A Dress Rehearsal

This should be good news for every Dress Goods buyer within 20 miles of the store. The fall season has just been ushered in on us and right with it, we offer five of the most remarkable Dress Goods values that it has ever before on our fortune to place before the public.

Facts

In this exceptional announcement, believing this will prove the most welcome piece of store news that will appear this season.

AT 25c.

75 pieces 36-inch All Wool Suitings in the following fancy mixtures and solid colors: Mixtures in Blues, Grays, Browns and Heathers; plain shades, Tan, Gold, Seal, dark and light Navy, Reseda, Myrtle, Plum, Cardinal, Garnet and Black.

AT 39c.

45 pieces 50-inch Fine All Wool French Serge in the following desirable fall shades: Cardinal, Garnet, Wine, Seal, Nut, Wood and Gold, Browns, light and dark Navy, Slate and Black. An unparalleled bargain at 39c.

AT 59c.

35 pieces 40-inch Silk and Wool Novelties, a beautiful and stylish fabric, with charming color effects on the following grounds: Navy, Garnet, Brown, Myrtle, Black and Blue. Its bargain value is beyond description.

AT 59c.

10 pieces new 52-inch Fine Wool Storm Serges, Navy and Black only. This is exactly the same cloth as our regular 75c. number. The sale price is 59c.

Extra

This is the one exception referred to above. It is a cloth we purchased at a very low figure at the close of last season. But as it is staple in every respect, we could not do better had we bought it this season, and we certainly could not buy now at the price we then paid for it.

ONLY 25 PIECES

40-inch all-wool Check and Diagonal Suitings in two tone combinations, suitable for children's wear or for quiet dressers. The colors include Olive and Black, Tan and Brown, Olive and Brown, Tan and Plum, Cardinal and Slate, etc. We guarantee this a full value 75c. cloth. The sale price is 37c.

MEETING OF THE W. C. T. U.

The State Convention in Session at Harrisburg.

A LIST OF OFFICERS ELECTED

The Delegates to the Convention Occupy Pulpits of the City Churches--Miss Willard and Mrs. Holvey Are Among the Speakers.

Harrisburg, Oct. 14.—Yesterday was one of those red-letter days of which the people are always proud. It was evidently a Woman's Christian Temperance union day, for the temperance women ruled the town. Everywhere was heard the voice of woman.

In the morning Mrs. Rounds, of Illinois, spoke in the Market Square Presbyterian church to a large audience on "Character." In the afternoon Mrs. Malre addressed the railroaders and gave an interesting story of life among railway employees.

Delegates and Officers Chosen. The state convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union will conclude its sessions tomorrow. These officers were elected this afternoon:

President, Mrs. Anna M. Hammer, Philadelphia; vice-president, at large, Mrs. J. F. Hill, Washington county; recording secretary, Mrs. Olive Pond-Amies, Philadelphia; corresponding secretary, Miss E. Pringle, Philadelphia; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Woods, Huntington.

TWELVE LIVES LOST.

Result of a Collision that Occurred off Dudgeon.

London, Oct. 14.—A collision, resulting in the loss of twelve lives, has occurred off Dudgeon. The steamer Emma, bound from Rotterdam for London, ran into and sank the French bark Pacific, from Shields, for Valparaiso.

NO VOICE FOR REVISION.

The Prevailing Sentiment is a Desire to Show the Matter So as to Avoid Giving Offense.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 14.—After securing the adoption of a resolution providing for final adjournment on Tuesday of next week, the opposition to revision, in the house of delegates, made another strenuous effort today to lay over the new constitution and canons for three years or until the triennial convention in Washington.

THAT GREAT PRIZE FIGHT.

The Governor of Arkansas Will Re-sign if He Cannot Prevent the Mill-Corbett Is Downcast.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 14.—The United Press correspondent found the premier this morning thoroughly determined to prevent the prize fight at all hazards. He says that the action of the circuit judge and the board of pardons, which now makes it a matter of state concern and renders him primarily responsible for its suppression, he is still hopeful that those in charge of the prize-fighting enterprise will abandon all further attempt to bring it about here.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 14.—Jim Corbett and party left tonight for Hot Springs, Ark., to meet the challenger for his prospective field of battle in the best of spirits. He stated just before his departure that he has no confidence in the statements that the fight will be pulled off at Hot Springs, and that protection is granted here against the invasion of the state by the prize-fighting contingent.

DURANT TALKS.

Says that He Still Has Much Good Testimony in Reserve.

San Francisco, Oct. 14.—Durant was seen today; he said he was ready for this week's ordeal. He did not think the defense would close tomorrow, as he said it had several witnesses who had not yet testified, though it might be the intention of his attorneys to hold them for rebuttal testimony.

RESULT OF BISCUIT WAR.

Confactioners and Bakers Fail at Baltimore.

Baltimore, Oct. 14.—Henderson, Pfeil & Co., confactioners and bakers at 25 East Pratt street, made an assignment today without preference. The firm has for forty years done a big southern trade.

BOARDED HUGH OSBORN.

And Now Mary Hayes Mourns the Loss of $200.

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 14.—Mary Hayes, of this city, was robbed of $200 in cash money on Sunday, but did not discover her loss until today. It was when she discovered that Hugh Osborn, of Philadelphia, who had been a boarder at the house, had also disappeared.

Town Bombarded.

Berlin, Oct. 14.—The correspondent of the Cologne Gazette reports that telegrams that information has been received there that two British warships have bombarded and destroyed the town of Zabara, Arabia, in the peninsula of Katara, in the Persian gulf. The cause of the bombardment is not known.

Fires at Williamsport.

