present again. James Bird then came in and was put on the stand, and testified that he was born in Kentucky and is 19 years of age, worked on the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern, and then worked for Mr. Sayre. As to the night of the explosion, Bird said: "Well, I went to bed at 9.30. We were all home but Jim and Frank. They were at Miner's Mills. When they came home they were drunk and were making noise. Nelse Miller told them to make less noise or he would put them out.

The witness was going on to tell how Mr. Quigley hung him up by the neck to force a confession from him, but the defense objected to the witness testifying to be

Attorney McGovern said he wanted to show that this witness was hanged by the neck by the presecution to make the witness confess, and also their in-terest in the case by their filing a bill $5,000 with the county commissioners for the arrest and conviction of the prisoners. The reward is what the prosecution is working for. The mo-tion of the defendant's attorney was disallowed and the witness was not allowed to testify on the point regarding his hanging.

It will be remembered that Bird made an affidavit some months ago that "Tom" Quigley, of Miner's Mills, "Jim" O'Brien, a detective in the employe of the Lehigh Valley railroad, and Foreman Lanon, hung him to a tree near Laurel Run in order to make him tell who blew up the shanty. Bird, how-ever, refused to make any confession ever, refused to make any confession and a local paper subsequently brought him to this city, took him before Edward Gunster, a notary, before where he swore to the hanging. In his affildavit he says that he was pulled up twice, offered money and a suit of clothes if he would tell, but they failed to get anything in the way of a confession out of him.

Many were disappointed because Bird Many were disappointed because Bird was not allowed to testify regarding the hanging, and Attorney Fuller began the cross-examination. Bird made a good witness, answering all questions promptly and could not be puzzled and many of his answers were witty. He denied all knowledge of the $6 alleged to have been given him by Jordan, and his testimony could not be shaken.

to have been given him to be shaken.

Sarah Miller, wife of the accused, was then called, but if she knew anything of the explosion it could not be gotten from her. Hester Brace was examined with the same result.

James Miller, another of the accused, was an important witness, and caused a sensation by saying that Quigley and a gensation by saying that Quincy and James Lemahan had been posting Shaf-fer with books. He said he was told that in the jail. Attorney Lenahan be-came heated and demanded that the witness tell who it was told him. James Miller denied that he knew anything the case. He admitted that Shaffer and himself were at Quigley's place on Saturday night. They got a drink there and reached the car at 11 o'clock that night.

A Severe Beating. On South street, last Monday even og, near the Empire mine, Samuel retzman, aged 21 years, received a se vere beating from two amed Adam Massage and John Preducks, who charged him with stealing a keg of beer. The assailants were arrested and brought before the mayor yesterday morning, on a charge of assault and battery and interfering. Pretzman looked as if he had been roughly handled, as his face was badly bruised, one eye cut open and the back of his neck, arms and body severely bruised. Preducks and Massage were ialled until today, when witnesses will be present to testify against them. William Baltz acted as interpreter and his answers led the mayor to believe he was not telling the truth, so his honor placed him under $500 ball for perjury. in default of which he was committed

Trouble at Wyoming. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Hailroad company objected to the Traction company laying a cross-ing over its tracks at Wyoming on Monday, for the new branch up Eighth street, and ran three engines on the track at the crossing. The engines were there all night and the Traction tracklayers were waiting patiently for them to move. The engines cannot remain there forever and the Traction men intend to wait until they go, and then lay the

Injured His Wife.

On Monday night Edward McGee-han, of Laurel Run, while quarreling with his wife, took up a flat Iron and threw it at her. It struck her in the head and inflicted a bad wound, besides knocking her senseless. Dr. Lenahan was called and did what he could for Mrs. McGeehan, but her condition is still critical. McGeehan was arrested at his house yesterday morning, help-lessly drunk. He was taken before 'Squire James Moyles and committed to jail without ball to await the result of his wife's injuries.

BRIEF NOTES.

Thomas English, of this place, ex county commissioner and present alder man of the Sixth ward, and Miss Fan nie Webber, of Avoca, will be married at St. Mary's church, Avoca, at 10.30 o'clock this morning. Miss Bessie ber, a sister of the bride, will be brides-maid, and Alderman John Perkins, of Wilkes-Barre, will be groomsman. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Father M. F. Crane, pastor of St. Mary's church. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast will be served at the bride's home. The couple will leave on a wedding tour to New York, Philadelphia, Washington and Niagara Falls. Upon their return they will go to housekeeping in a beautiful and spacious new home on William street, recently erested by the groom. The bride is the daughter of William Webber, collector for the Spring Brook Water company, and she has a large circle of friends in this place who will be happy to learn that she is going to become a permanent resident here. The auditing committee of the select and common councils having approved of the Barber Asphalt company's first bill of part payment for paving, the company this morning commenced lay-ing the pave on the west side of Main street, and at 6 o'clock had finished from Butler to Water street. The mat-ter of having William street, between Main and Church streets, paved with asphalt is being agitated among the property holders on that street, and there is a strong likelihood of having it paved ere long. A number of people yesterday interested themselves in behalf of the six members of the "Westerner" company, who were left penniless here, and ar ranged for a benefit performance last evening to raise sufficient funds to enable them to reach their homes in Bos-ton. Music Hall could not be secured, so the entertainment was given at St. Aloysius' bull. Miss Sue Seymour, the leading soubrette of the company; Miss Swift, Messrs, Bratton Kennedy, David Davies and other members of the company rendered several pretty special-ties, and William Devany, M. E. Gol-den, James P. Quinnan, A. F. Walsh, William Gaughan, the Garden Village quartette, and other well-known local talent took part. The benefit was got-ten up on very short notice, but notwithstanding, a very good-sized audience was present, and a fair sum was realized for them.
