CARBONDALE.

THROWN FROM A CARRIAGE. George Moon Rendered Insensible at the

Yesterday morning George Moon, who is employed as clerk in the Delaware and Hudson locomotive shops, met with a very serious accident, which rendered him insensible for some time. Mr. Moon has been living near Clifford for the past few months, and drives to and from work every day. The horse he drives is a very skittish one, and is easily frightened. While crossing the tracks at Dundaff street yesterday morning the horse became Railroad Crossing. crossing the tracks at Dundaff street yesterday morning the horse became frightened at a passing locomotive, and gave a jump to one side. As he jumped the wheel of the carriage caught in a rail and Mr. Moon was thrown violently out, his head striking a rail with great force. He was picked up unconscious and carried to a hotel near by. He was cared for here until he had sufficiently recovered and was then taken to the office of Dr. Lowery, where his wounds recovered and was then taken to the office of Dr. Lowery, where his wounds were properly dressed. The wound on his head was found to be quite bad, and his head was found to be quite bad, and besides this there were several other had bruises on his body. Mr. Moon was finally able to resume his duties. This is the second time the horse has been frightened at the crossing, a sim-tlar accident occurring some time ago.

DEATH'S GRIM MESSENGER.

Enters the Home of Matthew Delaney, of Dunduff Street.

It is with great sadness that we chronicle the death of Matthew De-laney, of Dundan street, which ocourred Sunday afternoon.

But a short time ago Mr. Delaney was in the best of health, and was about his store as usual. A week ago Saturday evening, however, Mr. Delaney complained of feeling ill and at once took to his bed. From that time he sank rapidly until the end. His death was due to Mr. Delaney was 45 years of age and Mr. Delaney was 45 years of age and has spent his entire life in Carbondale. During his early life he was employed in the Co-operative store, where he acquired his business training. Later he formed a partnership with John Merrick and for some time they conducted a store at the corner of Main street and Salem avenue. For the past five years Mr. Delaney has conducted a similar establishment on Dundaff street.

Deceased is survived by a wife and two sisters Mrs. John Boland and Mrs. Dominick McGowan. The funeral ser-

Dominick McGowan. The funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at St. Rose church, where a mass of requiem will be held. Mr. Delaney was a member of the Casholic Mutual Bene-ficial association and of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, both of which will attend the funeral in a body.

CHURCH ON FIRE.

A Wreath on the Altar Is Suddenly Ignited.

Sunday night at St. Rose church oc curred the reception of the Angel's sodality, in which over a hundred girls and seventeen boys were received into the sodality. The services were very impressive, but all were thaily pro-nounced members of the sodality. Be-fore the benediction, however, the flowers on the altar caught fire, and in an instant were blazing flercely away. The people in the seats were startled and a great many people started from their seats. Several men saw what would happen, should a rush be made for the doors, and called for the peo-ple to take their scats.

This probably saved many people from becoming injured. John Moran and Joseph O'Rourke grabbed the blaz-ing flowers and threw them out, burn-ing their clothes badly in the act. If it had not been for the presence of mind and prompt action of the two lads, the laces and valls would have been fired, and the results would prob-ably have been much more serious.

THE NEW BRIDGE.

Plans and Specifications Now Ready for Inspection.

At the meeting of the councils, soon after the giving way of the Eighth ave-nue bridge, a resolution was passed asking that plans for a new bridge be prepared by Engineer Frick. Mr. Frick has since been working upon them and yesterday completed the job.

If the plans are adopted by the councils, the city will be supplied with a handsome and serviceable bridge at that year. The structure will be sixty.

that point. The structure will be sixty-three feet in length and forty-eight feet wide. The roadway will be thirty feet wide and there will be two side-walks, each nine feet wide. The bridge will be built entirely of iron and will have a floor system which will be constructed for pave or macadem road. The bridge will be very strong, the girders sustaining 100 pounds to the square foot, and the whole thing will proportioned to hold a 10-ton roller

The cost will probably be in the neighborhood of $5,000.

NEW CLUB FORMED.

The Sixth Ward Republicans Organize for the Fall Campaiga.

Among the most active workers in the political circles of this city are the voters of the Sixth ward. The workers were the foremost in the organization were the foremost in the organization of the Lackawanna Republican club last year which proved such a help to the Republican candidates. They will not abandon the Lackawanna club, but they think that the organization of a ward club will be of great benefit.

The men are getting ready for the next spring election and they promise to make a flerce fight. J. J. Delevan is circulating among the voters an agree-ment for the formation of the Sixth Ward Republican club, and has already received seventy-six signers.

Finger Amputated.

Some time ago John Lowery, of Greenfield, split one of his fingers open. He bandaged the finger, expecting it would soon be healed. It did not, however, and gave him considerable pain, yesterday he came to this city and called upon Dr. Nies who found it called upon Dr. Niles, who found it necessary to amputate part of the

The harness had to be cut before the horse could be loosened and the trip was then declared "off."

WORK OF THE DROUGHT.

Water Taken to Peckville from This City

in Old Gravity Boilers. People who had occasion to pass the Delaware and Hudson shops, at the head of Main street. Saturday night, might have wondered what caused the unusually hurry and bustle at that late hour. The reason for the work was that the men had received orders to re-pair and place in water-tight condition the old gravity bollers which were lying around the shop. The job was a long one and the men worked all day and Sunday before they were tight enough to hold water.

As soon as finished the boilers were placed upon flat cars, two being neces-sary for each. As soon as placed upon the cars the boilers were filled with water from this city and taken to Peckville and other places where the drought had so dried up the water supply that unless gotten from outside sources the engines on the gravity road would be obliged to shut down.

The Bridge Gave Way. Yesterday morning while driving to this city, J. B. Slocum, of Clifford, met with a bad accident. As he was crossing a bridge over a creek near the Briggs school house, in Greenfield, a plank gave way and one of his colts went through. It was with much difficulty that the colt was released and culty that the colt was released and then it was found that it had been bad-ly injured. The Greenfield supervisors will be asked to pay for the damages.

A SORROWFUL SCENE.

Arrival of Mrs. Simonosvicz, Whos Husband Was Murdered.

One of the most sorrowful and heart-rending scenes ever witnessed here occurred yesterday morning, when Mrs. Simonosvicz, wife of the unfortunate Polander who was murdered here two weeks ago, arrived with her infant boy to join the husband here, only to find, upon her arrival, that he had been cruelly murdered and the remains interred in the poor burial ground. She did not know of the terrible fate her husband had met until she walked into the house of a countrywoman, who broke into tears as soon as she saw her, and when Mrs. Simonosvicz heard the story of her husband's death her grief was unbounded. It appears that Simonosvicz had sent enough money to his wife and child to bring them to this country the very day he met his death. The woman and child are being cared for by kind Polish friends.
