REFUSES TO PROSECUTE.

More Facts About Last Week's Shooting Affair.

It will be remembered that last week R. Janaro, of Electric alley, was arrested for attempting to shoot Mary Tomaline, a pretty Italian woman who is married. More facts about the affair have been learned and it now develops into a pretty romance.

Rosario Janaro, the man who did the shooting, is a handsome young man. For many years he has loved Mary Tomaline, who returned his affection. But Mary has a couple of sisters and a brother who wanted her to marry another man. This person was Tomaline, and the influence that was brought against Mary resulted in her marriage to Tomaline.

Still she loved Rosario and her husband had no place in her heart. Things went on as before the marriage. Janaro is still making love to Mary. When separated they kept up a correspondence, and when in the same place often lived in the same house. During several years Tomaline knew nothing of what was going on. He did not see that he had no place in his wife's affections and made more than one attempt to get her to leave him.

This thing could not go on forever, though, and Tomaline began to get inkling of the affair. He saw he could not stop it and, accordingly, determined to go with his wife to Italy, where Janaro would not appear to bother him.

It was on the day of their departure that the shooting occurred, when Janaro asked for his photograph which Mary had and who refused to give it up. The shots were then fired and in all probability were only meant to frighten her, as Janaro says. He could easily have hit her, as she was very near him at the time and he is a good marksman. Most of the persons who saw the affair now corroborate this statement. It is impossible for him to have missed had he shot to kill. Mary now says she will not proceed against Janaro, and so he will probably soon be at liberty. He may meet with some rough handling from his countrymen, though, should he return, for they are very bitter against him and it was all the officers in charge could do to keep them from lynching him on the day of the shooting.

NOW FOR THE RACES.

Three Days of Sport Will Begin at Anthracite Park.

Beginning today and continuing for two days more Carbondale people will be given a chance to witness some good sport in the way of horse racing at Anthracite Park. The affair promises to be a great success from the outlook at present, and everything to make the time enjoyable to those attending is being done by the management.

The base ball season is now ended, and this will be the only chance for the people to have any amusement for some time.

The entries have been increasing fast, and several from Binghamton have had to be refused on account of the number which have already entered.

There will be both running and trotting races, and each event promises to be of unusual interest. Quite a number of local horsemen have entered their stock, and will endeavor to carry off honors.

BACKED OVER A WALL.

William Clift's Unavoidable Position Behind a Team.

William Clift, of this city, head brakeman on Conductor Hiram's train, had an experience Sunday morning which was indeed unavoidable.

Mr. Clift had made arrangements to spend Sunday in the country, and had asked a friend to accompany him. Everything was ready for the journey and both were anticipating a good time. However, while turning the horse round, in some manner the animal backed the carriage over a stone wall in the rear of the Phillips property. The position was not one which a person would be anxious to repeat, for the wall was about eight feet high.

The horse, which was the property of Frank Walsh, was a gentle one, or it, too, in its effort to get free, had gone over and severely injured itself. Several people near by, who saw Mr. Clift's predicament, at once went to his assistance and the horse was loosened from the carriage. The carriage was soon fixed and the horse once more hitched up. Mr. Clift resumed his journey, which had been interrupted. He did not receive a bruise, and the wagon was also uninjured.

PERSONAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ryan have returned from their wedding tour, and

Hip Disease

Results from a scrofulous and impure condition of the blood, and it is cured by

Hood's Sarsaparilla the great blood purifier. The father of a Philadelphia family writes this:

"We were Hood's Sarsaparilla to our little girl, who had symptoms of hip disease. She could not put her foot down on the floor when we commenced giving her the medicine, but in a short time she was able to get off the couch and to reach her playthings. Since then she has steadily improved, thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla, and her general health is all that could be desired. When any of the other children are not well we give them

Hood's Sarsaparilla and we earnestly recommend it to others."

TUNKHANNOCK.

The heavy freeze of Saturday and Sunday nights laid out everything in the way of growth that was expected. Such a cold snap so early in the season gets ahead of even the oldest inhabitant.

A soaking rain, starting in about 2:30 yesterday afternoon, was a welcome break to the long and tedious drought that has prevailed.

Rev. C. L. Loman, of Pittston, who has just returned from a visit to Iowa, was in town briefly yesterday.

