THE PREACHERS' MEETING.

FOR A NEW TRIAL.

Reasons Advanced Why Miller Should Be Tried Again.

E. F. McGovern, M. J. Mulhall, B. W. Frens, the attorneys for Nelse Miller, who was convicted of murder in the first degree last Friday, yesterday fled their reasons for a new trial for the convicted man. The reasons given were as follows:

First—The court erred in admitting the testimony of Paul Smith, one of the witnesses for the commonwealth, as to finding of the pocket book in the trunk, as the same was incompetent, there being no connection shown between the pocket book and the commission of the Second-The court erred in permitting the commonwealth to cross-exam-ine George Jordan, her own witness, especially so when the witness had declared that he refused to testify for the reason he was under indictment for the same offense and that the testimony he gave might be used against him.

Third—The court erred in refusing to allow John Bird, one of the defendants, to testify to the methods resorted to by Thomas F. Quigley, the presecutor, and James O'Brien, a detective, for the pur-pose of exterting a confession from said Bird.

Fourth—The court erred in rejecting the offer of defendant to prove by Frank Slattery the declarations made by Frank Shafer, the principal witness for the commonwealth and an accomplice in the commonwealth of the crime. plice in the commission of the crime. LIQUOR DEALERS' MEETING. Delegates to the Convention at Scrantor Today.

There was a large number of liquor dealers present at yesterday's meeting of the association held in Saengerbund hall. The object of the meeting was to half. The object of the meeting was to a feeling as to the necessity of a strong organization, and spirited addresses on the subject were made by Hon. Richard Patterson, of Philadelphia, and P. H. Nolan, national organizer, of Port Jervis, N. Y. The liquor dealers who were present agreed with the sentiments expressed by these gentlemen, and they will do their best to persuade their fellow liquor dealers who are not members of the association to join it at once. The officers of the local branch of the State Liquor league of Pennsylvania in this city are John H. Rice, president; Henry German, secretary; Harry Leim and J. W. Merhargue, vice-presidents. Samuel Moore, of Philadelphia, is the state secretary.

Before the meeting adjourned yester day they elected their delegates to the convention at Scranton today, as folconvention at Scranton today, as follows: J. W. Burns. Duryea: Nat Bacharach, Thomas J. Dalton, Henry Parkwitz, P. J. Boyle and Frank Coons, of Wilkes-Barre. The alternates are Nathan Datter, Harry Leim. Samuel Geisinger, Thomas Tighe, Hugh O'Boyle and Moses Wolf.

A BILL IN EQUITY.

Can Parents Be Compelled to Buy School Books Twice?

A bill in equity was yesterday filed by Frank W. Nefosky, of Kingston, to restrain the school board of that township from changing the text books now used in their schools. The bill sets forth that in 1894 the school board entered into a contract with C. E. Butler & Co. for their school books at a certain price the contract to last three years. They bought a large num-ber of books, but in the month of Auguet, 1895, they adopted what is known s the Werner series. This necessitates the laying aside of the Butler books, and the purchasing by the taxpayers of a different set of books, thus compelling the said taxpayers to buy books twice. The in

Caught a Wild Man. On Sunday night last David Cava-naugh, a fireman on the Lehigh Valley rallroad, was surprised to see a man run through the woods, near Penob-scot. The engineer stopped the train, and Mr. Cavanaugh gave chase and finally caught. finally caught him, after a run of half a mile. The man had nothing on but an old pair of trousers and one shoe. He was brought to this city and given over to the police, to whom he said that he was in the woods because men were after him to kill him. He said his name was Frank Vannoman and he lived in Scranton. The man's mind is affected from drink and he is nearly starved. He will have the best of care, and was so much better yesterday that the physicians think he will recover. A Creek Goes Down. On Sunday last about 169 feet of the dry bed of a creek at Plymouth caved into No. 4 Delsware and Hudson mine. Luckily, the creek was dry, or the mine would have been flooded. A trough is now being built to carry the water over the cave-in. The accident throws thirty miners and their labor-

So far as is known as yet, however, only two stores have yet, however, only two stores have missed any goods, Atherton & Co. and Judge & Co. Out of the former place only lead penells were taken, but out of the latter place some valuable silk was stolen. The women entered the place and after inquring about the prices of nearly all the goods in the dry goods department, departed without purchasing any goods. Immediately after their departure the clerk began replacing the articles in their proper out purchasing any goods. Immediately after their departure the clerk began replacing the articles in their proper position and discovered that some silk was missing. It was learned that the women boarded an up car, and search was made as to where they resided, and it was found they lived in Hyde Park. Their names could not be learned, but it was rumored that proceedings will be taken against them. The method used in stealing the articles was a very simple device. While one of the women attracted the attention of the clerk by talking, the other one walked about the store, and while doing this she undoubedly deposited the stolen goods under a long cloak which she wore.

FORECAST FOR OCTOBER.

Prof. Coles, the Famous Kingston Astronomer, Predicts Severe Storms.

The October forecast of storms and signs forwarded by Professor C. Coles. which I used, and after taking five signs forwarded by Professor C. Coles, of Kingston, is given below. The accuracy of the predictions of Professor Coles has made the astronomer celebrated as a weather prognosticator, and hoots of readers have ceased to question his prophecies, but accept them as being the most reliable of any published:

The planets this month are in a good position to give old mother earth a few surprises! The storms will run wild:

Cyclones, tornadors, rain, floods, haid, snow, wind gales, and seismic tremors, etc., will spread destruction in many parts of the world. You who sat in quiet homes last month while the storms were spreading devastation all account you may this month to the storms. around you may this menth feel hea wildly the storms sweep along as they roar! The Atlantic and Pacific coasts, the central valleys and northern takes, the southern and western states, the New Egaland states and Canada will recive great punishment. The old country will be visited by awful storms and strange earth disturbances; and the war flame will break out znew! Before ninety days the planets will be in about the same position as they were when Queen Victoria was born; and if we read the astrological omens correctly the glory of England will soon take its departure. During this month and next month there will probably be more murders, suicides and quarrels than at any other time during the year. Learn to govern your tempers, as they are fed by the planets, and every time certain planets make their appearance up goes your temper!

There will be three awe-inspiring sunset scenes this month and twice the heavens will be illuminated with flashlights terrible to behold. Last month nearly all the severe storms occurred upon the very date given in my forecast. This month there are so many opposing unknown planets, comets, sens of floating matter, etc., in the heavens that I cannot give the dates with any degree of certainty. But for these opposing obstacles the regular and reactionary storm periods would fall upon or about the following dates: 3, 7, 11, 14, 17, 21, 22, 27 and 30. Watch all reports of storms and phenomena at home and abroad and do not be so narrow minded as to expect all of the storms predicted to fall upon your own town or city. Be more liberal; look out upon the earth; study its immensity, and watch the heavens! Signs.

AVOCA.

The men and boys who are employed the Hillside Coal company have een very much dissatisfied for time past by the manner in which they are being treated by the above named company. They have been obliged to go to the mines every morning during the month of September, only to return home again after working a quarter of a day, and on very rare occasions worked a half a day. Yesterday morning the runners, drivers and door boys refused to go down into the shaft until a more satisfactory arrangement is made, in order that they may be more certain as to the amount of money they can earn before they leave home.
