BOARD CHOOSES OFFICERS.

The New Board of Trade Comes Into Ex istence in a Lively Manner.

The meeting of the reorganized board of trade for the election of officers took place at their rooms last evening, with place at their rooms last evening, with an excellent representation of the best of Wilkes-Barre's best business inter-ests present. On motion of Woodward Leavenworth, Isaac Long was made chairman and E. A. Niven secretary of the meeting. Mr. Long, in taking the chair, made a few well chosen remarks, in which he said that the board of trade had awkened to realize that the young had awakened to realize that the young blood must be pushed forward, and made to do the work. The older mem-hers are perfectly willing to step down and allow the offices and the work of booming the town to fall on younger sboulders, but at the same time the older members will still keep up their interest in the city's welfare and will help along wherever possible. Woodward Leavenworth then moved the election of Colonel Asher Miner as president of the board. The motion was carried unanimously, and Mr. Miner was chosen president by accla-phesidents: George S. Bennett E. H. Jones, T. H. Atherton and Andrew F. had awakened to realize that the young

THREATENED TO KILL.

Jail.

The Northampton street gang of negro toughs is shy one man this morning. They have been carrying things pretty high lately, but somehow or other, have always managed to escape arrest, with one or two exceptions. A few minutes after midnight yesterday a young colored man named Daley, with a companion, entered Paul Scheidet's saloon on Northampton street and called for drinks. Then Daley asked for a lunch and the bartender told him it was all gone. While they were talk-ing two white men came is and ordered drinks and lunch and bart bart. drinks and lunch, and got both. This made Daley mad, and he abused Scheld-el until the latter put him out on the street. He got furious at this treat-ment, and pleking up a cobblestone came back into the saleen with it in his head threatening to build Scheldel his hand, threatening to kill Scheidel. The latter seized him and called a powho took him to the lockup, hearing yesterday morning liceman. Daley denied the charge, but the mayor believed Scheidel's story and fined Daley $20 and costs. In default of which he was sent to fail.

A Little Slate Picker Is Ground to Pieces in the Breaker Machinery.

About noon yesterday John Tubois, e 16-year-old son of Michael Tubois, of Parsons, met with a most horrible death, while at work in the Baltimore No. 3 Delaware and Hudson breaker. With a number of companions he was playing tag and running about here and there over beams, etc., when he slipped and fell, landing on the revolvscreen near its mouth. He rolled and was ground between the end of the screen and the large timbers supporting its shaft, literally dragged supporting its shaft, literally dragged through the space two inches wide. Every bone in the boy's body was broken, and the body was badly man-gled. His playmates were horrified, and among them was the unfortunate boy's little brother. The remains were carried home.
