

IT IS A MISTAKE.

It is a mistake to think that life is all a bed of roses. It is a mistake to go through life and neglect the laws of health and life.

It is a mistake at any time to allow sickness or suffering of a serious nature to come upon you. It is a mistake not to take advantage of the best discoveries of science for preventing disease and banishing pain.

It is a mistake if anyone has not learned that the best and most scientific preparation for accomplishing this is Warner's Safe Cure.

It is a mistake that people who are properly informed and warned do not take advantage of the warning and thus insure happiness and long life.

CARBONDALE.

COLUMBIAS MEET.

Annual Election of Officers Held--The Men Selected. At the regular meeting of the Columbia Hose company the annual election of officers took place. A large number were present and the following were appointed to offices: President, William Peck; secretary, John Moffitt; treasurer, P. E. Moran; foreman, T. G. Coughlin; assistant foreman, John Brennan; driver, Charles Smith; bell master, James Campbell; properties, Abe Sahn; trustees, J. M. Nealon, J. W. Kilpatrick, Thomas Finerty.

Mr. Peck made a speech in accepting the office in which he mentioned several reforms necessary in the company, and urged the members to be present at the drills and at all stated occasions, and create more interest in the company. He wished that the company would become one of the leading ones of this region, and asked all to put more zeal in their work. While he held the office of president he would endeavor to have all the laws upheld, and also try to get the debt that they owe paid off.

The members wished to give their thanks to the Erie hose company, of Susquehanna, for the hose they were on Firemen's day. They fully appreciated all the efforts to make the day pleasant, and as a token of esteem decided to have a picture of the company in full uniform, as they appeared on the day of parade, handsomely framed and be sent to the Erie boys.

FOOT BALL TODAY.

The Second Game Will Be Played at Alumni Park. The high school foot ball team will contest on the gridiron this afternoon with the Tigers and their opponents from this city. The teams are about evenly matched and an exciting game is expected. The Tigers are heavier than the high school eleven, but they have not practiced as much so they will be about evened up. The game will be held at Alumni park and will commence at 4 o'clock sharp. Both teams are confident of victory and one of the hottest contests of the season is promised. The teams will line up as follows:

- Tigers. High School. O'Rourke, right guard; White, left tackle; right tackle; Gillis, Iser, right end; Blair, Coggins, center; Kelly, O'Malley, left guard; Hooker, Kelly, left tackle; Ketter, McDonald, left end; Seaton, Dugan, quarter; Gorlan, Kennedy, right half; Watt, E. Kelly, left half; Housen, Murphy, full back; Forbes, Yester, right half.

Yesterday afternoon those interested in the game met at Sandy's field, where a first team was organized. This will probably represent the city and the first game will be held next Saturday against the first team of the School of Lackawanna. The home team will be considerably heavier than their opponents, but they will make up their deficiency in weight in having more practice.

MITCHELL'S FAIR.

The Proceeds Will Go Toward Paying for New Uniforms. The preparations for the Mitchell fair, which will be held soon, are going rapidly on, and the affairs promise to be one of the most successful yet held in this city. At the meeting, held to discuss the subject, it was decided to hold it in the W. W. Watt hall, on Church street, full back, H. Dec. 1. The general committee appointed are: Frederick Thompson, Peter Riverburg, Fred Bailey and Charles Alexander, and they have already been busy providing for attractive goods and different rights, and have already secured some good features.

The proceeds of the fair will go toward providing the company with full uniforms. They should receive hearty support from the people.

A MEETING FOR MEN.

To Be Held Sunday Afternoon at Methodist Church. Tomorrow afternoon the first services for men will be held at the Methodist church at 3.30. It was decided by committees from the different churches at a meeting held in June last that these meetings for men should be held once each month at the different churches. The first meeting was to have been held last Sunday in September, but on account of the Schievera meetings this was postponed. The services should be productive of much good and should be well attended coming so soon after the revival.

