SCRANTON, OCTOBER 9, 1895.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. For Judges of the Superior Court: CHARLES E. RICE, of Luzerne, E. N. WILLIAMS, of Lackawanna, HOWARD J. REIDER, of Northampton, JAMES A. BEAVER, of Luzerne, JOHN J. WICKHAM, of Beaver, GEORGE H. ORLANDY, of Huntington.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET. For Coroner: SAMUEL P. LONGSTREET, M. D., of Scranton. For Surveyor: EDMUND A. BARTL, of Scranton. Election day, Nov. 5.

We notice that most of the car fenders in use in this city are elevated a foot or two above the track. Why not, therefore, put them on top of the car, near the trolley pole?

Wholesome Party Interest. Evidences of the manifestation of an intelligent and wholesome interest in this fall's campaign by the Republican voters of Lackawanna county are multiplying.

While it would be wide of the truth to say that the campaign has become in any sense exciting, yet the exhibition of a healthy popular interest in it is doubtless sufficient for the present year, and will render possible the beginning of next year's presidential battle under acceptable and harmonious circumstances.

A Chance for Colonel Haywood. The Philadelphia Bulletin appropriately suggests, upon the threshold of the much-vaunted new era of reform in state affairs, that Colonel Haywood, in his letter of acceptance as the Republican candidate for state treasurer, pledge himself to exert his influence to put an end to the mischievous practice of farming out the state's cash balances to favorite banks, without interest.

Luzerne's Judicial Battle. The Democrats in Luzerne county are straining every nerve to make the common pleas bench solidly Democratic. They are not content with two of the three judges, and are now putting forth every effort to elect the third judge also.

AS TO CONFIDENCE. From a Speech by Congressman Perkins, of Iowa: "Everybody says that what we need is confidence in the government. We have been short on confidence ever since Mr. Cleveland was elected. The shortage increased when it was known that along with him went a congress Democratic in both branches. Every jump the state of wild hopes made trampled on confidence."

mands his election, and this principle has been almost invariably recognized by the Republicans of Luzerne county. Had the Republicans of Luzerne county in the past displayed the same partisan spirit their opponents are now exhibiting, there would be not more than one Democratic Judge in Luzerne today.

The Renascence of Foot Ball. The recent and successful inauguration of the local foot ball season by the kicking of one of the players into insensibility, followed by delirium, brings once more to the fore what is called by its devotees "the king of sports." From this time forward until midwinter, vacant lots will re-echo with the din of improvised gridiron conflict, and nearby dwellings will do volunteer duty as emergency hospitals.

Politically Speaking. Philadelphia Bulletin: "If the Republican national committee at its meeting this month were to call the next presidential convention for September, 1896, there would be no serious objections raised by anybody outside of the circle of political mendicants and strikers. The men who thrive on long presidential campaigns will, of course, protest against any change which would be likely to lessen the size of the ever-increasing campaign funds."

Chicago Times-Herald: "There is need of reform in the country as well as in the city primary. It has too long been the custom to elect three or four paid blow-drivers of a legislative corruptionist to get together in the back end of a saloon and arrange secretly a list of delegates to the convention. Their names are printed on a ticket; the ballot box is opened in the presence of some other convention place; there is a pretense of adherence to regular caucus methods; a hundred or more ballots are deposited in the box by citizens who are persuaded by the dealer in charge of the box to do so, but who hardly know what they are voting for, and care not to know."

Chicago Times-Herald: "Before proceeding to the election of a Republican presidential candidate Messrs. Quay and Platt should bear in mind the fact that the people may possibly desire to be heard on the subject."

Chicago Times-Herald: "Another drawback to the Morrison presidential boom is its long list of delinquent subscribers."

Chicago Times-Herald: "The election last fall encouraged confidence. It presented proof that the people had repented in sackcloth and ashes the folly of 1892. As an evidence of good faith they improved the opportunity to make the house of representatives Republican by a big majority. There is confidence now that the Democratic party cannot legislate further mischief."

Chicago Times-Herald: "The people of this country are Americans, no matter where they came from. They want a government for Americans. They neither want a government in industrial nor in patriotic. We are the loyal friends of the Monroe doctrine. We have no confidence in foreign protectorates on this continent, nor among the islands of the sea washing our shores. We have no confidence in the Democracy's policy of compelling our wage-earners to compete with the cheapest labor in the world for work. We have no confidence in the Democratic policy of closing factories here and opening factories abroad, and of reducing our exports and increasing our imports. As a matter of fact, there is lack of confidence in the Democratic party along the whole line, and it isn't the purpose to try to restore it."

Chicago Times-Herald: "The old question of should a horse be beaten has been settled, but the new one as to whether the health of the people of the United States would not be benefited by a day's fast."

Chicago Times-Herald: "The effort of the Chicago Record to 'get the best of' the Chicago Times-Herald is a case of the nature of a continuous performance."

pickings that Spanish oppressors have pocketed on the sky. Is it any wonder that Cuba revolts? We take very little stock in the story that strong opposition is massing itself against the re-election of Senator Quay as national chairman. The man who organizes battles like Quay can't lead the man to turn down, when there's a president to be elected.

St. Louis, Mo., doctors are in a row over the ethics of advertising. The regulars, as near as we can learn, object to paying for their publicity like honest men. They prefer to sneak it into print as items of news.

If General Harrison's law practice is bringing him in $150,000 a year, all we can say is that he earns it better than a certain other former lawyer earns a third as much.

The whipping post is the proper thing for wife-beaters, and it wouldn't be a bad thing for preachers who knowingly marry runaway couples for the fees there are in it.

Senator Hill's belated decision that down at bottom he was all the time a gold bug inclines one to believe he was really a straddle bug.

It need not be feared that Colonel Fitzsimmons will forcibly interject himself into the Craig-Herring situation as peacemaker.

Mr. Cleveland could carry Wall street for a third or a tenth term. Wall street doesn't let patriotic sentiment interfere with business.

The chances of Bradley carrying Kentucky coincide with the chances of an honest count. Give us that and Bradley will win.

When Olney twists the lion's tail he probably is careful to send notice to England that it's only for home consumption.

Pretty soon congress will have Mr. Cleveland on its hands, or between them.

whole line, and it isn't the purpose to try to restore it. "But, my friends, we have confidence in this great country, in its institutions, and in its people. And we have confidence in the Republican party, in its national aim, in its patriotism, in its history and in its future. Confidence will be fully restored when the Republican party is fully restored."

The Need of Good Roads. Washington Post: "A Brooklyn correspondent of the Chicago News brings out, in a striking manner, the immediate and material interest which the farmers have in this subject. He quotes government figures compiled a few years ago relating to the number of draft animals owned by farmers in this country, as follows: Average Number. Value. Price. Horses.....14,717,877 $77,516,262 529 Mules.....2,311,027 182,294,099 78 Oxen, etc.....26,849,024 509,025,137 18 Totals.....63,883,888 $1,721,535,788

On this basis the correspondent estimates that not less than 2,000,000 horses more are being kept than would be required to do the hauling between farm and market. If we had well constructed roads, he estimates that these extra animals consume about $200,000 worth of feed a day, or about $114,000,000 a year. This is one of many strong arguments in favor of the road reform."

Chicago Times-Herald: "As to the Monroe doctrine, if it is not pertinent to a subject of a nature maintained by Spain off the southeast coast of the United States, with constant peril for American commerce, it seems scarcely pertinent in relation to an antiquated squabble between an independent South American republic and Great Britain, and all the more or less of Venezuelan real estate."