The proposed railroad to connect with the Lehigh Valley at Mohopany and run back into Sullivan county, passing through Forkstown, seems to be in a languishing condition. The coal, oil, gas, graphite, and oyster mining business is all at a standstill.

The Democratic county convention yesterday afternoon failed to arouse any contest worthy of notes, and the working was as smoothly as though running on ball bearings.

The meeting was called to order by County Chairman F. H. Platt, who held the post of honor.

John O'Connell, a student at Niagara university, who has been spending his vacation in this city, resumed his studies yesterday.

H. A. Purple, of Salem avenue, spent yesterday in Forest City.

Mrs. Bennett, of Lewisburg, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Walter E. Frick, of Wyoming street.

Charles Waterbury, a former resident of this city, was in town yesterday. He is now publishing a French Journal in New York city.

John Merrick, of Herrick Center, spent yesterday in this city.

Attorney Cornelius Comings, of Scranton, made a business trip to this city yesterday.

Miss Mary Boland, of Washington street, spent Sunday with friends in Scranton.

Miss Hattie Berry, of Canaan street, who has been spending several days with her brother, Frank, in Wilkes-Barre, returned yesterday.

Mrs. Bert Brownell of Spring street, is ill.

The employees of No. 1, No. 3, and No. 5 mines received their pay yesterday.

Mrs. John S. Diack, of Albany, N. Y., is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Andrew Wille, of Belmont street.

W. B. Gritman is spending several days in Buffalo and Niagara. He will return Wednesday.

Miss Alda Nealon has returned to her duties at the postoffice after a two weeks' visit with friends at Atlantic City and Philadelphia.

John B. Shannon, who has been confined to his cottage at Crystal Lake by sickness, is able to be around again.

G. W. Gilbert and wife will leave for a week's visit with friends in Bridgeville, N. J.

Miss Annie L. McLoughlin, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Eliza McGowdy, of Laurel street.

Mrs. E. P. Webb, of Dundaff Villa, has been secured by Proprietor Williams, of Hotel American, as housekeeper, and will take up her duties at once.

Dr. S. S. Shields and Dr. Burns, of Scranton, held a consultation yesterday in regard to the condition of Ethel Price, of Cemetery street. The child is troubled with a disease of the hip, and it may be necessary to perform an operation.

JERMYN.

The ladies of the Congregational church will hold an ice cream social in the church tomorrow evening to which they will be glad to welcome you.

The corner stone of the Primitive Methodist church was laid yesterday with appropriate exercises. This congregation is working manfully to secure a house in which to worship, and will appreciate any assistance that may be given.

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Alfred Matthews and Mary Johnson, both of this place.

W. S. Hutchings, of Moosic, and E. M. Sperig, of Lansing, Mich., were Jermyrn visitors yesterday.

The funeral of John Coughlin, which took place yesterday afternoon, was largely attended.

Robert Blakeslee, Cool Glen, Jefferson county is visiting relatives here.

Burgess Johnson yesterday placed two of the borough police on the disputed territory, on which Nathaniel Depey is laying a claim, with instructions to get the matter settled by force.

A child of F. E. Waters, of the Onondaga, of Indiana, fell from the porch and broke his right arm.

A basket social and ball will be held tomorrow evening in Enterprise hall of the Junior Order United American Mechanics society.

The school directors are considering the advisability of employing an extra teacher. This is sadly needed as the rooms are overcrowded, and the teachers cannot do justice to the large numbers they are obliged to care for.

The funeral of the child of Frank Muldoon, which died Sunday, took place yesterday afternoon.

AVOCA.

The regular monthly sociable of the Ladies' Missionary society of the Lang-cliffe church will be held this evening at the home of Miss Reneman.

An interesting programme has been arranged. Refreshments will be served.

Miss Kate Osborne, of Scranton, spent Sunday with Mrs. C. Osborne, of the West Side.

Miss Jennie Healey, of Grove street, is convalescing.

Messrs. Murphy, Cadden and Greevy, of Scranton, and Glynn, of Dunmore, spent Sunday evening with Miss Elizabeth Kelly, of Scranton.

James Ryder, of the West Side, is around again after a few days' illness.

P. J. Flood, representing the Smead-Wellis ventilating system, was a visitor in town Sunday.

An entertainment will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church this evening under the auspices of the Duryea division, Sons of Temperance.

