CASE OF BARRATRY.

Watson and Zimmerman Held for Court on a Serious Charge.

Yesterday morning G. M. Watson and Yesterday morning G. M. Watson and R. A. Zimmerman, two well-known members of the Scranton bar, and law partners, were given a hearing before Alderman Thomas, of the Ninth ward of this city. The charge was that of extortion and barratry, and was preferred by Theodore S. Barber, an employe of the Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley Traction company. oming Valley Traction company.

From the evidence given before the alderman it appears that Messrs. Waton and Zimmerman conceived the idea of compelling the Traction companies here and in Lackawanna county both to pay large sums of money to the prop-erty owners along their right of way as damages. They entered into an erty owners along their right of way as damages. They entered into an agreement with a man named Perrigo, it is alleged, according to which the latter was to make a canvass of the property owners and go around among the people who were thus affected and procure the names of all those who were willing to

This scheme reached the office of the Wilkes-Barre Traction company in some way, and General Manager Graham at once employed the Barring and McSweeney Detective agency to take the case. Theodore Jones and a detective named Clifford were put to work on the case, and secured the necessary evidence. Clifford took Jones to Mr. Watson and introduced him as Mr. Chamberlain, of Altoona, at the same time assuring the attorney that "every-thing that Mr. Chamberlain said went." purchased Perrigo's interest, paying him $25 down and agreeing to pay the remaining $375 in the future. Jones, or Chamberlain, as he was known, was given a letter of intro-duction to ex-Mayor Loftus, of Moosic, with the assurance that the ex-mayor would provide him with the names of all property owners willing to begin suit. He was also given an agreement, drawn up in typewriting, to present to M. J. Tighe, of Port Griffith, by means of which signatures would be obtained from property holders in Jenkins town-ship, Luzerne county. Chamberlain went to Mr. Tighe and presented the ment, but Mr. Tighe refused to Lenahan appeared for the prosecution, and Hon. H. W. Palmer and G. L. Halsey ap-peared for the defense. After the wit-nesses for the prosecution had been ex-amined, General Palmer asked the al-derman to discharge the infendants as derman to discharge the defendants, as no evidence against them had been of-fered. Mr. Lenahan protested vigorously against such a course, and 'Squire Thomas held them in $1,000 bail for their appearance at court.

WOMAN AND BROOM.

They Prove Too Much for the Doughty Constables.

Yesterday morning Constables Richard Edwards and John L. Evans went to Hancock street with the intention of serving two executions against Frank Washiek, sr., and Frank Washiek, jr. The sale was billed for 10 o'clock, but was prevented by circumstances over which the constables had no control. The plaintiff was Abraham Mashein, and he accompanied the con stables to the house of their intended victim, although he repented going all the rest of the day. When the trio the rest of the day. When the trio arrived they encountered Mrs. Washick, who wanted to know their business. They told her and Mrs. Washick ordered them away. The party naturally refused to go, and Mrs. Washick took a broom and proceeded to enforce her arguments. The physical condi-tions became so unpleasant for the constables that they fied. Mashein tried to fiee also, but several timely whacks with the broom disabled him partially, and impaired his sprinting qualities, and Mrs. Washick lammed him unmercifully with the broom. finally got away and says he will have that execution served if every citizen of Wilkes-Barre has to be made a constable to serve it.

DROPPED DEAD.

Jacob Morganstein, of Kingston, Falls Dead in a Saloon.

About 12.39 yesterday, Jacob Morgan-stern, of Kingston, dropped dead from heart disease in Niemeyer's saloon, at the corner of Public Square and West Market street. He had entered the saloon a few moments before and called for a glass of beer and a lunch, which he had just finished eating when the fatal attack came. Some men in the place saw him drop the spoon, place one hand over his heart and fall to the floor. Mr. Niemeyer and his assistant ran to his alid and carried him to the back yard, but he was dead before they reached the door, having passed away without saying a word. Dr. Barney was called and worked for some time. thinking something might have lodged in his throat, causing strangulation. He soon saw that the man had died of heart disease, and notified Coroner Perkins, who will hold an inquest to-

Deceased was a resident of Kingston and had kept a shoe shop on Page street for many years. He was mar-ried, but had separated from his wife. He leaves one son, Jacob, aged 27, and one daughter.