Morgan Thomas Surprised. A jolly stag party was a feature of last evening. It was held at the home of Morgan Thomas, and was a surprise to that gentleman, arranged by his friends of the Kimball Glee club, of which he is a prominent member. Refreshments were served, a smoker enjoyed, vocal music rendered, and a general good time had till a late hour. Among those present were William Ople, Jr., David Lewis, Joseph Johns, John Lewis, John Chilton, W. D. Lewis, Robert Wacker, J. Tappen, Dennis D. Davis, F. Tappen, Morgan Thomas, Joseph Richards and Evan Thomas.

HAS CHANGED HANDS.

A New Landlord Takes Charge of the Central House. The changes in the proprietorship of the hotels seem to be no novelty now, and the people are getting used to the events. The latest to change hands is the Central house on South Main street. This has been run by S. C. Bell, but yesterday Mr. Bell retired and James Boylan took charge. Mr. Boylan is one of the prominent and best young men about town, and his success is assured. Besides his popularity he is familiar with the business, having been with J. J. Monahan since he took charge of the Harrison house, and has a large acquaintance among the traveling men.

Cut His Fingers.

William McConnege, of Clark avenue, who is employed at the Delaware and Hudson freight house, was painfully hurt the other afternoon. McConnege was carrying a sharp knife in his hand and was fooling with a companion, who was trying to get the knife. He got hold of the handle and pulled it and the blade severed cutting him about the fingers. Dr. Lowery attended the injured man, and was obliged to take several stitches in the cuts, and it will be some time before he can attend to his duties again.

Before the Alderman.

In a case held before Alderman Baker, Patrick Dowdican, of Gordon avenue, was defendant, and Sarah Morgan, of the same avenue, was plaintiff. The charge was seduction, she saying that Dowdican was responsible for her condition. Dowdican swears he is innocent. He was locked up, but was subsequently released, his mother and sister furnishing $200 bail. Miss Morgan is 25 years and the defendant about 25.

Thomas Jordan Hurt.

Thomas Jordan, foreman of the powder mill, met with a painful accident while at his work. While walking over a pile of pipes his foot slipped and he fell with great force upon the pipes. He sustained a deep gash upon his chin.

PITTSBON.

PREPARING FOR CAMPAIGN.

County Chairman McGahren and the Democratic Candidates in Town. On Thursday evening John McGahren, chairman of the Democratic county convention, and the Democratic county candidates, William McLean, Lee Stanton, J. W. Maloy and John Perkins, came to town for the purpose of stirring up a little enthusiasm among the local Democrats. An informal reception was held at the Star clear house, and plans were discussed for getting out the full party vote at the coming fall election. James L. Lenahan, Charles McCue, P. F. Boyer and several other prominent Democrats were present, and offered suggestions for the campaign.

A meeting was then organized, with P. F. Boyer as chairman, and J. K. Donnelly, secretary. It was decided to adopt the same plan here as in Wilkes-Barre, of forming a committee of five in each voting precinct and make the election day a Democratic day. The chairman of the several ward committees were then appointed as follows: First ward, James Langan; second ward, John Jordan; third ward, J. Kern; fifth ward, Martin Kearney; sixth ward, First district, J. G. Feeney; second district, James Kennedy; seventh ward, J. C. Reap; eighth ward, James O'Boyle and W. O'Boyle; Tenth, J. J. Mangan; Eleventh, J. H. Mullin.

Chairman McGahren announced that he is making arrangements for a grand, old-fashioned rally to be held at the Armory, Wilkes-Barre, toward the close of the campaign. He said he will use every endeavor and inducement to get David B. Hill to speak on that occasion.

BOARD OF HEALTH VACANCIES

Mayor Maloney Names M. J. Langan and J. W. Maloy to Fill Them. At the meeting of the select council Thursday evening Mayor Maloney submitted the names of M. J. Langan, of Upper Pittston, and Dr. Henscott, of the central city, as members of the board of health to fill the vacancies created by the resignation of John Jordan and Dr. G. Underwood. The appointments were promptly confirmed.

Dr. Henscott will decline to serve, as it is understood that Dr. Underwood did.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Joseph Murphy played to an overflowing house at Music Hall last evening, and his "Shuan Rue" was fresh, spicy and funny as ever. The audience was so large that the show was repeatedly applauded.

