

EIGHT PAGES--56 COLUMNS.

SCRANTON, PA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 9, 1895.

TWO CENTS A COPY.

OSLAND'S CORSET FIGURES VS. OURS.

Irrefutable figures are the hardest kind of an argument to get over and in the EXTRAORDINARY VALUE price list which follows we guarantee every figure to be a fact.

SMALL WONDER AT IT, EITHER.

Neighbor Osland across the way from us made up his mind to quit Corsets and glove selling. He wanted a cash buyer for his stock and accepted our offer, which amounted to considerably less than half what he paid for the goods some months ago.

HIS CORSET LINE

was the finest ever brought to this city--too fine, in fact, for the ordinary run of Scranton trade, but at the prices we have placed on them they're within everybody's reach.

SALE OF OSLAND'S CORSET STOCK BEGINS TOMORROW at 9 a. m. and Continues 10 Days Only.

SAVINGS FACTS FOR CAREFUL BUYERS

"Her Majesty's Corset." Style. Osland's Price. Sale Price. 200 $2.75 $1.90 295 4.00 2.75

"C. P." Corsets. Style. Osland's Price. Sale Price. Venus $3.50 $2.25 1018 5.00 2.00 1018 6.00 2.00 1019 5.75 2.75 350 1.75 1.12 263 2.50 1.90

"P. D." Corsets. Style. Osland's Price. Sale Price. 574 $10.00 $5.00 418 7.00 3.00 104 8.00 3.50 329 2.50 1.50 248 2.50 1.98

Warner's Corsets. Style. Osland's Price. Sale Price. Redfern $6.00 $2.50 Fanita 5.00 2.25 XXX 2.50 1.25 888 1.75 1.00 Health 1.25 .89 Coraline 1.00 .69

THE ROBE LISTS. The most popular and highest quality corsets on the market. Attention to these there are many and commoner makes summed up as follows: Any of Osland's Corsets at 90c. Any of Osland's Corsets at 80c. Any of Osland's Corsets at 70c. Any of Osland's Corsets at 60c. Any of Osland's Corsets at 50c. Any of Osland's Corsets at 40c. Any of Osland's Corsets at 30c. Any of Osland's Corsets at 20c. Any of Osland's Corsets at 10c.

GLOBE WAREHOUSE

SUPERIOR COURT MIDDLE

Senator Quay Thinks Seven Judicial Candidates Should Be Voted For.

MR. REEDER REFUSES TO ACT

Has No Right to Alter the Ballot Forms. Application Will Be Made to the Supreme Court for Mandamus.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 8.—Secretary of the Commonwealth Reeder received a letter from Senator Quay, chairman of the Republican state committee, in which he stated that he is advised that the provision of the act creating the Superior court forbidding each elector to vote for more than six candidates is contrary to the constitution and that an election of judges of the Superior court held upon the limited plan of voting would be void. He requests Secretary Reeder to disregard the provision in question in making up the ballot and to prescribe such form of ballot as will ensure each elector the right of voting for seven candidates if he shall so desire.

Secretary Reeder replied that it was not within his province to pass upon the constitutional question involved and that he would have to prepare the ballot in accordance with the act, limiting each elector to the privilege of voting for six candidates.

Chairman Quay instructed M. E. Olmsted of this city, to make application to the attorney general to take such action as will result in an immediate termination of the question. Attorney General McCormick has decided to proceed in the matter at once, and tomorrow will ask the Supreme court for a writ of mandamus to compel the secretary of the commonwealth to prepare the form of ballot which will permit the voter to cast his ballot for seven candidates.

REPUBLICANS DEFEATED.

Rigid Enforcement of the Liquor Laws and Unpopularity of Candidates the Cause.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 8.—The Republicans of Indianapolis suffered the heaviest defeat in the history of the city in the municipal election today. Fully completed returns at 10 o'clock show that Thomas Tazgart (Dem.) is elected mayor by about 4,000 plurality, and the rest of the Democratic ticket by about 3,200.

Two years ago the Republicans carried the city by 3,100, and last year the city went Republican by 2,470 on the state ticket. The main causes attributed by the Republicans are that the present administration has aroused enmity by its rigid enforcement of the liquor laws, assisted by the vigorous Nicholson temperance law passed at the last legislature; dissatisfaction with the street improvement policy; the personal unpopularity of the candidate, and the fact that he did not vote for Harrison in 1892. His loss from this last cause is measured by the thousand votes he ran behind the ticket.

