TWO MORE FUNERALS.

Burial of the Other Victims of the Dorrance Explosion.

The funeral of William P. Cahill, who lost his life in the Dorrance accident on Monday, took place from his resience, on Grant street, yesterday morndence, on Grant street, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, and an immense crowd of friends and relatives were present. The St. Aloysius society, 500 strong, turned out and marched at the head of the cortes.

the cortege.

The remains, encased in a beautiful casket, were conveyed to St. Mary's church, and a solemn high mass of requiem celebrated. The number of people of the content was a large quiem celebrated. The number of peo-ple attending the funeral was so large that the services of the ushers, made up of Hugh Gallagher. Thomas J. Tray-nor, Michael Kearney, Harry Flynn, William Toole and James J. Gaffney, were required to seat them advantag-consity.

were required to seat them advantageously.

Attending the funeral and occupying a front pew at the right of the church, were Division Superintendent T. R. Moister, Division Engineer R. S. Mercur and Chief Clerk F. M. Chase. The St. Aloysius society occupied seats on either side of the center aisle, and the friends other portions of the church.

Rev. Father Broderick celebrated mass assisted by Rev. Father O'Rourke as deacon and Rev. Father McCabe, of Kingston, as sub-deacon. The funeral sermon, preached by Father Broderick, was a magnificent effort, and the singing of Mr. Tirmingham and Miss O'Keefs was exceptionally fine. There were many beautiful floral offerings from the Lehigh Valley engineer corps, from the family, from the St. Aloysius society and from a large number of friends. The pall-bearers were Jacob Rueffer at New Leafung and the st. Aloysius society and from a large number of friends. The pall-bearers were Jacob Rueffer and Neal Gallagher from the St. Aloysius, Charles Brown and F. E. Manchester from the Young Men's Christian association, and Ebert Van Horn and C. K. Gloman from the engineer corps. Interment was made in Hanover com-Interment was made in Hanover cem-

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the remains of Daniel Davis, the fire boss who was killed in the Dorrance acci-dent, took place from his home, on Kulp avenue. Every room in the house, the yard and the street were filled with friends. The floral remembrances filled the front parlor. Among them were a boundet from the Ladies' guild of the Calvary church, another from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Argust, star from Mr. and Mrs. Harry Guyler, with the words "at rest" upon it. an anchor of roses and parnations from Mr. and Mrs. John E. Williams, and a pillow with the word "Papa" from the children.

The funeral was in charge of the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias. The services at the house were in charge of Pev. E. J. Morris, of the Purltan church, assisted by Rev. W. D. John-son, of the Calvary, and Rev. J. F. War-ner, of the Fourth Methodist Episcopal. A choir from the Calvary church

At the gate leading to the picnic ground the parade was viewed by the clergymen and officers of the Catholic Tottal Abstinence union.

The picnic in the afternoon was poyed by many, and with games and dancing the time was pleasantly spent. A ball was given last evening by the St. Vincent's society, which was largely attended by the members present. The St. Aloysius society of Wilkes-Barre was unable to attend on account funeral of its member, William in Session at the Bethel Africa Methodist Episcopal Church.

THE CONFERENCE MEETING.

The annual Pittsburg conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church went into session yesterday morning at Bethel African Methodist Episcopal church, on Fell street, with Bishop Ar-nett in the presiding officer's chair. The hymn "Let Every Mortal Ear Attend" was sung, and Dr. Asbury offered prayer. The ritual service was read by Presiding Elder John W. Reilly. The bishop read Luke, viii, 1-20, the Parable of the Sower. He made in his talk three points—the sower, the seed and the ground. Price E. Scott was and the ground. Price E. Scott was elected statistical secretary, and C. H.

Young Miller was 21 years old and Shock of the burns.

Young Miller was 21 years old and was very popular. He used to be in attendance at Dr. Taylor's office, but left there a couple of years ago to take a course of study in Wyoming seminary. Here he was a diligent student, much thought of by the faculty and by his fellows. He became a member of the foot ball team and was one of the best players the seminary has ever had. Subsequently he has played with Wilkes-Barre teams. Miller was the only support of a widowed mother. He was a quiet boy, who counted his friends by scores, and "Bobby" Miller, as he was generally known, was one of the most popular boys in the city. He entered the Lehigh Valley company's employ some time ago, and was considered one of their best men. He displayed in his work the same energy and sincerity that marked all his actions, and sorrow and regret at his death is deep and sincere. The funeral will take place from his home on South street tomorrow afternoon.

Prove Fatal.

Yesterday morning as Schuyler Gross and his flancee, Sadie Moyer, were talking together at the house of George Gross, Schuyler's elder brother, the young man took a revolver from his pecket and began to examine it. In some way not clearly explained, the revolver was discharged and the ball struck Miss Moyer near the temple, and glanced around to the ear, inflicting a bad scalp wound.

A physician was at once called in and made an examination of the injury. He said that the wound was a very serious one, but he did not think it fatal, Gross said he did not know the revolver was loaded, but the lack of this important fact nearly cost his sweetheart's life.

Father Mathew Societies Celebrate Their Anniversary.

Although the weather yesterday was not as warm as could be wished, the Delaware and Hudson railroad ran a big excursion, which carried a large number of people, and the Traction company cars were also busy. The celebration was in honor of Rev. Theobald Mathew, the great apostle of temperance, and it was very creditable to the Plymouth organization, under whose auspices the celebration was conducted. The societies began to arrive about 10.28 and see the square. Some one had carelessly thrown a lighted match in some waste paper, which ignited the shed. In a few minutes the department extinguished the flames. The damage will not exceed $15.