Captain Jack Crawford, the celebrated post-soldier, last evening delivered his popular lecture, "The New York Campaign," before a very large audience at Young Men's Christian Association hall. His talk was very entertaining and the audience was more than pleased with the lecture.

George N. Neilson, the plumber, visited friends up at Bodine, ten miles north of Williamsport, Thursday. On the return journey he rode to Towanda, a distance of thirty miles, in five hours and fifteen minutes, the last six miles being wheeled off in less than twenty minutes.

Owen P. Keenly, agent in this section for the Elmira Budget, was in town last night and says that the Budget will appear on Sunday as usual, reports to the contrary notwithstanding. He says the Elmira plant will be closed, but the paper will be printed in Albany.

Miss Ida Major, of Drummond street, entertained a company of young friends very pleasantly last evening. Those present were: Laura King, Blanche Salmon, Rosa Salmon, Nellie Wertheiser, Bessie Connel, Blanche Bernhart, Rhoda Hagan, Annie Major, Isabella Miller, Bertha Hagan, and others.

Mrs. Meyer Schlosser, of William street, has returned from New York, where she visited her brother, Paul Coke, left for Philadelphia, to see their mother, Mrs. J. L. Coke, who has been suffering for some months from a serious throat trouble, and they have been undergoing treatment in a Philadelphia hospital the past fortnight. The report received was that she is getting along very nicely, and has improved markedly since going to the city.

E. L. Lynch, the South Main street clothier, has returned from New York, where he went Monday to attend the funeral of his brother, Thomas Lynch.

Thomas English and bride returned home last evening from their wedding tour and will go to housekeeping in their handsome new home, on William street.

Thomas Corcoran returned home yesterday from a two weeks' visit to New York and Philadelphia.

William Secor, of Placerville, Eldorado county, Cal., is visiting friends in this vicinity. Yesterday, in company with W. H. Lugg, his brother-in-law, of Dursey, he paid a visit to the Mount Lookout shaft, and they were piloted through the underground workings by Richard Mainwaring.

W. L. Watson, cashier of the First National bank, is attending the Atlanta exposition.

Albert Brown returned home yesterday from a business trip to New York. Joseph McCormick, who holds a respectable position in the United States custom house at Philadelphia, accompanied by his wife and children, are visiting Mrs. McCormick's father, M. Moran, at Erie street.

Every time Joseph Murphy, the popular Irish comedian, comes to town he spends the day fishing on the Susquehanna, and yesterday was no exception to the rule. He was accompanied by P. J. Kearns, who drove up the river to land him, where they spent the day and landed some good fish.

Dennis Mangan, of South Main street, returned home from Atlantic City yesterday, where he has been sojourning for the past fortnight for the benefit of his health. While in the city, Mr. Mangan had a relapse which hastened his return home.

Scrofula, Salt Rheum

And All Other Blood Diseases--How They May Be Cured.

Speaking simply from what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done, not only once or twice, but in thousands of cases, we can honestly say that it is the best remedy for all diseases of the blood, whatever the cause.

By its peculiar Combination, Proportion and Process, it possesses positive medicinal merits peculiar to itself. It has cured the most violent cases of Scrofula and Salt Rheum, even when all other prescriptions and medicines have failed to do any good.

Blood poisoning, from whatever origin, yields to its powerful cleansing, purifying, vitalizing effect upon the blood. If you desire further particulars, write to us as below. Remember that

Miss Genevieve McCann, of Hyde Park, is visiting Miss Mame Reap, of William street. Accompanied by Dr. J. C. Reap, H. B. Reap, Dr. James O'Malley, and Miss Kate O'Malley, they attended the Dallas fair, Thursday.

Miss Mae Matthews arrived home yesterday from an extended visit with a school friend, on the Hudson.

Professor W. H. Woshon, the famous vocalist who accompanies Evangelist Schievera in his revivals, was in town yesterday, en route to his home, at Buffalo. They go to the Atlantic exposition next week, where they will conduct meetings for several months and they will go to California for the winter.