HUSTLING FOR HONORS.

Daughters of the Revolution Scramble for Office Just Like Politicians—Business Transacted at the Sessions.

Johnstown, Pa., Oct. 8.—Fully one hundred of the four hundred delegates to the first state council of the Daughters of Liberty, now in session in this city, are candidates for the few offices which they are to confer tomorrow. It is a remarkable scramble, especially in view of the fact that the average woman is not understood by the public to be a very decided aspirant for office. In this instance, however, she is hustling for the fashion of the average politician, only her ways are more persuasive and quite as effective. Campaigning commenced yesterday, long before half the delegates had arrived, and all day today, and up to a late hour tonight, the scores of women went to secure the honors were buttonholing their friends and seeking strangers. The hotel lobbies were scenes of considerable bustle among the fair candidates, and it was observed by everybody that they were quite talented in their manner of pressing their claims.

The session today, besides the usual routine business, was consumed in the discussion of the recommendations, finally adopted, of Secretary Edkins that the initiations be established at 11; that no one be received into membership who is over 20 years of age; that subordinate councils suspend members who have not paid dues for twenty-six weeks; that the eastern district elect eight delegates to the national council, the middle district three and the western four.

FORMER MONK A PROTESTANT

Don Manuel Ferrando Joins the Presbyterians and Will Preach. New York, Oct. 8.—Don Manuel Ferrando, a member of one of the oldest Spanish families and formerly a superior of the order of Capuchin monks, today renounced the Roman Catholic church and accepted the Protestant faith. By this act he lost an important mission in his old church and will be disowned by his family. He was formally received into the membership of the West End Presbyterian church, at Amsterdam avenue and One Hundred and Fifth street, and will enter the ministry of the Presbyterian church having been enrolled as a student at the Union Theological seminary.

DROPS DEAD IN THE PULPIT.

Rev. Dr. Longstroth Expires While Conducting Communion Services. Dayton, O., Oct. 8.—Rev. Dr. Lawrence Lorain Longstroth dropped dead in the pulpit of the Wayne Avenue church today while conducting communion services. The minister complained of feeling ill and was discoursing while seated, when he was stricken with apoplexy and died instantly.

BUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS.

Thirty-First Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania Association. Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 8.—The thirty-first annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School association convened here this evening in the Pine Street Methodist Episcopal church. All the state officers are present.

BELL'S JOURNEY IS ENDED

The Historic Relic Is Now Part of the Atlanta Exposition.

IS RECEIVED WITH ENTHUSIASM

The Train Bearing Liberty Bell Passes Through a Crowd of Citizens Lining the Tracks for a Distance of Two Miles.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8.—The exposition city today gave the liberty bell the most cordial greeting that the "money" relic has ever received. It was literally an outpouring of the people such as has never been witnessed in their town and it would be impossible to conceive a more notable exhibition of patriotism. For fully two miles the bell train passed through solid walls of cheering people. They stood massed on tops of freight cars, on the sidewalks, on the railroad, on rooftops and, in fact, on every place that afforded a foothold. The Atlanta Light Artillery fired the presidential salute, and the first shot was the signal for every steam whistle in the city to shriek out its welcome. The scene in and around the station beggars description. The crowd seemed without limit, and every window of every factory, store and dwelling there were waving flags and handkerchiefs.

GENERAL MAHONE DEAD.

Ex-Senator from Virginia—His Unique Political Career—At One Time One of the Most Picturesque of Public Men.

Washington, Oct. 8.—General Mahone died at 1 o'clock. The general was weaker this morning than at any time since he was stricken with paralysis, and it was thought that he could not live through the day. The country will long remember General William Mahone as one of the most picturesque figures and characters in public life. He was a man of unusual physical appearance, slight stature and frame, he has been a marked man in great assemblies. His peculiar style of oratory, his exceptional ability, his earnestness and his high character, attracted attention to him. This broad-brimmed, soft felt headgear, seemed out of proportion to the rest of his person. He was in his sixtieth year.

THE SHRINE AT DALTON.

Youth and Innocence Welcome the Bell and Its Distinguished Escort.

