

Cleveland's BAKING POWDER.

"Absolutely the best and most desirable baking powder manufactured."

GEN. S. H. HURST, late Ohio Food Commissioner.

Norman & Moore FIRE INSURANCE, 120 Wyoming Ave.

BIG BARGAINS IN SHOES RUSSET SHOES AT COST AT THE COMMONWEALTH SHOE STORE Washington Avenue.

OUR WAGONS CALL Regularly in all parts of the city. Have we missed you? Drop a post.

LACKAWANNA THE LAUNDRY, 308 Penn Ave. A. B. WARMAN.

NEW LACE CURTAINS More than 275 styles to select from at all prices, from 75c. to $60.00.

ALSO NEW Draperies, Carpets, Wall Paper.

WILLIAMS & M'ANULTY 127 WYOMING AVENUE.

CITY NOTES.

Bishop Bisc. of Minooka, died last evening at 12 o'clock.

John Arth will speak at the Rescue mission this evening at 8 o'clock.

John Banko was yesterday discharged from the payment of court costs under the insolvency laws.

John T. Torrey, died yesterday in Cazenovia, N.Y.

The Board of Trade Real Estate company will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the board of trade rooms.

Engines of the Plywood and Eddy Creek mines of the Delaware and Hudson company were paid yesterday.

St. Luke's Industrial school will open Oct. 12 in the parish rooms, corner of Linden street and Adams avenue.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company paid the men and at Storrs mine and machine shop.

Professor Richard Lindsey desires the young ladies who took part in "Pinafore" to meet at his studio on Washington avenue this afternoon.

Rev. D. C. Hayes, D.D., of the Jackson Street Baptist church, will preach both morning and evening in the Penn Avenue Baptist church.

A. B. Scanlon, of Pine Brook, a barbershop, occurred yesterday was received at the Lackawanna Hospital yesterday. He is suffering from pneumonia.

The new Padden hotel at the corner of Washington avenue and Phelps street will be opened next Thursday evening. It is a very spacious and comfortable hotel.

The will of Anna M. Atkin, late of Carbondale, was admitted to probate yesterday by Register W. S. Hopkins. No letters have yet been granted. The deceased was born John W. Atkin.

C. W. and Mrs. J. R. Roosier, father and wife of J. R. Roosier, who met such sudden death on last Monday evening, tendered their heartfelt thanks to friends and relatives who so kindly assisted after the death of Mr. Roosier.

The Scranton company of the Thirtieth regiment will resume drills next week as follows: A. Monday; B. Tuesday; C. Wednesday; D. Thursday; E. Tuesday; F. Tuesday. A meeting of the staff will be held next Monday evening.

Ringing Speeches.

The students of Wood's Business College were animated and encouraged by speeches from President Wood and Hon. F. P. Bowles, and the students gave a class to inspire anyone that the gentlemen fit the magnetism of the crowd.

Five weeks have passed and over 500 pupils are now daily attending. This surpasses any other school of a commercial nature in America.

Miss Anna McFiefe accepts a position in the office of Mr. Haggerty.

J. Jones, former billing clerk for the Globe store.

Five applications for bookkeepers and stenographers are now on file.

Coming State Convention.

Secretary Lynett made a statement to the board to the effect that the secretary of the Carbondale poor board had called upon him with a view to ascertain if the Scranton poor district would be willing to accept insane persons from Carbondale at its asylum.

Danville is overcrowded and none can be received at that place, therefore they are unable to receive any patients.

Mr. Gibbons thought it would be a graceful act to assist the Carbondale board and receive its patients.

He believes that it is only a question of time until ours will be a state asylum.

Mr. Beemer, in response to the questions of the board, said there was room for additional patients at the Hillside asylum.

It was decided to receive the Carbondale patients provided the board of that city gave a bond for their maintenance and also agrees to remove them if at any time the asylum became so crowded as to make such a step necessary.

Meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

The following members of the regular Young Men's Christian association base ball team will play in the annual meeting of the association of the poor and charities of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia on Oct. 15, 16 and 17.

It was decided that members and officers of the local board should attend the convention.

Mr. Gibbons wanted to have Rev. Rogers Israel, who takes a deep interest in the local charities, go to the meeting.

Attorney George W. Beemer, who had no legal right to pay the expenses of any one save officers and members of the board.

Mr. Purcell's new Turkish and Russian plates continue to be popular with the public and are the favorite resort of the people of the city. With increased facilities and stand, he has been enabled to give better service than in the old bath on the opposite side of the square. Remodeling the location, Linden street, near the postoffice, directly across the court house square from the old Gillsey bath house.

Hold Up Your End.

of plank the best you can. If it gets too heavy call us; we're here to help you and we'll do it. Our little-at-a-time-paying system is a winner. Want any cloth or furniture? Go to the Economy, 22 and 27 and 28 Wyoming avenue, both sides.

