TOOK MR. LEE'S LAND.
 Now They Are Trying to Agree Upon Suitable Compensation.
 There was a hearing before viewers in court room No. 2 yesterday in the suit of P. J. Lee against the Jermyn and Bushbrook Water company. Attorney S. B. Price appeared for Mr. Lee, and Attorney C. H. Welles for the water company.
 The company took possession of Lake Chapman, in Scott township, and among the riparian owners was Mr. Lee. The water in the lake was raised and flowed over on Lee's land, and that gentleman sues for the value of the land, as he claims that many of the living springs that supply the lake boil up out of his soil. He demands $1,500 for the land taken.
 The company declares it took only five acres, but will pay $100 an acre over twenty over on Lee's land, and for boating purposes and for watering his cattle.
 The Scranton Business College.

W. C. T. U. IN CONVENTION
 Ninth Annual Gathering Finishes Its Business in Peckville.
 MRS. C. D. SIMPSON, PRESIDENT
 Seranton Gets the Highest Office and is Chosen for Next Year's Convention.
 Woman's Suffrage Discussed During the Noon Hour by Delegates.

The ninth annual convention of the Lackawanna county Women's Christian Temperance Union, which began Thursday in the Presbyterian church at Peckville, terminated yesterday afternoon. During the day many interesting reports were made and important business transacted.
 Mrs. J. M. Howell, of Green Ridge, opened the morning session. The reports of the department superintendents were read and discussed. The necessity of every union worker taking a paper pertaining to the work. Mrs. F. T. Vail read extracts from an article on the work of the matron in the county jail.
 The superintendent of the flower mission, Miss Fanny Staub, reported 250 visits to the hospitals. The committee on Sabbath observance reported that ninety-two petitions to the legislature had been circulated among the churches, but that only three churches had taken the matter up.
 Miss Ella Mumford, county superintendent of press work, and Mrs. Yost reported that this department had grown to proportions heretofore unattained. Mrs. Gardner, of Moscow, reported on Sunday school work.
 During the noon hour was held a women's suffrage meeting. Many addresses were made and the question was discussed with animation.
 Mrs. C. D. Simpson was elected president; Mrs. J. M. Howell, of Green Ridge, corresponding secretary; Mrs. M. D. Lee, D., of Dartmouth college, secretary; Mrs. J. B. Sicker, of Peckville, treasurer.
 Resolutions were passed condemning the liquor and tobacco habits, and urging more determined effort on the part of local unions.
 Seranton was chosen as the place for holding next year's convention.

DANCERS WITH BARED FEET.
 Appeared with A Green Goods Man at Academy of Music.
 The Tribby dancers made their first appearance in this city last night. It was during the third act of "A Green Goods Man," at the Academy of Music, and a bare footed and bare legged young ladie slipped down to the foot lights and directly two legs, bared to the knee, shot upwards. Two cheers followed and then ensued the dancing, and intricate movements of the Tribby dance until the bared feet of the dancers became as red as their rouge tinted cheeks.
 The young women were attired entirely by last night and their waists and blue ribbons that each wore on the left ankle. The gowns reached to the ankle and were of a soft material, which the box seats really to the movements of the dancers and made no display above the ankle of the bared members, save when the more daring kicks were indulged in. A rug covered the stage and the feet of the dancers. It is impossible to dance gracefully or well with bared feet, but last night's exhibition was a novelty and a great success. It is probable that the dancers should appear a second time. They complied and danced with much more abandon than on their first appearance.
 "A Green Goods Man" has been re-written since it was last seen here, and it is still simply a vehicle to introduce specialties. These are clever and entertaining, and were received with favor by last night's audience.
 Frank R. Jackson, Billy Link, Charles Carter and Miss Cora Pryor are a quartette of very competent people who are with the company. There will be a matinee at two o'clock on account of the warm weather, but the piece will be repeated again tonight. Prices range from 15 to 75 cents.