Dalton, Ga., Oct. 8.—The welcome extended to the liberty bell on its entrance into Georgia was one of the warmest and at the same time the most grateful yet received in the South. As the train stopped an opening was forced through the great throng, and thirteen children dressed to represent the original states, walked to the platform. Each carried a wreath of lovely flowers, and after singing "America," they placed the wreath on the bell. Their sweet voices in the crisp morning air blended charmingly, and the crowd applauded wildly.

ELEVATOR CABLE BREAKS.

Frightful Accident in One of Chicago's Sky-Scraper Edifices—Four Men Sustain Serious Injuries.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—This morning while four persons were ascending in a freight elevator to the top floor of the building at 323 Franklin street, the cable broke when the fourth floor was reached and the elevator fell. When the basement below, a distance of 100 feet. Two of the occupants were probably fatally injured and two others seriously hurt. The injured are Joseph Rosenbloom, internist; Dr. Charles H. Ryan, a physician; and two men, one of whom was a young man named Dan A. Matthews, who was a witness of C. T. Lenahan, the young man who says he visited Oppenheim's pawnshop and who, it is claimed by the defense, was seated in the store reading when the customer entered. Lenahan was dressed as Durant was said to have been when he visited the store.

WARRANTS FOR MANAGERS.

More Trouble for the Persons Interested in the Great Fight.

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 8.—Panors are out for the arrest of William Brady, manager of James J. Corbett; Martin Julian, manager of Bob Fitzsimmons; W. K. Wheeler, secretary of the Florida Athletic club, and presumably for Dan A. Stuart, Joe Vendiz and others. The papers were issued from Austin and are held by the sheriff at Dallas. Wheeler's papers were served on him today. None of the others have so far been served.

STRIKE ON THE WORLD.

The Entire Mechanical Force of Pultze's Journal Quit Work—Business at a Standstill.

New York, Oct. 8.—Promptly at midnight the entire force of compositors, pressmen, stereotypers and other attaches of the mechanical department of the New York World went on a strike, causing consternation to management. At 12:45 work in the building was at a standstill.

SITUATION IN TURKEY.

Affairs at Constantinople Unchanged. Armenians Refuse to Leave Churches.

Constantinople, Oct. 8.—The situation here is unchanged. The patriots have seen materially increased by infantry and cavalry, but the presence of the additional troops fails to restore public confidence. The streets are completely deserted at night. All efforts to persuade the Armenians to leave their churches have proved fruitless, the refugees declaring that they would not trust to the government's promise of protection.

PRIZE FIGHT FOR A GIRL.

Rivals Use Their Fists in Conflict for a Fair Demoiselle. St. Louis, Oct. 8.—George Hampshire, a son of Dr. Pitzer, and John Rice fought six rounds at an early hour this morning in a leading downtown wholesale dry goods house for $10 a side, and the hand of a 17-year-old girl, said to be Miss Jennie Hastings, whom both had been wooing.

LEAPED FROM A WINDOW

Summer Resort Visitor Makes an Effort at Suicide.

Stroudsburg, Pa., Oct. 8.—Mrs. John Knox Marshall, wife of a Boston manufacturer, and sister of Charles and William Adamson of Philadelphia, who had been staying at a boarding house near Delaware Water Gap, attempted suicide yesterday.

FORNEY COURT MARTIAL.

His Alleged Crimes Seem to Have Been the Result of Carelessness—Principal Charges Were Not Sustained.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The records of the court martial in the case of Colonel James Forney, second ranking officer of the Marine Corps, recently tried at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, was made public by Acting Secretary McAdoo today. He was charged with falsehood, embezzlement, making and using false papers and culpable inefficiency in the performance of duty. He was found guilty of the fourth charge, but the court substituted neglect of duty for culpable inefficiency. The charge of embezzlement was partly proved, but the court substituted neglect of duty for culpable inefficiency. According to the findings of the court, Colonel Forney's neglect of duty consisted in his failure to keep a correct account of all of the public property at the Brooklyn marine barracks, for which he was accountable.

IN DEFENSE OF DURANT.

Heroic Efforts Are Being Made to Puzzle the Jury—Judge Murphy's Caution in Giving Opinions.