Wall paper at your own price. Pratt's Book Store.

Attention.

The dressing parlor of Madame L'Amour's will be open.

She's just returned from the city, and is prepared to furnish all the latest styles. Prices reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed!

Fee and coffee sets, five pieces, beautiful patterns and latest styles, warranted plate, $25.00. Turnquest, 205 Washington avenue.

Blank books and stationery below cost. Pratt's Book Store.

WHEN YOU ADVERTISE IN THE TRIBUNE YOU REACH BUYERS.

The finest line of wines, cigars, malt and other liquors to be found at the Lohmann's, Spruce street. E. Robinson's, Milwaukee, and Feigenspan's beers on draught.

Ladies and Gentlemen.

For the latest styles and lowest prices in fine shoes try the Commonwealth shoe store. Washington avenue.

The Nickel Plate road, as the Low Rate Line in connection with the Best Service, receives the enthusiastic support and praise of all delegations, conventions and assemblies.

Buy your cigar for Monsoon Tea. It will save you.

"Pure and Sure."

LOOSE BUSINESS METHODS

Obtained the Seal of the Poor Board's Disapproval.

MUST COMPLY WITH THE RULES

That Was the Decision the Board Arrived at Yesterday—Patients Will Be Received from the Carbondale District—Going to the Convention.

Mrs. W. B. Duggan came in for a share of attention at the meeting of the poor board yesterday afternoon. She works in conjunction with the child-saving committee of the Board of Associated Charities, and a number of young ones taken from worthless and dissolute parents have been placed in the Home for Friendless Children. Invariably this has been done without obtaining the consent of poor director of the district or securing a poor board order.

Yesterday an official of the Home for the Friendless, with a bill for the board of some of these children, appeared before the poor directors and when it was learned that Mrs. Duggan was not accompanied by the manager of the home, the board expressed themselves as opposed to the present practice. They are willing to assist in the work of child-saving by paying for the keeping of the little ones at a suitable institution, but insist that the work shall be done in a regular way, in accordance with the rules of the board. The bills presented were paid, and the managers of the home were directed to hereafter insist on an order accompanying each child, and on motion of Mrs. Frances B. Swan it was ordered that hereafter Mrs. Duggan secure an order before taking a child to any institution as a charge on the Scranton poor district.

To Move Against Delinquents. Superintendent Beemer, in his report, told the directors there was $2,740 in the treasury, $1,000 of which belongs to the Carbondale and Commonwealth counties, John J. Gaffney, of the West Side, will be secretary, and Charles Schadt, of the South Side, treasurer.

This was the understanding reached last night after three days' deliberation and consultation. This is not official, but merely a forecast, which can be relied upon, however, as it comes from a highly authoritative source.

The two candidates, Dr. J. S. Kelley and A. H. Dunning, will meet this afternoon with ex-Sheriff Fahey, chairman of the convention, to organize the county committee. O'Neill, Gaffney, and Schadt will undoubtedly chosen to represent the county committee; in fact, they may already have been chosen, and today's meeting will be no more than a formal proceeding for the official confirmation of the three officials already agreed upon.

It was expected that the committee would be selected last night, but owing to the inability of Dr. Kelley to attend because of the "Twin" basketball postponement, was held until today.

Mr. O'Neill was Democratic chairman in the county campaign several years ago.

BACK FROM READING.

Aug 29 Aug Hose Company and Lawrence Band Return to the City.

Looking travel-stained and fatigued, but happy, the Aug. 29 Hose company, accompanied by the committee Lawrence, reached here noon after 12 hours' flight from Reading, where they participated in the state firemen's convention and Thursday's parade, which was one of the largest of its kind ever held within the borders of the state.

The members reported a good time in speaking of Scranton's defeat as the city for the 1896 convention. It was said that the whole proceeding was crooked from beginning to end. There was a total of 393 votes cast and Johnstown received 218 and Scranton 63, making a total of only 281. It was impossible to obtain any satisfactory answer from the judge or tellers as to the disposition of the 12 votes. Wilkes-Barre played the dog in the manger and opposed Scranton.

Even though Scranton lost the convention, the reception tendered Aug. 29 on their return was as great as if the laurels had been won. At Allentown the boys paraded the principal streets, having had two hours between trains in that city.

MARTIN, MERCHANT TAILOR.

Has Opened Up an Elegant Establishment at 205 Wyoming Avenue.

Mr. Martin, formerly of the firm of Martin & Delany, has opened a merchant tailoring establishment at 205 Wyoming avenue, second floor, where he will continue to serve old patrons of the late firm and new friends generally.

Mr. Martin occupies the entire floor of the store, and has his show rooms filled with an elegant stock of the latest patterns of fine cloths for fall and winter garments. Everything is brand new, and the goods are of most fashionable designs.

All work will be done in the store under immediate supervision of Mr. Martin, which is a guarantee that it will be first-class in every respect.

