MR. RUDDY'S REASONS.

The Young Attorney Tells Why He Protested Quigley's Bill.

Attorney P. J. Ruddy, who has pro-tested the payment of the bill of Thom-as Quicley and James O'Brien for $6,000 for catching the murderers at the mountain cutoff, yesterday made his reasons public, as follows:

<text> returned. damage. True to his threat, Simcoe Gilmore, a miner, tried to prevent nim, and Simcoe made a vicious lunge at him with his knife. Gilmore threw up his hand to ward off the blow, and the sharp blade descended on the wrist, cutting it frightfully. Gilmore grappled with his assallant, but the latter broke away and, drawing his replored mercy. He was then secured by the men, and taken to the office, where he was de-tained until a warrant was secured, and he was taken to jail. Alderman Johnson made out the commitment, and at 5 o'clock yesterday morning Banta was also arrested and taken to jail. De kiewen oramined Simcoa and was also arrested and taken to jail. Dr. Kirwan examined Simcoe and found that his wound is painful, but not dangerous, and he will be around again in a short time. He is a bad man and will probably be severely punished for his attempt on Evans' life. A special party, guests of the Camp-bell's Ledge and Consumers' Water company, went to inspect the source of a water supply at Campbell's Ledge yesterday afternoon in a vestibule car on the Valley road. The party comprised Mayor F. M. Nichols, City Engineer W. V. Ingham, City Clerk Frank Deitrick, members of council, M. T. Flaherty, Morgan R. Morgans, Thomas M. McGourty, Hon. Morgan R. Williams, Hon. J. Ridgway Wright, Fred Reutlehuber, Luke French, Connellus M. Reilly. Members of the Campbell's Ledge Water com-pany were George H. Butler and J. J. Robbins, this city: L. K. Davis and Francis Stevens, of New York; civil en-gineers; B. H. Carpenter, W. O. Rob-erts, P. F. Lynch, W. D. White, M. F. Dougher, of the News-Dealer, and C. B. White, of the Times. The party were taken about a mile

WELSH REPUBLICANS.

They Are Prepared to Assist in a Very

Lively Campaign. On Wednesday night 159 Welsh Ré-publicans met in Shaeffer hall, on the Heights, and organized a Welsh Re-publican league. John R. Williams called the meeting to order and after making a few remarks relative to the object of the meeting, called for nomilast Monday night or Tuesday morning, the jewelry store of J. Herwitz & Co., 138 East Market street, being entered and relieved of a large quantity of its contents. They secured thirty-five dozen gold-filled rings, four dozen gold-filled chains, a large number of cuff buttons, collar buttons and bracelets and a load of pocket knives and razors. In fact, they cleaned out as many valu-able articles as they could well and able articles as they could well and conveniently carry. It is estimated by the firm that the value of the stolen goods ranges from $400 to $500.

The Town Improvement society has appointed a committee to look after the condition of the river common. Own Medicine. About midnight last Wednesday, John Simeoe, a Hungarian residing at Forty Fort, and William Banta, an Englishman of the same place, entered the fire room of the Harry E. colliery at Forty Fort and proceeded to start a quartel with the fireman, George Evans, who had had trouble with Sim-coe and as both Simcoe and Banta were Andrew Melster, a young brakeman on the Lehigh Valley Rallroad, was run over at Dallas on Wednesday and was badly crushed. DR. BOYLE'S CALL.

He Has Decided to Accept the Invitation of the Trenton Church.

Sometime ago the official board of the State Street Methodist Episcopal church, of Trenton, N. J., extended a unanimous call to Rev. Dr. J. Richards Berle Boyle, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, of this city. Dr. Boyle has had the call under consideration for some time, but he has now an-nounced his determination of accept-ing the call, and will leave Wilkes-Barre next April. Dr. Boyle has prob-ably served the largest term in one charge of any Methodist minister. Under the rules of the conference no min-ister can serve more than five years in any one charge. But Dr. Boyle was called here from the Park Avenue church. New York city, during the interval between conferences, serving the fragment of a year, five and a half months. Had he served six months it would have been counted a year under the regulations, and Dr. Boyle's term in Wilkes-Barre would have ended last spring. As it is, he enjoys the unique distinction of serving five and a half months beyond the regular term. Dr. Boyle says that he has never, during the term of his ministry, en-joyed more pleasant relations with his congregation than he has in Wilkes-Barre. He has been popular here with the people of all creeds, and has been an able preacher and a consciencious. pastor. The congregation will lose an excellent pastor, and the city a good citizen when Dr. Boyle leaves for Tren-

Anthony Floriella, a young Italian, come to Wilkes-Barre from Buffalo last July, and opened a grocery store at Batterton's block, on South Washington street. He got a great deal of credit all over town, and, after collectthe skipped for another town, and after collect-ing all the money he could on the bill, he skipped for another town, leaving behind some men who would like to see him very much. One creditor went to his store and carried off twenty-eight sacks of flour in payment for a bill of $24.

John Reakes Dead.

It will be remembered that John Reakes disappeared, some time ago rom his home in Nanticoke. Yesterdsy Poor Director Oplinger received a letter from the poor director of North-umberland stating that a man giving his name as John Reakes was in a boat which sunk at that place on Sunday last. He crept into an old barn where last. He crept into an old barn where he died Sunday night. He also stated that the body was in had condition and was buried there. A boatman gave the following story: The deceased boarded a defective boat known as the Caroline of Long Level, run by Roody Blouse; that he fell overboard and was nearly drowned at Stoneytown on Friday. He was rescued and rolled on a barrel. When the boat arrived at Northumber-land Sunday it sunk. and Sunday it sunk.

Entertaining the Conference.

The Pittsburg annual conference. The Pittsburg annual conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church will assemble next Thursday in Bethel church, Fell street. The dedication will take place on Wednesday, Oct. 9. Pastor Jeffries, with his corps of workmen, is rapidly completing arrange-ments for the dedication, also the re-ception and entertainment of the members of the conference and missionary socity.

The Body Recovered.

Vaclaw Kowski, the 9-year-old son of J. P. Kowski, of Nanticoke, was drowned last Wednesday, while play-ing in a boat with two boy friends, just above the Nanticoke dam. The boat was upset and two of the boys ecoaped, but Vaclaw was drowned. The body was recovered yesterday af-ternoon, after a long search.

The Supervisor Excepts.

B. W. Davis, attorney for Sampson Nankivel, one of the supervisors of Plains township, yesterday took an appeal from the report of the auditors. The grounds upon which this appeal is based is that the credits given him are not as much as should have been granted, and that the amounts charged against him are excessive.