A YOUTHFUL ANANIAS.
 Charles Hedden Has All the Qualifications of a First Class Hobo.
 Alderman Millar was the victim of a misplaced confidence yesterday. Special Officer Durkin, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, called on him at the Alderman's office about 8 o'clock in the morning, looking a ragged, dirty-faced boy 14 years of age, whom he found sitting on a bench near the station. The little chap looked as though he had just been through the screens in a coal breaker. He was shivering and crying and pleaded that he was a hobo and had nothing to eat for almost two days.
 He told a ready tale about dead parents and no home or friends, that he had "hugged it" all the way from Chicago to Toledo, and that he had a car at the latter place, full asleep and awoke to find himself in the hands of Officer Durkin. The alderman questioned him closely about the matter, which he stoutly asserted was his home, before his mother died three months ago. He said his father was killed in a railway wreck three years ago. He told a long tale about his wanderings around this world of care.
 The alderman was very much impressed with his story and ordered a bounteous repast for him, also promising to take him to his home, if a young man was taken to the police station after being fed. In the meantime Chief of Police Simpson received a telegram from Portland, Pa., notifying him to be on the lookout for a boy answering the description of the young chap.
 Last night an old man arrived in town from Pennsylvania and recognized him as his grandson, Charley Hedden, who is an incorrigible youngster that slipped from home last Tuesday morning. He took Charley home at midnight.

DEATH OF MRS. CONLON.
 Mother of Thomas Conlon, of the Hook and Ladder Company.
 Mrs. Mary Conlon died at 11 o'clock last night at her home, 113 Ninth street, after a month's illness. She was 53 years of age and is survived by four children, Thomas, John, Charles and Mary. They are Thomas Conlon, permanent man of the Hook and Ladder company and Miss Sadie Conlon, of this city; Miss Jane Conlon, of Omaha, and Patrick Conlon, of Chicago. The funeral will take place Monday morning. A requiem mass will be celebrated in St. Patrick's Catholic church at 10 o'clock. Burial will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

MARRIED TWO COUPLES.
 That is, Alderman Millar Was the Officiating Magistrate.
 Alderman W. S. Millar yesterday united two couples in the bonds of wedlock. The first two who appeared, were John and Mary Conlon, and their hearts beating as one, were August Palmquist, of 424 Lackawanna avenue, and Miss Hannah Anderson, of Tenth street. They were made happy.
 Conrad Luther Adams and Miss Mary Louise Ziegler, both of Laffin, were the other two who were "spliced" and sent them on their way rejoicing.
 Miss Handenberg's pianoforte school will reopen Monday, Sept. 14, at 423 Madison avenue.

Famous College President.
Rev. Erastus Rowley Made Well by Paine's Celery Compound.

As the school year opens, attention is directed to the oft-repeated advice of leading educators, warning teachers, parents and scholars against the fearful results of exhaustive brain work among young people.
 As a bare of the mind and body, un-dermined by the strain of school life, Paine's celery compound (which was first prescribed by America's greatest teacher, Professor Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college), has been a blessing, making them feel strong, feeding the brain and nerves, and enriching and purifying the blood.
 The recent recommendation of Paine's celery compound by Principal Camp, of New Haven, and the equally outspoken praise of this greatest of remedies by ex-President Cook, of the National Teachers' association, are two of the thousands of such testimonials from parents and teachers throughout the country.
 Nothing in the world so strengthens the weak, so readily restores lost nerve force, so surely makes the ailing and peevish young woman or growing boy well and cheerful.
 And for the aged and infirm the whole world knows its wonderful curative powers. Rev. Erastus Rowley, president of the famous Kentucky Female college, writing to the proprietors of Paine's celery compound, says:
 "I was for several years a sick man. My sickness was attended with constipation, with nervousness and insomnia, and the least excitement would cause palpitation of the heart. I have in the last three or four years used several widely advertised preparations. Finally I took Paine's celery compound and I regard it as superior to all others, especially if used strictly as you direct. By using this I do not suffer from constipation, inability to sleep, or from palpitation of the heart as formerly. I am still using Paine's celery compound at times, and shall take pleasure in recommending it to others."

WARDE IN THE MOUNTAINBANK.
 Gave a Finished Performance at the Frothingham Last Night.
 It is a regrettable accident that the distinguished actor, Frederick Warde, had such a meagre audience as that which greeted him last night. The explanation that will fit, for Mr. Warde is a favorite in Scranton, and the bill of last night, "The Mountainbank," has always been received here as it has all over the country. Possibly it is that Seranton is waiting to see him in his new play, "Runnymede," or the two big audiences of theater-goers and the previous night decided to take a night off, but whatever the cause, the audience was shamefully small.
 Mr. Warde seemed to take a particular delight, however, in entertaining those who did come to see him. His every movement betokened earnest, painstaking effort to do the best that was possible, and his company made the same endeavor. As a consequence the audience saw one of the most finished and thorough productions that ever graced a Scranton stage.
 As the Mountainbank Mr. Warde is in one of his happiest roles. The feature peculiar to the character is the sudden transitions from grave to gay, from humor to pathos one after the other in rapid succession, requiring of the actor a singular character, combining all other lines followable on the stage. By living his part, as is Mr. Warde's, and the previous night decided to take a night off, but whatever the cause, the audience was shamefully small.

