MEETINGS ATTENDED.

Large Crowds Gather to Hear Mr. Schiviera the Evangelist.

The tent in which Evangelist Schiviera preaches each night at the head of Garfield avenue is thronged by crowds of people. The eloquent sermons preached at the work being done in the city thus far is very great, and the people show how they are interested when the evangelist comes each evening. Not only do people from our own city attend, but many from Mayfield, Jersey and Forest City are also seen, they being nearly as anxious to hear as the Carbondale people. Thursday night's meeting was probably the largest in attendance of any yet held. There must have been 1,500 present, as all the available room was occupied.

Each meeting is opened with song service, and the will with which the congregation join in the well-known hymns shows the great interest of those present. Today there will be Bible readings held in the Baptist church at 2:30 o'clock. On Saturday the meeting will be for men only. A series of mothers' meetings will be held, on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. At 4 o'clock a service for the young ladies will take place. If the pastors of the different churches are willing a service will be held Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. This service will be over in time for regular church services. During the service Thursday evening Mr. Wainwright sang a hymn that had never been sung before. It was called "Looking This Way."

Yesterday during the noon hour a meeting was held at the Delaware and Hudson locomotive works. It was largely attended and thought to be very successful by Mr. Schiviera. The other shops of the city will be visited and similar meetings held. At tonight's meeting, men, special music by a double quartette will be sung.

RESOLUTION SIGNED.

Mayor Hendrick Affixes His Signature to the Sewer Document.

The resolution providing for the extension of the main sewer has been signed by Mayor Hendrick. The resolution provides for the extension according to the plans on file at the office of City Engineer Frick. This resolution has caused a great deal of discussion and debate in the councils, and the extension had to be made, as it is at present a great nuisance, and the odor arising from it is unhealthy and unpleasant. The Delaware and Hudson locomotive works, which is the largest of the city will be visited and similar meetings held. At tonight's meeting, men, special music by a double quartette will be sung.

THE REPUBLICAN CLUB.

New Officers Elected at the Meeting at Assembly Hall.

A meeting of the Republican club of this city was held Thursday evening at Assembly hall. The meeting was not very large, but this was made up in the enthusiasm of the members. This meeting is the opening of the campaign in this city, and the signs at present of a hard battle in November, although only a few weeks remain to be elected. The reorganization of the Republican club was under the best of auspices. It was determined at the meeting to have some well-known speakers address the club in the near future to put some life in the Republicans of the city and prepare them for the coming fight. In the absence of President Hummel, the president Van Gorder occupied the chair. The following new officers were elected: President, F. F. Swartz; vice-president, G. B. Van Gorder; secretary, Arthur Locke; treasurer, C. N. Bronson.

TENNIS TODAY.

The Carbondale Tennis Club Hold Their Club Tournament.

The annual handicap tournament of the Carbondale Tennis club will be played at the grounds at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, the games to be started as soon as possible after the arrival of the 1:30 train. The tournament is always of great interest, as each member of the club is expected to enter. The prize this year will be a handsome silver match safe, and each player has an equal chance of winning, as the handicaps are made so that the opportunity for winning is the same. Those of the club who have entered are N. L. Moon, H. Torrence, Jr., Charles Orsham, M. D. Lathrop, D. L. Crane, Louis Abbott, Frank Couch, Albert Crane, Albert Rutherford, S. Rettew, F. E. Burr, W. A. Manville and J. Reese.

MATERIALS ORDERED.

and Work on Spring Street Is to be Pushed at Once.

The great trouble of getting the resolution for the improvements on Spring street passed and the subsequent mistake in awarding the contract began to make the people who had petitioned for the improvement feel that it would now be too late to do the work. Their fears may rest, however, as the improvement will be completed this fall. Contractor John Booth, to whom the job was finally awarded, was up the line arranging for the materials necessary, and he expects them at once. They will probably be here by the latter part of next week and as soon as they arrive a large force of men will be put to work and the job pushed to completion as soon as possible.

HILL IMPROVEMENTS.

Work Which Was Much Needed Is Being Done on Dickson Hill.