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—The defense in the Durant trial is nearing the close of its case. It will probably reach its climax today. It made one of its strongest points in the introduction as a witness of C. T. Lenahan, the young man who says he visited Oppenheim's pawnshop and who, it is claimed by the defense, was seated in the store reading when the customer entered. Lenahan was dressed as Durant was said to have been when he visited the store.

ESCORT OF SEAMEN.

Pour Oil on Troubled Waters and Smooth a Path to Safety.

Cleveland, Oct. 8.—The crew of the E. Williams, foundered at Green Bay during the great storm, are being escorted to the resourcefulness of Captain Hunt, who smoothed a path for the lifeboat through the mighty waves by the liberal use of oil. The men being given up hope, but the captain ordered them into the boat, and then took on a big tank of oil.

DIED IN THE WOODS.

The Corpse of an Aged Woman Discovered After a Week's Search.

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 8.—After searching for a week, the dead body of an aged woman was today found in the woods near Blossburg, Tioga county. She had left her son's house at Lindsay to go to the poor house, journeying over a mountain path. The exertion attendant upon the trip killed her.

SHOOTS A SLEEPING ENEMY.

Indiana Drunkard Takes Revenge Under Cover of Night.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 8.—William Mattingly, of Marion county, tried to assassinate his brother-in-law, James Brady, near Lebanon last night. They had some misunderstanding several weeks ago and Mattingly threatened to kill Brady on sight. Last night Mattingly got drunk and taking a double-barreled gun loaded with buckshot crept up to the window of Brady's bedroom and emptied both barrels into the bed, where Brady, his wife and child were sleeping.

ROACH'S DESPERATE DEED

Fired Two Shots Into His Wife's Body, Then Killed Himself.

ROBINSON STREET THE SCENE

Roach Was a Printer and Was Made Furious by Conduct of His Wife—Declared Some Time Ago in Jail He Would Kill Her.

Driven to desperation by his wife's waywardness, Edward P. Roach, a printer, sent a bullet through his head and killed himself instantly yesterday afternoon, after having fired two shots into her body with premeditated and murderous intent. One of the bullets penetrated the left side of the head an inch below the temporal bone. This wound was a dangerous one, but the second shot took effect in her left side, midway between the heart and abdominal cavity. It was not a dangerous wound, and the bullet was easily extracted. The surgeons at the Lackawanna hospital, whither she was brought, made no attempt to probe for the bullet in her head. It went along the base of the cerebellum almost to the opposite side, and is lodged near the right eye.

The tragedy happened yesterday afternoon at 4:20 on the sidewalk where Ninth street converges with Robinson street, on the West Side. The couple had just come out of Daniel A. O'Connor's saloon, 149 Robinson street, and were walking which by the West Side. No sooner had they started down the street than a quarrel arose, and when they got about a half a block Roach suddenly whirled round, revolver in hand, and fired at his wife's head and fired. The bullet entered her left temple and she fell prone on her face. She sent up a blood-curdling shriek, but he remained in the street. Without waiting longer than the time it required to take aim at her prostrate form, he fired the second shot, which struck her in the chest and sent her into his own head and fell dead in his tracks. She arose on her hands and knees, groping toward her husband's dead body, the blood flowing in streams down her face. She remained in a half-rigid posture until assistance reached her.

HELD FLOWED INTO THE GUTTER.

Mrs. Roach, after she had been shot, appeared to want to reach her husband's body, which she had left only a few feet away. She fell on her back, but the exertion was too great. The blood from the wounds in her body and in his head gushed forth on the sidewalk and flowed into the gutter. The bullet that went through Roach's head entered an inch above the right ear and took a straight course through the brain, coming out the distance above the left ear. The wound was large enough to insert the first finger. A .38-caliber revolver was the weapon used.

SOME WHO SAW THE SHOOTING.

A street car was waiting on the Robinson street intersection. Motorman John Lynch saw the couple come out of O'Connor's saloon and watched them go down the street. He heard angry words pass between them and saw Roach take the revolver out and fire the shots.

Mr. O'Connor, in whose saloon the Roachs were, said that it was about 4:15 when they came in. They took seats at a table in the apartment that is set aside for the accommodation of women. They had a drink of beer each and went out. While they were in the room no altercation of any kind took place. Both appeared to be perfectly sober. He heard three shots a minute or so afterward, and some one rushed in and told him that two persons were killed. He went down and helped to carry Mrs. Roach to his house so that something might be done for her.