NEWS NOTES.

[The Pittston office of the Scranton Tribune is located at No. 5 William street, where all advertisements, orders for job work and items for publication will be promptly attended to. Office open from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m.]

Jacob Stettler, an old resident of the West Side, died yesterday from the effects of a cancer on the arm. The funeral will take place Sunday (tomorrow) at 3 p. m. and the remains will be interred in West Pittston cemetery.

On Thursday night a number of the members of the Broad Street Methodist Episcopal church chartered a special trolley car and took a trolley ride to Nanticoke, where they spent the evening with their former pastor, Rev. J. B. Sumner, and his estimable wife. Refreshments were served by the ladies returned at a seasonable hour. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Councilman, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. George Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Winters, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Keeler, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Frantz, Mrs. Dr. Dively, Mrs. W. C. Price, Misses Mae McDonald, Emma Weil, Ina Cobb, Ella Cobb, Jessie Weaver, Bertha Morris, Laura Morris, Sadie Morris, Grace Bennett, Lillian Matthews, Emily Sweet, Eva Allen, Mame Welter, Hattie W. Phillips, Burritt, Sarah Davis, Esther Jenkins, Clara Leighton, C. B. Smith, A. L. Truax, Harry Weaver, Robert McDonald, William H. Carter, John Phillips, A. Hoffman, Will Sheezy, G. P. Hunter, C. E. Lyman, Alex. Davis, John Matthews, A. Kresge, Benjamin Hadsall, Ed Messick, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips.

George Neilson has been awarded the contract for placing hot water heating apparatus in J. J. Boyle's Valley house. Burglars made an unsuccessful attempt to crack the safe of John Towhill's Riverside foundry Thursday night.

A house on Spring street, West Side, occupied by a colony of Italians, was slightly damaged by fire yesterday morning.

Rev. Bishop O'Hara will confer the sacrament of confirmation on several hundred boys and girls at St. John's Evangelical church tomorrow. The boys will be confirmed at 10.30 a. m. and the girls at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fear will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from the family residence on Broad street. Those who wish to view the remains may do so from 8 to 9.30 a. m. after which the casket will be closed.

The funeral of the late Michael Dougher, of this place, occurred from the home of his sister, Mrs. W. McNulty, Stark street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and was largely attended. Funeral services were conducted over the remains at St. John's church, and interment was made in Market Street cemetery. The pallbearers were Roger Loughney, John Gordon, Anthony Loftus, Michael Dougher, Patrick Dougher and Andrew Newcombe.

W. H. Lindsay, the well-known contractor of Plymouth, was in town yesterday. The councils have awarded a contract for the erecting of the sewer outlets to Mr. Lindsay, but for some reason the mayor has not signed it. The city clerk has already signed the contract. The councils have neglected to secure the right of way for the outlets, which probably accounts for the mayor not affixing his name to the contract.

Dursey is enjoying quite a building boom. S. J. Freeman has given the contract for the erection of a block of houses on the old homestead farm to Anthony Chinchis. Mr. Chinchis also has the contract for a new house for Rev. Father John Olonski, pastor of the new Polish Catholic church at Dursey.

Bernard Maszloski has been awarded the contract for supplying coal to the Marcy township schools.

There will be a meeting of the board of health at the town hall this (Saturday) evening at 7.30 o'clock.

While Street Commissioner Carroll's gang of workmen were cleaning the asphalt pave at the corner of William street yesterday, one of them, Edward McDonnell, was struck by a passing cab. He sustained a slight wound in the forehead and was taken home in the cab.

Washburn-Crosby Co.

Washburn-Crosby Co. wish to assure their many patrons that they will this year hold to their usual custom of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new crop is fully cured. New wheat is now upon the market, and owing to the excessively dry weather many millers are of the opinion that it is already cured, and in proper condition for milling. Washburn-Crosby Co. will take no risks, and will allow the new wheat fully three months to mature before grinding.

This careful attention to every detail of milling has placed Washburn-Crosby Co.'s flour far above other brands.
