The Management Won't Have Anything

to Do with It.

The managment of the local base ball club yesterday gave the following no-thee: Notice to the public—On Saturday evening, Sept. 14, the championship season of the Eastern league will have closed, at which time the Wilkes-Barre Ball club will disband. Only two games with the Springfield club of this series can be played for the reason that the with the springheid club of this series can be played for the reason that the third game falls on Sept. 15, which is Sunday. The laws of Pennsylvania do not allow ball playing on Sunday and the third game will have to go by default. Were the Wilkes-Barre pitchers and the nine generally in good condi-tion, two games might have been played Saturday afternoon. But owing to the Saturday afternoon. But owing to the crippled condition of the players, and especially Betts, who is suffering from a felon on his left hand, it is not deemed advisable to double up. Ot this time the Wilkes-Barre management gives notice to the public that any games ar-notice to the pu notice to the public that any games of the players ranged for after Saturday, Sept. 14, will be under the charge of the players themselves, and all games played will be by the Wilkes-Barre Ball Players' organization, and not the Wilkes-Barre Ball club, Further, the Wilkes-Barre ball club, Further, the Wilkes-Barre Ball club will not be responsible for the payment of any bills contracted for which the y series of games in which the avers may participate after Sept. 14 and will claim no credit for games won

On Wednesday last, she was walking on the Square and was arrested by a man, who claimed he was an officer, but could not show proof. The arrest was made at the instance of Soo Hen Yen, George Lee and Gen Sing, three Chinese who were arrested and given a hearing before Mayor Nichols the early part of the week, charged with keeping a gambling house on Northampton street. The case was decided against them and they were required to pay a fine of $10 and costs, from which

A Hungarian Laborer Caught Under Si Tons of Clay.

Andrew Deock, a Hungarian laborer Andrew Deock, a Hungarian laborer, was instantly killed at Parsons yester-day by being buried under a mass of clay at the brickyard operated there by George T. Dickover. His body was re-moved to his boarding house, and the boarding mistress did not care to be-come responsible for the care of the body. It was taken to the undertaking establishment of Kinney Bros. and will be buried at the expense of Mr. Dick-over. Deock leaves a widow and two children, who are in the old country.

Foreman Andrew Burns says the ac-ident was due to Deock's carelessness. Burns had placed a man at each cor-ner and two on top to loosen it. Deock instead of going on top, as he was or-dered, remained under the clay and was caught when it foul was caught when it fell.