THE TRAGEDY WAS THE CULMINATION OF A PERIOD OF QUARRING AND BICKERING.

Roach came here about eighteen months ago from the New England states and about a year ago she came here and joined him. He worked in various newspaper offices in the city. On June 22 last he and she came out of Center street together onto Wyoming avenue. At the crossing to the Gas and Water company's office he raised a heavy cane he was carrying and dealt her a blow on the head. Alderman Millar was on his way down from his office and he caused Roach to be arrested for the apparently brutal assault.

A WARRANT WAS MADE OUT WITH HER AS PROSECUTRIX AND IN DEFAULT OF BAIL ROACH WAS SENT TO THE COUNTY JAIL TO AWAIT THE ACTION OF THE GRAND JURY.

He was imprisoned until Sept. 25, thirteen days ago, having been released because the grand jury was not in session. Mrs. Roach falling to appear to prosecute.

OFTEN SAID HE WOULD KILL HER.

Many a time while in jail Roach said he would put an end to his wife when he regained his liberty, for about four days after he was committed to jail she was sent up for twenty days from police court in default of the payment of a fine for being drunk and disorderly on the streets in company with a male companion. Since she was taken to jail she led a fast life and plunged deeply into riotous excesses. A few nights ago she entered one of the lunch wagons on Lackawanna avenue and tried to kick everything upside down. Before a policeman could be got she had escaped.

THEY WERE TOGETHER ALL THE AFTERNOON ON THE WEST SIDE, BUT MR. O'CONNOR IS POSITIVE THAT INTOXICATION COULD NOT BE NOTICED EITHER WHEN THEY ENTERED HIS SALOON.

Mrs. Roach, while her husband was in jail, paraded under the alias of Mrs. Edith Lee. Letters in the pocket of her husband showed that his relatives live at Hyde Park, Mass. He belonged to Typographical union, No. 4. Two children, a girl 10 years old, and a boy about 8, were taken from their charge by Mrs. Dugan, of the Board of Charities, and they are now in St. Patrick's orphan asylum. Roach was apparently 35 years of age, and Mrs. Roach about 33. He was fairly well dressed yesterday, and she wore a black dress, black shawl and hat. In appearance he was an intelligent-looking man, slightly built and he wore a heavy brown mustache. Mrs. Roach is a buxom woman, and aside from the lines of dis-

FINLEY'S

Fall and Winter Underwear.

The Stuttgarter

Sanitary Wool Underwear

(of which we are sole agents in Scranton) the excellence of which is unquestionable. Owing to the reduced tariff these goods are lower in price than ever before, while the quality is much improved. We note a few

Ladies' Onella Union Suits. Three specials in Union Suits at 75c., $1.00, $1.25; Children's Union Suits at 49c. up; Gents' Wright's Pileed Health Underwear at 50c. up.

Three Great Specials

Ladies' Egyptian Ribbed Vests and Pants at 25c., 30c. and 35c. Great special in Children's Vests and Pants; all sizes. Full line of Gloves and Hosiery.

510 and 512 LACKAWANNA AVENUE

WE ARE ALWAYS BUSY.

"Korreck Shapes."

The best that can be put in a Shoe, $1 to $6. A hundred styles.

Lewis, Reilly & Davies,

111 AND 113 WYOMING AVE

Fall Novelties

IN FINE JEWELRY.

Elegant Specimens Suitable for Wedding Presents, Birthday Presents, Etc.

Eye Glasses, Opera Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty.

W. J. Weichel

JEWELER, 408 Spruce st., Near Dime Bank

patron on her face is rather handsome. They had no special place of residence for the past year, but boarded here and there. The report from the hospital was that she could not recover.

Convention of Drummers.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 8.—The annual convention of the Commercial Travelers' association convened in Music hall at 11 o'clock this morning. The convention elected a delegate from each branch as a committee to nominate officers for the national organization and to investigate the reports of the present official board. At 2:30 p. m. there was a grand parade. About 2,000 men were in line.

Check on Chinese Enterpris.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8.—Inspector Schartz of the treasury department, arrested thirty Chinese women at the exposition grounds this morning. It is charged that they were imported for immoral purposes. All are young and fine looking.

WEATHER REPORT.

For eastern Pennsylvania, fair; continued cold; northerly winds.