THE DYNAMITE MURDER.

Important Testimony Given on Saturday.

Probable Ending of the First Case. Considerable progress was made on Saturday in the trial of Nelson Miller, Saturday in the trial of veision amer-the first of the seven negroes charged with the horrible crime of blowing up a Hungarian boarding house on the Wilkes-Barre mountain. Shafer, one of the "squealers," was on the stand near-ly all day. He gave additional details of the crime, and was corroborated as to some of the most important points of his evidence by more reputable wit-of his evidence by more reputable wit-nesses. The tin trunk in which one of the Hungarians had his momey was fully identified. It was found in the possession of one of the accused negroes at the time of his arrest. Shafer and Jordan, the two negroes who have turned state's evidence, could have no reasonable motive in telling the story they do if it were not true. Their con-fessions were made voluntarily and without guarantees of immunity, alwithout guarantees of immunity, al-though they doubtless expected to save their own necks by putting the rope around those of their fellow criminals. Court adjourned on Saturday after-noon at 1 o'clock and the trial will be noon at 1 oclock and the trial will be resumed this morning. It is expected that the case will go to the jury before tomorrow evening, and judging from the nature of the evidence a speedily rendered verdict of murder in the first degree is very generally anticipated A more revolting crime than that for which these seven negroes-five men and two women—are to be tried, has never been perpetrated in this county. Had all the dynamite placed under the Hungarian boarding house exploded there is not much doubt that from forty to fifty lives would have been lost. As It was four of the inmates were killed and a number very severely injured. If the remaining six prisoners are all tried separately the cases will probably not all be disposed of in less than two weeks. The prisoners are Virginia negroes who were brought into this section to labor in the construction of the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern railroad. and remained here after the comple-

Surprise of His Friends-Supposed to Have Fallen a Victim to Gambling.

Nothing new has developed concerning the defalcation and absconding of Frank Kelley, and so far as the public know there is no clue to his where-abouts. His shortage as financial secretary of the Wilkes-Barre ball club is nearly $1,000. Kelley has been in the employ of the Leader for eleven years, and, until recently, has been very attentive to his duties. His shortage of base ball club funds was discovered on Wednesday, and the same day he disappeared and has not been heard from to this time. Inquiry and investigation have developed the fact that Kelley has been gambling, and the missing money has doubtless found its way into the pockets of some of the professionals who infect this town, and fleece just such young men as Frank Kelley. It is gratifying to know that there are some among those interested in this case with sufficient nerve to proceed against the parties who maintain the gambling den where young Kelley lost his own money as well as the funds entrusted to him by his employer and the base ball club. There is a great deal of sympathy expressed for the appy young man, for no one knows Frank Kelley doubts that he is suffering the most intense anguish at this moment wherever he may be. Still sympathy is extended to his respected and honorable parents, who crushed by the disgrace brought upon himself and them.

county anditors, is unconstitutional in that it is special legislation, apply-ing only to Luzerne and Schuylkill counties. This entire proceeding is remarkable and extraordinary, so far is the commissioners are concerned. Surely it is not for them to pass upon the question of the constitutionality of an act of assembly, nor to ignore an officer created by the law-making offleer created by the law-making branch of the state government. The act creating the office of county con-troller may be unconstitutional, but, surely, it is not for the county com-missioners to assume that such is the case before the courts have passed upon it. The truth is that the unscent upon it. The truth is that the present board of county commissioners dread to have the controller pass upon their bills and accounts. They had a taste of that kind of scrutiny during the brief period Abednigo Reese was controller, and they want no more of it. It is hoped the court will hasten a decision in this case.

A Crowded Jail.

H. B. Skadden, a state sanitary official, has been making an inspection of the Luzerne county jail, and while reporting the management of Warden Boland as in every way commendable, he calls attention to the over-crowded condition of the institution. The jail is intended to hold about 104 prisoners, but at the present time it contains for a targer fail than there is for a more commodious court house in Laboratory zerne county. Inspector Skadden says that the present crowded condition of the jail not only adds greatly to the liscomfort of the prisoners but makes impossible such sanitary conditions as should be observed. As there is little probability that the number of prisoners will ever again be materially than at this time the question of erectng an addition to the jail will have to be met in the near future.

Dispose of the Murderers.

