FOOT BALL DATES.

Schedule of Games for the Scranton Bi evelo Club Eleven. The Scranton Bicycle club has al-ready arranged for ten games for its foot ball eleven between Sept. 28 and Dec. 7. Of these games only three will be away from home. Following is the schedule to date: Sept. 28, Stroudsburg Normal school, at Scranton.

Oct. 2. Elmira Athletic club, at Elmira.
Oct. 2. Elmira Athletic club, at Elmira.
Oct. 19. Bhamokin at Shamokin.
Oct. 19. Colgate university, at Scranton.
Oct. 26. Colgate university, at Scranton.
Oct. 26. Wilkes-Barre, at Wilkes-Barre,
Nov. 2. Temperance Athletic club, of louth Bethlehem, at Scranton.
Nov. 6. Elmira Athletic club, at Scranton.

Nov. 9. Wilkes-Barre, at Scranton.
Nov. 25. Shamokin at Scranton.
It is quite probable that games with
Wyoming seminary will be played Oct.
2 and Nov. 16 and 25. The foot ball committee is also in correspondence with the athletic officers at Lehigh, Lafayette and Carlisle, and the dates for games with these colleges will undoubtedly be filled.

The final selection of the permanent players out of the score of players now practicing almost daily will rest with Captain Walsh and the coaches, who have not yet intimated the make-up of the eleven. The men will practice at the Base Ball park at 4 p. m. today. One of the new candidates for a position is O'Malley, of Mahanoy City.

The prospects for a strong foot ball eleven in Carbondale are very bright. That city has followed Scranton's example, and in order to compete with the heavy teams being organized throughout the valley the foot ball enthusiasts have engaged Patrick Brennan to captain and manage the team. He knows his business, is a good player and is said to be an ideal captain. He will probably play behind the line or on the end. The other members of the team will be such well-known players as Hansen, Loftus, Crane, Jadwin, Coogan, Murrin, Lathrop, Singer, Collins and others. lins and others.

Another Quoit Match. There will be a game of quoits at the Union hotel. Pine Brook. Monday, between Wilkam Martindale, of Pine Brook, and William Atckins, of the West Side, for $50 a side, ten yards distance, two-inch pins, pins in center of clay, quoits five-pound weight, game to start at 2 o'clock sharp.

Philadelphia vs. England. Philadelphia, Sept. 20.—The first day's plays of the international cricket match resulted as follows: Philadelphia, first inning, 23; Cambridge-Oxford, first inning, 80 with the loss of two wickets. Play will be continued tomorrow.

Dropped the Game Through Carelessness in the First Inning.

Orange, N. J., Sept. 20.—The Orange Athletic club defeated the Scranton Eastern League team today on the Orange Oval. "Midget" Murphy, of the New Yorks, played third base for Orange.
The Scrantons thought they were playing "hayseeders" and lost the game by careless playing in the first inning. Thereafter it was a close contest. Score:

DIAMOND DUST.

Shearon, the Buffalo outfielder, has been bought by Cleveland. Manager and Owner Jack Chapma wants to sell the Toronto franchise. Bert Inks, the Louisville south-paw twirler, may be signed by the Phillies. Washington's right to play Shortstop Demont, late of the Torontos, is ques-tioned by Owner Jack Chapman, and he and Young and Powers are having a three-cornered correspondence on the sub-ject.

McMahon has worn the skin off the in-dex finger of his right hand, and the sore is giving him much trouble. It is so pain-ful that he distless to irritate it by prac-tice work, and although he is always ready to pitch a game, the fact that he has not practiced much accounts, no doubt, for his wildness, doubt, for his wildness.

The Cleveland press is denouncing the methods of Frank De Haas Robson in compelling the Cleveland team to play exhibition games on off days instead of giving the boys a chance to rest. Had the Spiders been treated differently, the critics say, the team's chances for winning the pennant would have been much brighter.

The Cleveland papers don't do a thing to Baltimore. Here's just a l'ittle shot from a Cleveland exchange; "Base ball games in Baltimore are attended by hundreds of ladies, some of them of the best families in that city being represented at nearly every game. This may sound queer, in view of the fact that the Orioles are the worst rowdies on the American ball field."
