Atlanta's Great Show Is Now in Running Order.

THE CITY ALIVE WITH VISITORS

After Imposing Parades and Speeches of Welcome, President Cleveland Touches the Button at Gray Gables and Starts the Machinery.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 18 .- Atlanta is alive with people. Strangers have been coming in for two weeks to be present at today's exercises, but they were as nothing, in numbers, compared to the thousands who arrived last night and this morning. The city is profusely decorated with bunting and the national colors. The crowds are good-natured, and, as in old carnival times. everything goes.

today, was the most imposing procersion ever soon in the sourh. Several thousand Grand Army members came down from Chickamanga and were conspictions on the streets. They re-ceived marked attention from the citi-zens, One of these Lieutenant Frank-lin Berry, brought down from Massachusetts the identical flag which waved from Kennesaw to Allatoona, the famous signal on which was written the mous signal on which was written the song: "Jiold the fort, for I am coming." The Bentenant went upon Kennesaw mountain today, and about the time the exposition was formally pronounced open, waved the same signal which he had received thirty-one years ago from General Sherman and waved to General Corse.

Durant's Startling Appearance. Durant's appearance was so startling hat King ran to a drug store a block and a half distant, at his suggestion, to get him some brome seltzer, and hasiened back with it. King was in doubt as to whether Durant, on his return, was standing in the vestibule at the church entrance, or lying on a plat-form in the Sunday school room in the rear. As he remembered it, Durant was lying on the platform. Upon first entering the church King had detected the order of escaping gas, the only ling in his testimony favorable to burant, and this ied him to enter the closet used for a library, where the body of Minnie Williams was after fived here with 1,000 soldiers and 37 officers from Tetuan, Morocco, The troops were given a splendid reception by the clitzens of Havana.