IS BREATHING EASIER NOW.
 Annie M. Bellman Given Over in Charge of Her Uncle.
 Judge Archbald granted the release of Annie M. Bellman yesterday morning from the House of the Good Shepherd, she is 17 years old, her uncle, W. H. Hartman, of Hunlock's Creek, Luzerne county, at whose instance she was released, was appointed her guardian in the sum of $500, and he will see to it that she is removed from the clutches of a street car conductor of this city, who was slipping her young feet to tread the slippery paths of vice.
 The girl is a young and innocent when she came to this city a year ago; she was placed in a private family of respectability, but she had a tendency to roam out on account of her nocturnal rambles she was bewitched by a street car man. The mother heard of this with the outcome that Annie was placed in the House of the Good Shepherd.
 W. H. Hartman is her uncle and feels that he will win her back to the path of rectitude. He took her back to Hunlock's Creek with him, although she objected strongly to leaving this city.

EARLY MORNING COURT.
 George H. Lancaster and Ida Hama Given a Hearing at 4 O'Clock a. m.
 At 4 o'clock yesterday morning, through the exertions of influential friends, Alderman Millar was induced to give a hearing to George H. Lancaster and his companion, Ida Hama. When brought before the tribunal they waived a hearing and entered bail in the sum of $500 each and departed on their several ways.

The department a fine line of cloth pieces, suitings, coatings and vestings are for sale, considerably below the actual cost.

PET DOGS SOMETIMES BITE.
 Little Mary Toomey, of Cedar Avenue, Has No Discovered.
 John Fursh, of 1222 Cedar avenue, is the owner of a big white dog of the "sooner" species. The neighbors say it was never suspected that he had a temper and he was the recipient of many a tin can episode where the small boy played the leading role.
 The children had been accustomed to play with Tiger until yesterday, when Mary Toomey, the 6-year-old daughter of Daniel Toomey, living across the street from Fursh's, was bitten on the arm through the flesh. Dr. J. A. Manley cauterized the wound and does not look forward to any serious results.
HEARING THE CLAIMS.
 Auditor Davis Met the Creditors of the Olyphant Trust Company.
 Attorney J. Alton Davis, sitting as auditor, yesterday heard the claims of the creditors of the Olyphant Trust company. Attorney W. W. Watson was present in the interest of the depositors. The hearing was held in attendance and offered the books of the company showing the amounts due the various depositors.
 Mrs. S. N. Callender presented a claim of $1,000 for bonds which she said she lent to the trust company. Auditor Davis will hear testimony with regard to this claim later.
HE CAME OFF THE ROOF.
 Philip Schneider, of Beech Street, suffered Two Broken Arms.
 Early yesterday morning Philip Schneider, of Beech street, a plaster employed in roofing a house on the same thoroughfare, fell off and was picked up in an unconscious condition. Dr.

TODAY'S PRIMARIES.
 Delegates Will Be Elected Between the Hours of 8 and 7 p. m.
 Today the Republican primaries will be held and delegates elected to the next national convention, which will be held in the court house on Tuesday. This convention will elect two delegates to the next national Republican convention, and also nominate candidates for coroner and county surveyor.
 There is little doubt that William Connel and John T. Williams will be elected national delegates. For coroner Dr. S. P. Longstreet, of the central city; Dr. William Donne, of Providence, and Dr. E. E. Weston, of Taylor, and Dr. James Hayes, of the central city, are the candidates most prominently mentioned for the nomination. It is not probable that any other names will be presented to the convention.
 E. A. Bartl, of this city, and George Stevenson, of Waverly, are candidates for the nomination for county surveyor. Mr. Bartl is one of the best known civil engineers in the city, and was at one time a candidate for city engineer of this city. Mr. Stevenson is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and was one of the best known civil engineers in the country in his day. He laid out a section of the Union Pacific railroad canal and was employed during the construction of some of the leading railroads of the country.
 George Stevenson has inherited his father's ability as a civil engineer, and was one of the surveyors engaged in the work of constructing the Erie and Wyoming Valley and the Carbonade and Scranton railroad between this city and Hancock, N. Y.
