Terribly Stricken-Fifty-One

D aths in Two Weeks.

San Francisco, Sept. 17.—Three vessels are at the quarantine station at Angel Island. They are the Pacific mail steamer City of Rio de Janeiro, the Honolulu Packet Steamship company's Allen and the British ship Marlongth from the cort of Plede Merioneth, from the port of Rio de Janeiro. The government authorities on the island are hard at work fumigating passengers, baggage, freight, ballast and vessels. The utmost pains are being taken to prevent the introduction of cholera from Honolulu or the Orient.

saki the cholera was prevailing, and in two weeks there had been 71 cases and 51 deaths. The steamer did not go to the dock at Nagasaki, but everything that she took on board was transferred to her by boat. In a similar manner she took goods that had come by steamer from Shanghai. At Nagasaki it was stated that no whites had taken the cholera. At Yokohama there was cholera, but, according to the captain, it was not in the city, but inland. In two weeks there had been 47 cases and 35 deaths.

The steamer took cargo at Yokohama, consisting of silks and curios. No whites had suffered with the cholera

On arriving at Honolulu, every precaution was taken. The steamer anchored in the outer harbor, and did not have any communication with the shore, except by boat. At the time the cholera was increasing. The statement, signed by Ellis Mills, the consul general, gives the number of cases as fiftyeight, and the number of deaths as eight, and the number of deaths as forty-four. The steamer did not use water from Honolulu, even for washing the decks. While in the outer harbor, the steerage was fumigated with sulphur. According to the statement of the City of Rio de Janeiro's surgeon, there was no essential to the control of the City of Rio de Janeiro's surgeon.

When Broome county won, the delegates lost all ambition to break the state, and the old state ticket of 1893 was nominated by acclamation on a single ballot. The platform, with the excise plank omitted was adopted, and an amendment in favor of the main-tenance of the Sunday laws offered by Warner Miller, was tacked on. Strong efforts were made for liberal resolu-tions on excise and home rule, but they were defeated, and the convention went to the other extreme and placed the party on record as favoring the enforcement of Sunday laws in the interest of labor and morality.

The Chairman's Address The convention was called to order at 12:30 by Chairman Hackett. James S. Sherman, of Oneida, was made temporary chairman and made a short speech, in the course of which he said: The efforts of Republican officials to enforce the excise laws, enacted by Democratic mandate as a means only of machine discipline, call forth vehement denunciation by Democratic leaders and press by whom anarchistic defiance is advised.

The cry reaches us from Elmira, couched in the misleading title of "Personal Liberty." Stripped of its pretentious dress, it means violation of laws. Its logical conclusion is dangerous and revolting. The Republican party believe that laws are made to be enforced, not violated. Senator Hill attempts by the false issue he raises to turn attention from the record Democracy has made in national affairs. While we court discussion of state issues, we shall insist that national affairs be not altogether ignored in this campaign.

Whether on state or national issues, whether in the strife between law and its violation, or between American industry and foreign production, the state of New York must stand with the Republican party, stand back of Governor Morton as he executes the laws: back of Thomas B. Reed and the Republican majority he will lead in the next congress.

At 3.55 neither committee on resolu-tions or credentials being ready to report the impatient audience called for Chauncey Depew. He responded very promptly and taking the platform soon set his audience in a roar. He said that he was apparently called in to fill the gap between temporary and permanent went organization, and that when the lat-ter go ready for business oratory would have to give way. He complimented Congressman Sherman on his speech. He said the difference between Am-Republicans and Democrats is that Republicar whow how to point out mis-takes w. a out of power, and how to remedy !!. .a when in power; that while Democrats know how to find out their own mistakes when out of power and how to make more when in power. At 4.23 the convention was again called to order, and in response to loud calls, Fassett took the platform and said in part: I am glad to be here. I was determined to be here. I am here as a Republican and one who bekeves in home rule. The last time I spoke in this hall. I moved to make the action of the convention unanimous. I am always ready to help make the action of the Republican party unanimous. I did not think much of coming here this year, until I was told I was not to come. Then I became quite anxious to be here.

Lexow for permanent chairman.
At 4.45 Senator Lexow addressed the convention. When he concluded the report of the committee on resolutions was called for and Speaker Hamilton Fish handed up the platform. It contained no excise plank. The vote on omitting the plank was 21 to 7.

