IS DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

Arguments to the Jury Will Be Made in Potter Case Today.

Potter Case Today. Yesterday was an important day in the case of Potter against the Scranton Traction company. Before Judge Lynch, in the federal building, a brief time in the morning was sufficient to thear the closing testimony and the re-mainder of the day was consumed by defense and prosecution in arguing legal points. Until 3 o'clock ex-Judge Jessup, for the company, argued four-teen points, and then Attorney I. H. Burns, for the plaintiff, began argu-ment on seven points and will finish during this morning, when the de-fense will begin its argument to the jury. The plaintiff's argument will probably consume the remainder of the day.

day. The substance of ex-Judge Jessup's legal argument yesterday was that the plaintiff himself was guilty of negli-gence, and that the appliances used by the company are reasonable appliances. Mr. Burns' argument held that the company's repair ladder had frightened horses, that it was a nuisance and that the company showed negligence in continuing its use. With Jessups & Hand, Major Warren, of Warren & Knapp, is engaged with the defense, and will address the jury today. Ex-Judge Ward, of Ward & Horn, will argue for the prosecution.