The Shamrocks, of Avoca, challenge the Taylor Reds to a game of ball on the former grounds on Wednesday afternoon. Answer through The Tribune.

Mrs. William Motter and children, who have been spending the past few months with her mother, Mrs. E. J. Webb, returned to her home in Homer, N. Y., on Saturday.

Miss Mame Walsh, of Parsons, will conduct a class in elocution during the coming season. Miss Walsh is a gifted elocutionist, and comes in our midst highly recommended. It is to be hoped that her efforts will meet with success.

M. H. Collins is spending a few days with friends in Jermyrn.

Thomas Dunn and E. J. Hoban have opened a new hardware store in Pittston.

Miss Mame Walsh, of Spring street, is spending a week with Scranton friends.

Michael Whalen is having a small building erected adjoining his present one, in which his son, Joseph, will conduct a butcher shop.

NEWS OF OUR INDUSTRIES.

Happenings of Interest to the Staple Trades and Particularly to the Trade in Iron, Steel and Anthracite Coal.

The Chickies Iron company's furnace, No. 2, at Chickies, which has been idle since 1883, has started up and made its first cast Sept. 1.

Moses D. Evans, of the Kingston Coal company, has been appointed superintendent of the Hillside coal and iron company of Forest City.

The extensive plant at Thurlow formerly operated by the Wellman Iron and steel company is expected to be started up before the close of this month.

The production of wire and wire rods at the plant of the Pittsburgh Wire works, Bradford, during August was the largest in any one month in the history of the company.

The new furnace of the Spearman Iron company, of Sharpville, was blown in on Sept. 5. It has an annual capacity of 70,000 gross tons of Bessemer and foundry pig iron.

The Durbin furnace of Cooper & Hewitt, at Riegelsville, is being relined, and will soon be blown in. Employment will be given to 200 men. The furnace has been idle a long time.

The Pittsburgh Steel Casting company of Pittsburg, is erecting a new 20-ton open-hearth steel furnace, which is now under construction.

The 23-inch and blooming mills of the Pottsville Iron and Steel company, of the millville, resumed operations Sept. 2 after a long idleness. The resumption gave employment to 200 hands.

Work on the new plant of the Franklin Steel Casting company, at Franklin, is progressing rapidly, and the projectors expect to have the works in operation before employment to 200 hands.

One of the two Keystone furnaces of the Reading Iron company, at Reading, went into blast Aug. 31. Forge and mill pig iron will be produced.

Annual capacity, 18,000 gross tons.

The new plant of the Hyde Park (Pa.) Iron and Steel company started up Sept. 5 with two sheet mills and a bar mill. The entire plant will be put in operation this week. A large number of men will be given employment when the plant begins running full.

The Standard Horse Nail company of New Brighton, manufacturers of hot forged horse nails, is erecting an addition to its plant. The company has greatly increased its capacity recently by the manufacture of hot forged horse nails, but notwithstanding this, it is shipping its product as fast as made.

Llewellyn Price, who recently put up such a plucky fight for recorder of Luzerne county, has been appointed to the foremanship of the Henry colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal company at Port Jervis. Mr. Price has been in the employ of the Lehigh Valley for the past nineteen years, and for the past ten years has been fire boss.

The Lehigh Valley employees who have been on strike at Cuxton yard are now "on the rack." All of the trainmen are being examined in the new rules, which the company issued some time ago. The engine house has been fitted up with desks and benches for the use of the men undergoing examination, a dozen or two being accommodated at one time.

Wilkes-Barre Record: The old Spring Brook colliery at Moosic, formerly operated by Messrs. Colburn & Co., has been recently leased by the Florence Coal company (Messrs. Whitener, Kemmerer & Co.). They have opened up the mine and cleaned the old workings, and have opened a new vein four feet thick, and in thickness. They are completely renovating the whole plant and are taking down the old breaker and will build new foundations for the new breaker, which will be of larger dimensions.

CAUTION

TO OUR PATRONS:

Washburn-Crosby Co. wish to assure their many patrons that they will this year hold to their usual custom of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new crop is fully cured. New wheat is now upon the market, and owing to the excessively dry weather many millers are of the opinion that it is already cured, and in proper condition for milling. Washburn-C
