will Go to Washington to Succeed Schofield.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Major General Nelson A. Miles, commanding the department of the coast, will be ordered to this city to take command of the army on the 25th instant, when Lieutenant General John M. Schofield goes on the retired list on account of age. General Miles is now at Fort Sheridan, Ill., and is expected to arrive in this city on the 25th. General Miles is his immediate junior. General Wesley Merritt is the third major general, recently placed in command of the department of the coast, with station at Chicago, and will undoubtedly retain that command.

SOCIETY RUNNING CARS.

Novel Way of Working Charity in Syracuse, N. Y.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The members of Syracuse's 400 have spent most of the day in the city, and at about eight o'clock a regular organized company, composed of women, has had charge of four cars, on four of the different lines, in the city. The cars were on board the cars for one day and were tendered the Woman's Christian association by the railway company. As a result the treasury of the organization is swelled to the tune of nearly $2,000.

WILL NOT INTERFERE.

Quay Will Not Fight Daltell's Reappointment in the Next Congress.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 12.—There was a renewal of the old feud between Senator Quay and Representative Daltell, when the latter was reappointed to the Senate. Senator Quay would use his influence with Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, the probable speaker of the incoming congress, to prevent John Daltell, of Pittsburg, from becoming chairman of the next ways and means committee.

DECEIVED BY A WAX FIGURE.

Traveling Man's Wife Creates a Scene in a Michigan Hotel.

Muskegon, Mich., Sept. 12.—A young Grand Rapids traveling man has been up north, and on his way back stopped at one of the leading Muskegon hotels. His charming young wife, who thought she would surprise him at Muskegon, so went down there and kept out of sight with friends until he had gone to his room.

Then she stole up, and found him sitting with his back toward the door, divested of his coat and shoes. Just back of him the dim light revealed the outlines of an apparently young and beautiful woman. With a piercing scream the enraged wife rushed into the room, and, catching the man by the neck of his shirt, she dashed the contents of a bottle of perfume over his face and hair.

The man, who was in a state of great excitement, and who had been in the room for some time, was taken to a showman across the street, and who occupied the room a part of the time.

TOOK PARIS GREEN.

Death of a Woman Who Believed That She Had Killed Charles.

Unlontown, Pa., Sept. 12.—Mrs. Alfred Richards, of Bellevue, took a dose of Paris green this morning with suicidal intent, and died in terrible agony a few hours later. She mixed half a box of the poison and drank the whole dose. She was found some time after in the cellar in a dying condition, and medical aid summoned, but she was beyond help.

The suicide was the result of mental aberration. Before the unfortunate woman died, her husband, Charles Richards, was told that she had killed Charles and had given up her life for him. She was an English woman. Her husband is employed at the Bellevue glass factory.

MR. CLEVELAND EMPHATIC.

No Pronouncements Against the Crime of Carrying Concealed Weapons.

Washington, Sept. 12.—President Cleveland put himself on record today by refusing a pardon to a man who had been sentenced to serve a year in jail in Washington for carrying a revolver. The president is reported to have made a foolish flourish of his weapon some time ago, and was convicted of assault.

The president says in refusing a pardon to the man who carried a pistol on his person, that he is not prepared to make any pronouncement on the subject of carrying a pistol, and that he is not prepared to make any pronouncement on the subject of carrying a pistol.

WORK OF M'KINNON'S GHOST.

Depopulating a Prosperous Town by Its Strange Movements.

Proscott, Mich., Sept. 12.—The town of Shearwater, which only a few years ago was a promising and prosperous burg with sawmills, salt blocks, etc., is now being depopulated. The removal of the sawmills and other plants has caused the exodus, but there is said to be still another reason.

A short time ago, Hugh McKinnon, of Detroit, was found dead with bullet holes in his body. Ever since the village, it is said, has been haunted by his ghost. So great has been the agitation among the superstitious that many have left town even before the mill shut down.

Dress Goods Department

As a season of novel conceptions in fabrics the present one easily bears the palm. Of course, with every turn of fashion's wheel we expect improvements, but this season we appear to have more than the usual proportion; we have been furnished with more than we could rightfully demand or expect.

Novelty Dress Goods

We have a remarkable collection of both foreign and domestic novelties. We won't tire you out with a long string of French names that wouldn't make you any wiser after you had read them, as they must be seen to be appreciated.

We placed our orders early, before the advance in prices took place, and are, consequently, able to offer a wealth of the best things in Dress Goods and Silks at prices which tell their own story of careful and early buying.

Black Goods

Mostly Priestly's Goods, and worthier weaves never found room on a retailer's counter. They are selected with an eye to quality, to style, to generous width and extra value.

SILKS

If you are an admirer of beauty in a fabric you can't afford to miss our Silk Department. We won't go into arguments or explanations, but come and see the goods. All are welcome, whether to look or buy.