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 14.—Three fires in Strong, Deane & Co.'s lumber yard, and two in the lumber at John Coleman's mill, were discovered within fifteen minutes this evening. All the fires were extinguished before getting fairly started. The acts of incendiarism are charged to traps.

Indicted for Manslaughter.

Norristown, Pa., Oct. 14.—Charles Henderson, who shot and killed Henry Schuff, a boy, at Rose Glen, on the Reading railroad a few weeks ago, though acquitted of a charge of murder by the grand jury, has been indicted for involuntary manslaughter.

Protoning Their Army.

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 14.—Chancellor McGill this afternoon granted a writ of error in the case of Angelo Spina and Joseph Arago, under sentence of death at New Brunswick for the murder of Antonio Prieto. They were to be hanged Friday.

Farmers' Congress for Silver.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 14.—The Farmers' National convention devoted much of its time today to national finance and declared the free coinage of silver at the ration of 16 to 1.

SEVEN MEN BADLY BURNED

Converter in Frankstown Steel Works Bursts.

TONS OF MOLTEN METAL DROP

The Hot Metal Pours Into a Pit Where Men Were at Work Unconscious of Danger—Squire Watson Dies From Effects of Injuries.

GOOD PEOPLE ASSEMBLE.

Meeting of the American Purify Alliance at Baltimore—Prominent Reformers in Attendance.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 14.—With the exception of the international gathering in Chicago while the World's fair was in progress, the first national assembly in America for the discussion of purify society by moral reformation was held last night, at the Hotel Hamilton, Baltimore.

THAT GREAT PRIZE FIGHT.

The Governor of Arkansas Will Re-sign if He Cannot Prevent the Mill-Corbett Is Downcast.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 14.—The United Press correspondent found the premier this morning thoroughly determined to prevent the prize fight at all hazards. He says that the action of the circuit judge and the board of pardons, which now makes it a matter of state concern and renders him primarily responsible for its suppression, he is still hopeful that those in charge of the prize-fighting enterprise will abandon all further attempt to bring it about here.

THEY WANT RECOGNITION.

The A. P. A. Must Be Known in Politics or They Will Give No Support.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 14.—The national convention of the American Protective Association was held here today. All of the supreme officers and the state presidents were in attendance. The object of the meeting was to organize the national advisory board which was appointed last year at the Milwaukee meeting of the supreme council and to outline a plan of campaign with regard to the next national campaign.

DETECTIVE AND HIS GUN.

A Colored Stevedore in Philadelphia Shoots Several Persons.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—William Green, colored, who is a special detective for the State Liquor league, an organization which is ferreting out speakeasies, went to the respectable house of Mrs. Hattie Stewart, 1021 Lemon street, tonight, and one of the inmates accused him of being a spy.

MORRELL REARRESTED.

Nabbed by the Sheriff Upon Coming from the Penitentiary.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—William M. Morrell, at the Eastern Penitentiary today after having served an eighteen months' sentence for obtaining money by false representations, was rearrested by Sheriff Corbett on a charge to answer a similar charge at Tyrone. The accused was formally turned over to the Blair county authorities by Magistrate Smith tonight.

SYMPATHY FOR CUBA.

Citizens of Wilmington Will Make Speeches on the Subject.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 14.—A meeting of citizens here tonight for the purpose of arranging for a public meeting to express sympathy with the Cuban revolutionists. It was decided to hold the meeting on Saturday night and prominent speakers are expected to be present.

NEW WORLD'S RECORD.

Pacing Mares, Miss Rita and Josie B Lower Previous Time.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 14.—The pacing mares, Miss Rita and Josie B, went a mile this afternoon, double, in 2:12 1/2, making a new world's record by shaving a half second from the 2:12 1/2 that Effie Powers and Prestoria Wilkes made at Springfield, Illinois, three weeks ago.

HOLMES CASE AGAIN.

Eight Witnesses from Toronto Will Be Taken to Philadelphia.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 14.—Detective Geyer, known here in connection with the finding of the bodies of the Pitzel children, will shortly begin in Philadelphia, and Geyer is working up the case for the prosecution. It will be necessary to prove the fact of the Pitzel children having been in Toronto, and the officer is here to obtain the necessary testimony on that point.

Irish Societies of Philadelphia Against the Chicago Convention.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—In response to a call issued by the United Irish societies, of Philadelphia, a mass meeting was held tonight in Industrial Art hall, which resulted in the passage of a resolution denouncing the Chicago convention, which was held last month.

DIED FROM BURNS.

Terrible Fate of an Inmate of a County Home.

Franklin, Pa., Oct. 14.—Mrs. Anna Bell, aged 23, an inmate of the Venango county home, was burned to death this morning, and it was, to all appearance, a case of suicide. Superintendent Grove was awakened by a knock from one of the corridors and he found the woman with her clothing on fire.

WARRANTS MADE OUT.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon City Controller Courley appointed before Alderman Black and made three informations against Major W. C. Moreland, ex-city attorney, and his assistant, W. H. House, each charging misdemeanor in office for receiving interest on city money. Three separate charges are made on account of the fact that Mr. House had received interest on city money deposited in three different banks.

DAGEN TROUBLES ENDED.

He Has Sold His Land to the Meadow Brook Water Company.

A paper was filed with Prothonotary Fryer yesterday discontinuing all proceedings in the case of William Dagen, of Roaring Brook township, against the Meadow Brook Water company. The latter wanted the land for reservoir purposes, but Dagen refused to accept $10,000, the price allowed by viewers, and when the workmen of the company went on the land he drove them off with a gun.

He was arrested and much litigation followed. An agreement was arrived at last week by which Dagen accepts $13,578.84 and deeds over his land to the company and discontinues all proceedings against it.

WEATHER REPORT.

For eastern Pennsylvania, fair; north-easterly wind; probably cloudy in the evening.