SHE WANTS A DIVORCE.

Cruelty and Desertion Are the Causes Alleged.

Attorney C. B. Gardner filed an application for a divorce yesterday, petitioning the court to separate Anna Dunn from her husband, Edward Dunn, to whom she was married on Dec. 21, 1888, in Scott township.

Anna Dunn is named as the next friend. Cruelty and desertion are the reasons set forth in the petition. Dunn deserted his wife on Dec. 6, last year.

The Great Sale Will Continue.

The students of Wood's Business College are invited to the home of Mrs. Duggan, 205 Wyoming avenue, for a week's vacation, instead of this afternoon on her honeymoon.

Interment will be made in Union cemetery, Peckville.

The regular monthly meeting of the Odd Fellows will be held in the parlor of the Young Men's Christian association building at 10 a.m. on Monday, Oct. 7, 1895. Rev. N. F. Stahl, pastor of the German Evangelical Protestant church, will preside. Some refreshments will be served during his visit to Jerusalem.

Two newly elected officers of Lackawanna Lodge, No. 29, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Noble Grand C. D. Ballou and Vice Master L. G. Moore, were installed last night by District Deputy George T. Taylor in the Odd Fellows Building, on Wyoming avenue. District Deputy Grand Marshal John T. Howe participated in the ceremony.

They are the Best.

We have the leading makes of Kid Gloves, Ladies', Gents' and Juvenile Hoses, Linen, Lace, Ribbons, Comptone Line of Notions, Meers & Hagen.

Gaming.

This will be the topic of Dr. McLeod's discussion Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian church. It is the first in a series of "timely topics," which Dr. McLeod proposes to discuss on Sunday evenings during the fall and winter.

Around Your Neck.

That's where you'll wear our 18c. ties. They're the 18c. and 2c. kind, only selling the 18c. and 2c. kind. Oct. 7 and 8. No more than one tie per person. You buy five or six. The Economy's clothing department, Y. M. C. A. building, Wyoming ave.

Pratt's Book Store.

Attention.

The dressing parlor of Madame L'Amour's will be open.

She's just returned from the city, and is prepared to furnish all the latest styles. Prices reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed!

Fee and coffee sets, five pieces, beautiful patterns and latest styles, warranted plate, $25.00. Turnquest, 205 Washington avenue.

Blank books and stationery below cost. Pratt's Book Store.

WHEN YOU ADVERTISE IN THE TRIBUNE YOU REACH BUYERS.

The finest line of wines, cigars, malt and other liquors to be found at the Lohmann's, Spruce street. E. Robinson's, Milwaukee, and Feigenspan's beers on draught.

Ladies and Gentlemen.

For the latest styles and lowest prices in fine shoes try the Commonwealth shoe store. Washington avenue.

The Nickel Plate road, as the Low Rate Line in connection with the Best Service, receives the enthusiastic support and praise of all delegations, conventions and assemblies.

Buy your cigar for Monsoon Tea. It will save you.

VERY PLEASANT MAN.

Used to Tell His Wife About His Amours Along the Road.

Judge Archbold heard the testimony in chambers yesterday in the divorce case of Margaret J. Croft, against her husband, Glynnis Croft. Attorneys John F. Scott and E. Merrifield represented the libellant, and Court Stenographer D. C. Coston took the notes of the proceedings.

The Crofts were married on Washington's birthday, 1887, in Binghamton, and they took up their residence on Bromley avenue, West Side. In this city the couple were known to them. They are in the mother's keeping at present. Croft is a brakeman on a passenger train on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad.

The libellant was the first one sworn. She stated that the voyage was smooth from their marriage until three years ago. Her husband used to come home to bed at 10 o'clock, tell her about his amours on the road, and she would chide him against the wall. His abuse continued until she had to leave his home.

Mrs. A. J. Atkinson, her sister, swore that she often heard quarrels between the libellant and respondent.

Mrs. Jacob Rehert swore to the same effect.

Mrs. Beulah Doyle, who used to work for the Friends, told the court that she often heard him tell her about the good time he used to have with other women. Croft was of a jealous, disposed, but according to the testimony, he had no reason to be.

HIS LAST PAY DAY.

South Side Poleander Struck by a D. L. & W. Passenger Train at Bellevue.

While waiting for the pay car to come along yesterday he became ill. He was taken to the hospital at Bellevue and Oxford miners, Mike Novak, a Polisher who lived on the South Side and was employed as a laborer in the Bellevue shaft, walked onto the north bound track, in front of the approaching 2 p.m. passenger train and sustained fatal injuries to his head. He was dead a few hours afterward at the Moses Taylor hospital.

The man was about 25 years of age, unmarried, and was without friends. He was not long in this city. He is still at the hospital morgue.

WELCOME BANQUET.

Will Be Given Thursday Evening in Elm Park Parlor.

A welcome banquet will