the Philadelphia Games.

Philadelphia has kept up her record as the greatest of base ball cities, says a Philadelphia paper. So far this season in round numbers 425,000 people have witnessed the games at Philadelphia Ball park, and more games are yet to be played. At least 25,000 will witness these remaining contests, and this will bring the grand total of admissions up to 450,000.

It is conceded that the games away from home will pay salaries and all running expenses, and probably more, so that the home receipts are practically clear profit. There are three prices of admission, 25, 50 and 75 cents. Say that 30 per cent. of the patrons pay 50 cents, which is a low proportion, especially on big days, and this will bring the home receipts of the Philadelphia Ball club (limited,) up to about $160,000. Now the visiting clubs receive 40 per cent, of the admissions, which amounts to $44,800. This leaves a surplus of $115,200 to be divided among the lucky stockholders. Besides this vast amount of money there are other revenues for score card, and lunch privileges, fence advertising.etc. And with all this Phil-adelphia never had a champion team.

All the Scranton players have been reserved, but it is probable that only two or three of them will be on the team next season. The reserving of the players is done merely to permit buying and trading with minor and major league clubs. Of the present season's team only Pitchers Meaney and Johnson will probably wear Scranton uniforms next year.

Scranton uniforms next year.

The New York club might use Doyle at second next year, for in Clark they have a first baseman who in a few months would be playing that position second to none in the league, says Caylor in the Herald.

* * Next season every contract should have inserted a clause which would call for a $50 fine against any man on the team who should be detected in a barroom from April 1 to Oct. 1. These men are paid enough to warrant a practice of total abstinence during the playing season. The interests of the game in New York demand it.

CORBETT'S CONDITION.

Manager Brady Has Something to Say on the Subject.

Jim Corbett's money-grasping proolivities are securing for him severe criticism. He is said to be not in condition, does not show any signs of going into training and is living high while running around the country. These are a few of the charges against Likely the people who started the stories do not know that Corbett is making money by his tactics. So much so that it pays him to take a chance. He secured $460 for two hours' base ball play here, a move which in itself was good exercise. Windy Brady said Thursday:

There are a lot of Broadway statues who do not know what they are talking about, running around and telling what they don't know about Corbett. It is true that the injury to his knee kept Jim from starting in with his training on last Monday. He sent for Billy Newman, who attended him, and brought him around all right, and yesterday. when he was here in my office, Jim looked as good as he ever did. He will positively begin hard training on Sat-

IDLE CLUB TALK.

So Says Canfield About a New Defender Val vrie Race.

Newport, R. I., Sept. 16 .- A. Cass Cantield, secretary of America's cup committee, when asked today if there was any prospect of more racing be-tween the Defender and Valkyrie, said: Not that I know of."
He said that the only foundation for the report that there would be further racing, and off this port, was the idle talk at the clubs. He doubted if Lord Dunraven or any one else with authority would talk race just at present.

Simpler the Better.

Simpler the Better.

The present cycling season which is now almost completed has demonstrated more conclusively than any of its predecessors, that the simpler the construction of the bicycle and its equipment, the most practical is its utility. This feature is particularly noticeable with pneumatic tires, and where a comparison is made between the light resilient single-tube products of today, which are without doubt the most practical of all tires, and the heavy complicated tires of previous seasons, the progress made in the manufacture of these indispensable features of the cyclist's comfort is shown with startling distinctness. The simpler the tire the better, and the single tube idea is the living embodiment of this axion.

John Barnett, of Shickshinny, will leave at midnight tonight and try to make 200 miles on his bicycle in twenty-four hours. He will ride from Shickshinny to Rupert, a distance of fifty miles and return, and will try to accomplish the trip twice. The feat is simply an experiment, and there is no money on it. Mr. Barnett will be timed by some of the reliable citizens of Shickshinny. He has made several long trips, one to Chicago and back, and one to Asbury Park and return, and has ridden fifty-five miles in four hours.

One of the most wonderful facts of our body is this natural filter inside us. Our kidneys are very important organs. We don't take enough care of them. We are sick oftener than there is any need for. It is simply because we take no heed to our kidneys. Sick kidneys show their effects in many different diseases.

Rheumatism and Bright's disease are very common. Anaemia, Neuralgia, Pain in the Back, Dizziness, Bladder Troubles, Gravel, Diabetes, Sleepless ness, Nervousness, These are only a few symptoms, or so-called "diseases." Back of them all are the sick kidneys.

Once the filters can be made to work, all these symptoms will disappear.

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills are made principally from the roots of the asparagus plant, which has a special curative action on the kidneys. It gives them new life and strength. It helps them to do their work as it ought to be done. It cures their sick ness. It cleans and renews the filter. When the kidneys are well you will feel a great difference at once. Robert Poole, a Bookkeeper for the llughes Brewery, Is Shot by Julius Newman, a Demented Employe.

Pittston, Sept. 16.—The town was thrown into a state of excitement shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon, when Robert Poole, of West Pittston, bookkeeper at the Hughes brewery, on Dick street, was shot by Albert Julius Newman, an Austrian, who, it Julius Newman, an Austrian, who, it is now believed, was crazy when he committed the deed. The murderer fired two shots, one of which entered Poole's right shoulder and came out of his side. The second ball passed through the fleshy part of his arm.

There was no cause whatever for the cold-blooded murder, except that the murderous Austrian imagined that Poole was his enemy, and had worked

He de-manded of Hughes $500, for the balance of the year he would have worked had he not been discharged. Poole was standing in a doorway at the other end of the office, and as soon as he turned about, Newman pulled out and fired the two shots as stated.

Street Commissioner Thomas Carroll who heard of the shooting, however, bravely grappled with the murderer, and disarmed him, and lodged him safely in the lockup. From there he was taken before Alderman Loftus and committed to the county jail.

If you were to call at 27 Front avenue, you would find a pleasant elderly larly, Mrs. Captain Henesy by name. Her kindly smile and Joyous manner are to no small extent due to the escape she has had. Her own words can better describe her rescue and one can easily understand her present happy condition when they realize what she has gone through. She says: "About five months ago I had an attack of sickness which lasted for a week and since that time I have been subject at intervals to similar attacks, some of which were longer in duration. It is hard for me to describe how I suffered. The pain would commence in my head, after which it would seem to pass down my body and settle in my back, my sides ached, my back ached, and I had a feeling of great distress in the bowels. The in-creased pain which seemed to come from lying down, would be almost unbearable, my face and stomach would bloat up and I could hardly stand on my feet, dizziners made it almost impossible; this feeling was always with me even after the violence of the attack passed over. The last attack I had was the worst, and was so had I would not have been able to tell this SUSAN B. ANTHONY ILL.
