Cunningham was also charged with stealing a watch, but as the prosecutors could not say that the crime was committed in Luzerne county and also the fact that the locality was very near the Carbon county line, the court ordered that the prisoner be found not guilty of that charge, which was done. Attorneys McCiuigan and Smith represented the defendant.

FIRST DEGREE.

The Verdict Rendered Against Abram

Eckert—The Prisoner Unmoved.

At 2.15 yesterday afternoon the jury in the case of Abram Eckert came into the court room and took their seats amid considerable excitement. Court Clerk Lynch called off the names of the jury, to which all responded, after which the foreman handed the sealed verdict to Judge Woodward. The judge type onen the envelope, and after who subserbed to support the tore open the envelope, and after glancing at the verdict, handed it to Clerk Lynch, who read that the jury had found the prisoner guilty of mur-der in the first degree for the killing of Frederick T. Bittenbender, as charged in the indictment.

The attorneys for the defense then requested that the jury be polled, which was done, and each of the twelve re-sponded, when his name was called, 'Gulky of murder in the first degree.' This result caused some excitement, although the prisoner became the cenattough the prisoner became the cen-ter of attention. He seemed unmoved and betrayed no sign of being upset by the verdict that will cost him his life. When asked what he thought of the verdict, Eckert said: "I don't know what to think or do," and beyond a slight tremor in his voice, he appeared calm and collected. Attor-ney O'Neill, one of his counsel, went up to Eckert and, shaking hands with him, said: "Well, the worst has come, but we will apply at once for a new trial." Eckert thanked him and said he hoped ils attorneys would do everything in their power for him. He was assured that they would do so and maintained his calm demeanor until he was taken his caim demeanor until the wall be sen-back to jail. He will probably be sen-tenced on Saturday and the reasons for the new trial will be filed today. The jury was out nearly forty hours, but they declined to say why they had not sooner reached a verdict, when the evidence seemed so clear against the defendant. Before leaving the jury room the jurors agreed among the selves not to give out any particulars as to the deliberations, and it was impossible to discover who had been holding out.

THE CUT-OFF MURDER.

The Colored Murderers Are Being Tried for the Mountain Outrage.

Immediately after the Eckert jury had been discharged yesterday, the case of James Miller, Sarah Miller, John Bird, Hester Brace and Nelson Brace, all colored, charged with murder in blowing up a Hungarian shanty on the mountain with dynamite in which several people were killed and numerous others maimed, was called for trial in court room No. 1, before Judge Woodward.

A peculiar feature of the case is that two more of the accused, Frank Shafer and George Jordan, also colored, have turned state's evidence and will testify against the others. Shafer admitted that he was the one who pulled the battery which exploded the dynamite, but says the others arranged the plot and laid the wires.

The case promises to be a very interesting one, as the lives of two women are at stake, who, if found guilty in

Dress Goods Department

present one easily bears the palm. Of course, with every turn of fashion's wheel we expect improvements, but this season we appear to have more than the usual proportion; we have been furnished with more than we could rightfully demand or ex-

We placed our orders early, before the advance in prices took place, and are, consequently, able to offer a wealth of the best things in Dress Goods and Silks at prices which tell their own story of careful and early buying.

Black Goods

Mostly Priestly's Goods, and worthier weaves never found room on a retailer's counter. They are selected with an eye to quality, to style, to generous width and extra value.

Novelty Dress Goods

We have a remarkable collection of both foreign and domestic novelties. We won't tire you out with a long string of French names that wouldn't make you any wiser after you had read them, a they must be seen to be appreciated.

If you are an admirer of beauty in a fabric you can't afford to miss our Silk Department. W won't go into arguments or explanations, but come and see the goods. All are welcome, whether to look or buy.
