

WILKES-BARRE TAKES ONE

First Game in the Cup Series Lost by Scranton.

COAKLEY WAS INVINCIBLE

Struck Out Six Men and Permitted Only Six Hits and Three Bases on Balls.

Now There is Jubilation Down the Valley.

Wilkes-Barre.....11 Scranton.....1

If the Baltimore Orioles played in Scranton uniforms against Wilkes-Barre, would Scranton win? It is a question that people are asking.

Wilkes-Barre won chiefly through the "99" pitching of Coakley. He locked his small flock of curves in his trunk before going out to the game.

Coakley began to work. The three Wilkes-Barre runs in the first inning did not shake the confidence of Scranton's new team.

Coakley kept his speed with him until the end, striking out three more batters and sending only three on walks to first.

Barnett was well supported, except in the seventh, when three errors, following Charley Smith's single, let in a run.

Notwithstanding the lopsided score the game was not without interest. Scranton had a runner on the bases in each inning, the sixth and eighth excepted.

Pat Meaney distinguished himself by a great running catch, but the real fielding honors of the game went to McMahon and Bonner.

Some spirited playing. Notwithstanding the lopsided score the game was not without interest.

Following is the score: SCRANTON. A. B. R. H. O. A. E.

W. Eagan, 2b.....3 0 1 2 4 0 0

Meany, 1b.....3 0 1 2 4 0 0

P. Eagan, 3b.....4 0 2 3 0 0 0

Schreyer, 4b.....4 0 2 3 0 0 0

Billy Madison and the Utica Kid Fought Last Night at Greenwood.

MADISON WAS KNOCKED OUT

Contest Was to Have Been Between Dick Hicks and Defeated Candidate, but Between Short Puffs from Sweet Caporal Kid Was Substituted.

For several days past a quiet tip had been going the rounds among the sporting fraternity that "Billy" Madison and "Dick" Hicks, two well-known young men, were to meet.

Word was sent around to all who had tickets that the "debate" was "pulled off" in Mrs. Edwards' parlors.

Mr. Hicks' delay in arriving was causing much worry and unrest among the assembled expectants.