The Platform. Following is the platform:

Following is the platform:

We reaffirm our adherence to the American policy of protection and we demand such legislation as will afford an adequate income for the maintenance of the government while giving encouragement to American capital and remunerative wages to American labor.

We denounce the Wilson tariff with its injuitous income tax attachment (happily declared unconstitutional by the supreme court of the United States) as the first step accomplished in the campaign for the annihilation of American industries begun by Grover Cleveland in December, 1887. This measure is neither a tariff for protection nor a tariff for revenue, but a tariff for deficit, falling by scores of millions a year to raise the amount of revenue necessary for the expenses of our national government.

We denounce the Democratic administration for its gross mismanagement of the finances of the nation. It already has added more than 185,000,000 to the national debt and the burdens of the peole, and there is every evidence that this increase is to be continued.

We denounce the Democratic administration for its gross mismanagement of the finances of the poole, and there is every evidence that this increase is to be continued.

there is every evidence that this increase is to be continued.

We denounce the Democratic administration for its false and misleading statements of the public expenditures and for its failure to promptly pay the nation's honest debts, that it may be able to present a delusive statement of the treasury's actual condition.

We welcome the dawn of returning prosperity following the Republican victories of 1894—those victories giving assurance that the Democratic party has been rendered powerless to work further destruction to American industries and that the duty of repairing Democratic incomes upon them will be prosecuted with untiring vigor. And we denounce the attempts of the Democratic administration newspaper organs to mislead and befog the public in regard to the real character and extent of recent restorations of wages. With a complete return of the Republican party to power, and the enactment of such remerical legislation as the conditions plainly require, we confidently look for a premewal of the prosperity that marked the quarter-century of its government of the country.

In behalf of American citizens in other countries, who are entitled to the most watchful and unyielding defence and protection in all emergencies, we denounce the infamous policy of the federal administration, which has made the Stars and Strips the emblem of supine neglect and wretched incapacity. In the broader field of our relations with foreign powers, where American deetrine should have been the supreme guide and inspiration, the administration, by yielding established rights, truckling to foreign influence and the wholesale sacrifice of American prestige and national dignity, has furnished an unmatched spectacle of federal disgrace and imbecility.

We believe that the nation's honor as well as the material interests of our citizens demand the maintenance of a national currency, every dollar of which, whether in gold, silver or paper notes, shall be of equal value and equal debt paying or purchasing power, and we declare our unalterable opposition to the free and unlimited coinage of silver. Any inflation of the currency of the country by degrading the standard of value to the silver basis is distinctly repudiated.

Arrangements Are All Made for the Formal Opening Ceremonies-The Button Will Be Touched at Gray Gables.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 17.—Tomorrow is the day appointed for the formal open-ing of the most important and pro-gressive exposition ever held in the south. For two years the work of preparation has gone on unceasingly, and most of the thousands of exhibits are in place and ready for inspection. All the buildings will be opened tomor-row, although a few of them are still uncompleted, and may not be entirely finished before Oct. 1.

The fair, as a whole, while, of course, on a smaller scale than the World's Columbian exposition at Chicago, pre-sents an almost equally pleasing ap-pearance, owing to the topography of the grounds, which are naturally at-tractive, and have been most tastefully laid out. The lagoon is particularly beautiful. All incoming trains are crowded with visitors. A great in-flux of notables is looked for on Sunday and Monday with the arrivals from Chattanooga of the governors of the various states and their staffs, who are now attending the celebration there.

The ceremonies of the formal opening tomorrow are quite elaborate. buildings in the city, particularly along the route of the paradae, are elaborately decorated. At the park considerable speech making will be the order of the day, at the conclusion of which the great wheels will begin to turn in re-sponse to the electric touch to be given at Gray Gables, and the exposition will be declared formally open by President Charles F. Collier.

Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—A special to the Evening Telegraph from Harrisburg says:

The alleged intention is to have him placed on the state ticket by nomination papers and then endeavor to throw tion papers and then endeavor to throw vote for but one candidate for judge (each voter being entitled to vote for six candidates.) It is argued that the friends of the other Democratic candidates will endeavor to work this scheme of voting for but one candidate in their respective districts, and that Judge McCarthy will have as good a chance as any of them. Besides, he would get a good many Republican votes in Philadelphia, which has no candidate for that office, the city having been turned down in the Williamsport convention. The Pennsylvania Dem-ocracy faction is said to be at the bot-tom of the movement and it is probable their intentions and explicit pro-
