

The Scranton Tribune

Daily and Weekly. No Sunday Edition. Published at Scranton, Pa., by The Tribune Publishing Company.

E. P. KINGSBURY, Pres. and Gen'l. Man. E. M. RIPLEY, Sec'y and Treas.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT SCRANTON, PA., AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.

Printers' Ink: The recognized journal for advertisers, this Scranton Tribune is the best advertising medium in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

The Weekly Tribune, Issued Every Saturday, Contains Twelve Handmade Pages, with an Abundance of News, Fiction, and Well-Filled Miscellany.

The Tribune is for Sale Daily at the D. L. and W. Station at Hoboken.

SCRANTON, OCTOBER 14, 1895.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For Judges of the Superior Court: CHARLES E. RICE, of Luzerne.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For Coroner: SAMUEL P. LONGSTREET, M. D. of Scranton.

For Surveyor: EDMUND A. BARTL, of Scranton.

Election day, Nov. 5.

A Monstrous Position.

The New York Sun of yesterday contained an editorial which should be read by every American. It seems that a Mr. Watkins, of Albany, recently wrote to Attorney General Harmon a letter inquiring if Americans might lawfully express in public meetings their sympathy with the patriots of Cuba.

Sentimentalism.

The language recently used by Congressman William E. Mason, of Chicago, when he addressed an audience of 10,000 Americans gathered to express their sympathy with the struggles of the Cuban patriots for liberty, is worthy of repetition.

Here is this little island of Cuba lying on our front doorstep within ten hours of our coast, and for years and years has the Spaniard eaten the bread of the Cuban's efforts. Time after time they have fought for their liberty.

There is nothing in common between this nation and Spain. There is much in common between it and Cuba. On the one hand is oppression, long abuse of power, perfidy and false conduct; on the other, an honest uprising for inalienable rights. It is a thin kind of international law which would silence the official voice of the parent American republic's sympathy when a neighboring people follow our own forefathers' example of revolting in behalf of liberty.

The opinion of Judge Simonon, of the Dauphin county court, that the restrictive provision of the Superior court law is unconstitutional is simply a preliminary judgment of the intrinsic value of which is moderated by the fact that Judge McPherson, his colleague, a jurist of equal rank and reputation, holds the contrary view.

The Jocular View.

The probability is that the veteran Murat Halstead is merely endeavoring to have fun with the youngsters when he writes to the Chicago Times-Herald: I am opposed to the shortening of the period of the presidential canvass. I think the long campaigns are eminently useful; that they are educationally important; that the country needs stirring up from top to bottom and end to end; that the excitement is wholesome; that the recreation is valuable.

COMMENT OF THE PRESS.

Equal to All Demands. St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "The absence of Webster and Calhoun, Clay and Benton, does not mean that our statesmanship has deteriorated so much as it means that the character of distinction has been reduced by the aggregate increase of ability. There has been a steady rising of the masses in mental development, and this fact is reflected in the equipment of our public men.

A Thin Kind of Trick.

Pittston Item: "The method of 'getting even' by preferring charges against political enemies and by threatening investigations which are not intended to in-

Nicknames as Arguments.

Chicago Times-Herald: "Goo-goo is the latest political nickname. Naturally it comes from New York, where it is applied to a class of persons or a party, which object to political affiliation. These people are goo-gooes. Those who oppose them think that they are pigeon-headed and lack skill—that they are lip-livered and not to be trusted among voters.

Thinks the War Ended.

Washington Post: "We do not know of any ex-confederate who does not fully, and with every evidence of sincerity, accept the decision of the tribunal, and the dispute between the sections was referred in 1861. The question at issue was the alleged right of secession. It was an open question from the adoption of the constitution until the end of our great war. The confederates gave abundant proof of their sincerity in staking their all on the issue."

The Reason of the Difference.

Tunkhannock New Age: "In a courtroom a lawyer may call a witness a liar, scoundrel, villain or a thief and no one makes complaint when the court adjourns, but if a newspaper prints such a reflection on a man's character there is a libel suit, or judgment, or dead-end, and it is owing to the fact that the people believe what the editor says."

Must Not Forget the People.

Pittston Item: "Whether this is the bosses' year or not will depend a good deal upon how the bosses boss." says the Scranton Tribune. Quite true; and it is well for the bosses to keep this fact in mind, for the people, the bosses' bosses, sometimes feel it necessary to see the bosses aside and boss the job themselves."