With a score of prisoners in the county jail awaiting trial for murder. and the number added from time to time being greater than those disposed time being greater than those disposed of, it has been suggested that it would be wise for the three judges to hold a special term devoted entirely to the trial of these cases. As a county offi-cial remarked the other day: "We ought to catch up for once. All those charged with capital crime should be tried as speedily as possible to make room for a new lot." Perhaps if this were done and all those convicted of murder in the first degree were exemurder in the first degree were exe-cuted on the same day the effect might to check the tide of murder that has been sweeping through this county during the past few years. At all events the number of untried murderers in the Luzerne jail is constantly on the increase, and these cases should be more rapidly disposed of than they are.

BRIEF NOTES.

The Washington monument committee held a meeting on Saturday even-ing and decided that the statue be placed in the court house square, some-where near the entrance, facing West Market street. The model is now on exhibition. A meeting of the board of prison com-missioners was held Saturday. Bids for repairs and improvements on the jail were received but will not be acted upon until the October meeting. The teachers of the city schools held are institute on Saturday when subexhibition. an institute on Saturday, when sub-jects of interest to the schools were dis-cussed. Miss Sergeant, of New York, talked on the Prang system of draw-ing. Superintendent Coughlin also ad-dressed the teachers as to their duties.

Aged Kansas Man Stabbed to Death by

His Neighbor, Wichlta, Kan., Sept. 22.—Jim Hazen and Zeno Malvane, Ilving on adjoining farms near Norwich, about twenty-five miles southwest of this city, became involved in a desperate quarrel, and in the hand to hand fight that ensued Hazen plunged a knife into his assailant's heart, killing him instantly. The immediate cause of the trouble was the trespass of a colt on a field of cane. The men however, had been bli-ter enemies since five years ago, when Hazen had sought the hand of the dead man's daughter in marriage, and the father refused his consent.

A NEGRO BOILED TO DEATH.

llis Head Came Into Contact with a Boiler.

Ocean City, Old., Sept. 22.-Enoch Wilson, colored, fell from a flying horse here. His head struck the blow-off cock, knocking it from the boiler and cracking dis skull. He was literally boiled to death by the escaping steam before he was pleked up.

NO WAR IN THE CAMP.

The Republicans of Luzerne Are Harmonious and Hopeful.

Some of the Democratic papers of this county are endeavoring to create the impression that there is war in the Republican camp, and that they have little expectation of electing their local ticket. There is literally no foundation whatever for such talk. number of aspirants for nominations in the late Republican convention were disappointed and they and their friends felt sore for a time, but this occurs every year, and will naturally continue occur hereafter. For weeks after the convention the Democratic organs represented that George Ferris and his friends would refuse to support Judge Bennett. This falsehood has been disposed of by the manly and dignified letter of Mr. Ferris, recently published, in which he announces his fealty to Judge Bennett and the entire Republican ticket. Now the same organs are asserting that Mr. Garrison, one of the unsuccessful aspirants for sheriff, will oppose Judge Bennett, and Mr. Martin. the nominee for sheriff. There is no more truth in this than there was in the Ferris story. Mr. Garrison and his supporters are thoroughbred Republicans, and will give the ticket of their party a loyal support. The Republicans of Luzerne are united and harmonious, and never felt more confiden of winning a complete victory at the polls than they do this year, and they never had a ticket more worthy of their support.

EX-SENATOR WILLIAMS.

He Returns to His Home from a Prolonged Sojourn in Wales.

Hon. Morgan B. Williams returned from his European tour on Saturday and is in excellent health and spirits. He was absent a little more than four onths, most of which time he spent in his native Wales, although he visited many points of interest in England and other parts of Europe. In an inter-view with a representative of the Leader Mr. Williams, speaking of the coal business in Wales, said that if he were twenty-five years younger he might be tempted to try the business of mining in Wales, as "coal nets from $2.50 to $3 per ton at the breaker there, and that great money will be made by the operators in Wales owing to the fact that London has been converted to the use of anthracite." He added that in the month of August 30,000 tons of coal was shiped from Cardiff to San Francisco, a fact which might be expected to attract the attention of Amer-ican coal producers. The friends of Mr. Williams will on Wednesday evening next tender him a reception and welcome home at Concor-dia hall and a joyous time is anticipated.