Yesterday morning Street Foreman Killen, with a large force of men, went to work making improvements on Dickson Hill. This hill, which extends from the upper end of Spring street, is very steep and much trouble has been experienced by teamsters and people who have occasion to use the road to reach the top.

safely. As if the steepness was not enough in itself, the condition of the roads is something nearly as bad.

Time and again complaints were made to the council, but nothing was done till recently, when a resolution providing for the work was passed. The change will be very great when the work is finished, and the people can congratulate themselves after their long wait. The improvement will be greatly appreciated by the residents.

IN THE CELLAR.

An Angry Husband Finds a Forbidden Cater.

Another case held before Alderman Jones Thursday proved to be very interesting. Savario Ambrose was the person who was arrested. He resides on Belmont street, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Cattarina, lives in Eberle alley. Ambrose has been very attentive to Mrs. Cattarina and was a frequent visitor. Mr. Cattarina became jealous of the oft repeated calls, and forbade Ambrose to enter the home. On Thursday night Mrs. Cattarina reached home, the unwelcome visitor was found. The woman shouted for him to go to the cellar and hide, and he did so. The angry husband, pursuing the intruder, who returned the fire, mortally wounding Switzer. The young man lodged in jail answers the description given, and, it is said, has a charge of shot in his leg. There seem to be some strange things about the matter, however. People who attended the fair yesterday from the vicinity of Washington, D. C., who have been spending some time at his old home here, will go to Scranton today, and from there back to his duties in the position of department.

AN INTERESTING CASE.

Sub-Contractor Sues the Contractor Before Alderman Jones.

Thursday evening a case that attracted a great deal of attention was tried before Alderman Jones. The parties in the case are William Cox, contractor, and Contractor Schroeder of Scranton, defendant. Schroeder received the contract for erecting a portion of the Klotz Bros' silk mill, and Cox, who has a quarry near the city. A dispute arose as to whether the stone for the foundation of several pillars should be of the best quality or not. Mr. Schroeder accordingly ordered several carloads of the stone which he said was named in the specification and the cost, $225, taken from Cox's contract price. Mr. Cox is now suing to recover this.

Cut an Artery.

While at his work, Car Repairer Thomas Loughney, of Patrick street, was struck with a painful accident, which will keep him from pursuing his duties for some time. Loughney was repairing an empty gravely car when he was using a hatchet to remove a blow from the hatchet missed and almost struck his left hand and cut a deep gash in it. It bled profusely and it was found that an artery had been severed. Dr. J. S. Niles was called to dress the wound and it was found that four stitches were necessary to close it.

Israel Dickinson was arrested on the fair grounds yesterday by Sheriff Knapp in response to a message received by the latter saying that a person of his description had shot and mortally wounded William Switzer, of Northumberland township. The affair, as rumored upon the streets and by the best information obtainable, was as follows: Switzer is a well-to-do man, who formerly lived in Kingston, but a few years since came up and bought a farm in Northumberland township, this county, where he has since resided. Thursday night he was awakened by hearing someone prowling around outside the house, trying to get in. He fired his shotgun and apparently wounded the intruder, who returned the fire, mortally wounding Switzer.

The young man lodged in jail answers the description given, and, it is said, has a charge of shot in his leg. There seem to be some strange things about the matter, however. People who attended the fair yesterday from the vicinity of Washington, D. C., who have been spending some time at his old home here, will go to Scranton today, and from there back to his duties in the position of department.

Under the circumstances, it seems unlikely that he would engage in any such deprecations as he is charged with. He will have a hearing as soon as witnesses can be summoned, when further developments may be expected. The personal property of C. C. De Remer, of Eaton township, will be sold at auction in this vicinity.

It is probable that never since the institution of the Wyoming county fair in 1876 was it visited by more people than yesterday, and certainly in many respects. The display of vegetables and live stock was creditable to the farmers of the county and enjoyable to the visitors. Prices were offered to the growers making the best exhibits and West Nicholson, Keeseville and Tunkhannock competed. The prizes were awarded to the growers in the order above named, and the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd, 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th, 60th, 61st, 62nd, 63rd, 64th, 65th, 66th, 67th, 68th, 69th, 70th, 71st, 72nd, 73rd, 74th, 75th, 76th, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, 91st, 92nd, 93rd, 94th, 95th, 96th, 97th, 98th, 99th, 100th.