The Male Yankee's Chance.

Chicago Record: "The American young man should wait for the law of compensation to get in its work. After the American business have all become bankrupt and been impoverished by their lords and masters their titled daughters will take to marrying rich young American men."

There's Too Much Law-Making.

Chicago Times-Herald: "The people of America, harassed by all the forms of legislative folly, may well pray the Lord to so turn the hearts of their governors, senators and representatives that in time they may give us fewer laws and help us better to enforce those which we have."

Sympathy for a Sportsman.

Binghamton Herald: "It is announced that next week Mr. Cleveland will suspend fishing and relax the fishing law. This is really too bad. We had hoped that he would have a real good chance to fish as long as he liketh it."

He Ought to Know.

Washington Star: "Mr. O'Rell says that the American public is too good-natured and long-suffering. There is no one better qualified to gather opinions of this description than a professional lecturer."

They're Missing an Opportunity.

Washington Post: "The engineers who throw the harness on Niagara falls ought to be able to make a nice thing out of Jim Corbett's portable flow of language."

Preserving the Balance.

Chicago Times-Herald: "The short bathing suits of July and August very frequently result in long-drawn-out divorce suits in October and November."

shall go forth to foreign capitals that the American people, outgrowing childish party prejudices, have by common consent agreed to exact of all their executives the firm maintenance, in affairs of diplomacy, of a policy of uncompromising adherence to the grand traditions of the Republic's founders—of dignified but inexorable insistence upon the observance by all nations of American privileges and rights, and of equal resolute sympathy for the aspirations of less fortunate neighbors for the liberties that we enjoy—it needs but little of the prophetic instinct to assure one that the respect now often withheld from the Stars and Stripes or from the men and women who own that as their national symbol, will be at once forthcoming.

If this be sentimentalism, let the amphibians at Washington make the most of it.

On Friday last the Buffalo Evening News celebrated its fifteenth anniversary, by modestly felicitating itself upon its phenomenal but deserved success. The News is a daily monument to the brain, pluck and perseverance of that gifted former Scrantonian, Edward H. Butler, and The Tribune takes genuine pleasure in noting its steadily growing prosperity.

The calm second thought with reference to Lord Sackville's book will doubtless be that while its author may not be a model of discretion, he has made out a stronger case against Mr. Bayard than would, a fortnight ago, have been thought possible.

One of the handsomest newspaper issues we have recently been privileged to examine is the Rochester Herald's "City of Flowers" edition, the workmanship upon which reflects generous credit upon its enterprising compilers and publishers.

Sackville-West is evidently a coward as well as a cad, else he would not have attacked Mr. Bayard in a book limited to "private circulation."

Equal to All Demands.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "The absence of Webster and Calhoun, Clay and Benton, does not mean that our statesmanship has deteriorated so much as it means that the character of distinction has been reduced by the aggregate increase of ability. There has been a steady rising of the masses in mental development, and this fact is reflected in the equipment of our public men.

A Thin Kind of Trick.

Pittston Item: "The method of 'getting even' by preferring charges against political enemies and by threatening investigations which are not intended to in-

Nicknames as Arguments.

Chicago Times-Herald: "Goo-goo is the latest political nickname. Naturally it comes from New York, where it is applied to a class of persons or a party, which object to political affiliation. These people are goo-gooes. Those who oppose them think that they are pigeon-headed and lack skill—that they are lip-livered and not to be trusted among voters.

Thinks the War Ended.

Washington Post: "We do not know of any ex-confederate who does not fully, and with every evidence of sincerity, accept the decision of the tribunal, and the dispute between the sections was referred in 1861. The question at issue was the alleged right of secession. It was an open question from the adoption of the constitution until the end of our great war. The confederates gave abundant proof of their sincerity in staking their all on the issue."

The Reason of the Difference.

Tunkhannock New Age: "In a courtroom a lawyer may call a witness a liar, scoundrel, villain or a thief and no one makes complaint when the court adjourns, but if a newspaper prints such a reflection on a man's character there is a libel suit, or judgment, or dead-end, and it is owing to the fact that the people believe what the editor says."

Must Not Forget the People.

Pittston Item: "Whether this is the bosses' year or not will depend a good deal upon how the bosses boss." says the Scranton Tribune. Quite true; and it is well for the bosses to keep this fact in mind, for the people, the bosses' bosses, sometimes feel it necessary to see the bosses aside and boss the job themselves."

The Male Yankee's Chance.

Chicago Record: "The American young man should wait for the law of compensation to get in its work. After the American business have all become bankrupt and been impoverished by their lords and masters their titled daughters will take to marrying rich young American men."

There's Too Much Law-Making.

Chicago Times-Herald: "The people of America, harassed by all the forms of legislative folly, may well pray the Lord to so turn the hearts of their governors, senators and representatives that in time they may give us fewer laws and help us better to enforce those which we have."

Sympathy for a Sportsman.

Binghamton Herald: "It is announced that next week Mr. Cleveland will suspend fishing and relax the fishing law. This is really too bad. We had hoped that he would have a real good chance to fish as long as he liketh it."

He Ought to Know.

Washington Star: "Mr. O'Rell says that the American public is too good-natured and long-suffering. There is no one better qualified to gather opinions of this description than a professional lecturer."

They're Missing an Opportunity.

Washington Post: "The engineers who throw the harness on Niagara falls ought to be able to make a nice thing out of Jim Corbett's portable flow of language."

Preserving the Balance.

TOLD BY THE STARS.

Daily Horoscope Drawn by Alcechus, The Tribune Astrologer.

Astrolobe cast: 1.6 a. m., for Monday, Oct. 14, 1895.

A child born on this day will be glad that Willie Burke got out of bad company before he became too corrupt to tell his story.

Between Food Inspector Thomas and Street Commissioner Kinsley the life of the individual who "sells bananas" in the push cart, is anything but pleasant.

In this country a bad man is not so bad after all, unless he is brought before the right kind of a jury.

It seems fitting that Seranton's vegetable market should be placed near the seed bureau.

Alcechus' Advice: Politicians transacting business in glass houses will do well to keep the patronage lunch counter always open.

The man with a cap that slopes over at the frontier should remember that fall style derby's are now in.

A Romance of Today: "Do you think Harold really loves you?" said one girl.

"I am sure of it," replied the other, wistfully. "He risks his life twice a week to see me."

"He has to pass a grade crossing every time he comes to see me."

FURNITURE.

FALL OF 1895.

Hill & Connell

MAKERS AND DEALERS,

131 AND 133 N. WASHINGTON AVENUE.

The Largest Stock of Fine and Medium Furniture ever displayed in Scranton; all arranged on our Seven Floors, so as to be easily inspected.

COMMENT OF THE PRESS.

Equal to All Demands. St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "The absence of Webster and Calhoun, Clay and Benton, does not mean that our statesmanship has deteriorated so much as it means that the character of distinction has been reduced by the aggregate increase of ability. There has been a steady rising of the masses in mental development, and this fact is reflected in the equipment of our public men.

A Thin Kind of Trick.

Pittston Item: "The method of 'getting even' by preferring charges against political enemies and by threatening investigations which are not intended to in-

Nicknames as Arguments.

Chicago Times-Herald: "Goo-goo is the latest political nickname. Naturally it comes from New York, where it is applied to a class of persons or a party, which object to political affiliation. These people are goo-gooes. Those who oppose them think that they are pigeon-headed and lack skill—that they are lip-livered and not to be trusted among voters.

Thinks the War Ended.

Washington Post: "We do not know of any ex-confederate who does not fully, and with every evidence of sincerity, accept the decision of the tribunal, and the dispute between the sections was referred in 1861. The question at issue was the alleged right of secession. It was an open question from the adoption of the constitution until the end of our great war. The confederates gave abundant proof of their sincerity in staking their all on the issue."

The Reason of the Difference.

Tunkhannock New Age: "In a courtroom a lawyer may call a witness a liar, scoundrel, villain or a thief and no one makes complaint when the court adjourns, but if a newspaper prints such a reflection on a man's character there is a libel suit, or judgment, or dead-end, and it is owing to the fact that the people believe what the editor says."

Must Not Forget the People.

Pittston Item: "Whether this is the bosses' year or not will depend a good deal upon how the bosses boss." says the Scranton Tribune. Quite true; and it is well for the bosses to keep this fact in mind, for the people, the bosses' bosses, sometimes feel it necessary to see the bosses aside and boss the job themselves."

The Male Yankee's Chance.

Chicago Record: "The American young man should wait for the law of compensation to get in its work. After the American business have all become bankrupt and been impoverished by their lords and masters their titled daughters will take to marrying rich young American men."

There's Too Much Law-Making.

Chicago Times-Herald: "The people of America, harassed by all the forms of legislative folly, may well pray the Lord to so turn the hearts of their governors, senators and representatives that in time they may give us fewer laws and help us better to enforce those which we have."

Sympathy for a Sportsman.

Binghamton Herald: "It is announced that next week Mr. Cleveland will suspend fishing and relax the fishing law. This is really too bad. We had hoped that he would have a real good chance to fish as long as he liketh it."

He Ought to Know.

Washington Star: "Mr. O'Rell says that the American public is too good-natured and long-suffering. There is no one better qualified to gather opinions of this description than a professional lecturer."

They're Missing an Opportunity.

Washington Post: "The engineers who throw the harness on Niagara falls ought to be able to make a nice thing out of Jim Corbett's portable flow of language."

Preserving the Balance.

GOLDSMITH'S BAZAAR.

A Bower of Beauty

Our building never held so many beautiful things as now. In fact, the stocks are matchless. The shopping tour begun and ended at the Bazaar has ended with everything new the world over. Busy times these October days; never was the store so thoroughly in accord with its mission.

DRESS STUFFS.

The Counters and Shelves are Full with Plain and Fancy Fabrics for Autumn Wear. There are 60 styles of 38-in. Changeable Novelties at 39 cents. There are 76 styles of 38-in. Worsted Plaids at 25 to 50 cents. There are 26 styles of 38-in. Silk and Wool Goods at 75 to 98 cents. There are 17 styles of 50-in. Wool and Mohair Novelties at 98c. to $1.50. There are 97 styles of 33 to 46-in. Black Wool and Mohair Brocades at 40c. to $1.35.

A SPECIAL OFFERING

Of Women's Fur Neck Scarfs and Feather Boas is worth a look during your shopping tour:

Water Mink Boas, value $1.50, price 98 cents. Genuine Northern Mink Scarfs, value $5.00, price $3.49, Feather Boas, all grades, from 73 cents to $12.98.

Our Gent's Furnishing Window will reveal to our gentleman friends the greatest snap in real Cape Kid Gloves, Pique Welt, with Rutty Clasps and Quirked between the fingers. There is a history to them. The regular $1.00 kind, either for promenade or dress, whilst we have them, Price, 69 Cents.

JARDINIERS

Our method is to sell every article at a small profit, and one price, all goods being marked in plain figures, thus making our establishment a safe place for purchasers.

We have just received a large import order of Jardiniere in rich colors and designs, from the celebrated Forster & Sons' Phoenix and Imperial works.

All Are Cordially Invited to Visit Our Warerooms.

Longton

Prices from 60c. to $5.00 each. Call and see them.

CLEMONS, FERBER, O'MALLEY CO., (LIMITED.)

422 LACKAWANNA AVENUE.

JARDINIERS

NEW LINE OF FOOT BALLS

Also Big Stock of Guns, Revolvers and Ammunition.

STEEL AND COPPER PLATE ENGRAVING

IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.

REYNOLDS BROS., Stationers and Engravers,

37 LACKAWANNA AVE.

C. M. FLOREY

222 Wyoming Ave.

SPECIAL CLOSING OUT SALE OF EDWIN C. BURT & CO.'S FINE SHOES.

We have decided to close out this entire stock of Fine Shoes and Slippers at actual cost. These Shoes are all in perfect condition—no old styles or shelf worn goods. This is a rare opportunity of obtaining the highest grade Footwear at the prices usually paid for ordinary Shoes. Call and examine them while the stock is complete.

LOOKING FOR SCALPS.

CONRAD, THE HATTER.

Is not looking for your scalp, but he would like to cover it with one of his

FALL HATS

Special This Week—A $1.50 Alpine Hat for $1.00.

HORSE - SHOEING REMOVED.

DR. JOHN HAMLIN,

The Acknowledged Expert in Horseshoeing and Dentistry, is Now Permanently Located on West Lackawanna Ave., Near the Bridge.

FOOTE & SHEAR CO.

119 WASHINGTON AVENUE.

These goods are just out of the Custom House and exhibited here for the first time. Lovers of Oriental Rugs will find this an excellent opportunity to have the first choice of this large variety of Oriental Art.

READ THIS

Majestic Ranges are made of steel and malleable iron, riveted together, making them perfectly air-tight, gas-tight and ash-proof. The ovens cannot warp, being riveted to a solid malleable angle iron, both in front and back, the body of the Range being riveted to the same.