Farwell Reception Tendered to Rev. and Mrs. Hughes at Residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Owens.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Hughes were tendered a farwell reception last evening by the members of the church and other personal friends at the South Hyde Park avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. John Owens. Dr. Hughes recently resigned from the pastorate of the Jackson Street Baptist church, and the reception was in respect to the esteem in which he and his wife are held by their friends and the regret which is felt at their departure to New York city. At 8:30 o'clock the handsome parlors of Mr. and Mrs. Owens were filled with numerous friends. Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Mary A. Davis receiving the guests in a cordial manner.

After several gospel hymns appropriate to the occasion had been sung by those present, Richard Nichols, a prominent member of the church, was elected chairman for the evening. Mr. Nichols acknowledged the courtesy with short speech. Thomas Koderick and Mr. Owens, in brief and suggestive addresses, testified to the love with which Dr. Hughes is held and the appreciation of the efforts of his wife and following, several others spoke in the same eulogistic vein, expressing their good will for the future success of Dr. and Mrs. Hughes. Mr. Owens presented Dr. Hughes with a beautiful gold watch.

The engraving on the inside explains itself: "A token of friendship from a few of his friends on the South Side Baptist church. Presented Oct. 11, 1895." Dr. Hughes responded. His speech evidenced the emotion which he felt at the unexpected gift. In behalf of the Baptist Young People's union of the church, Miss Celia Lewis presented Mrs. Hughes with a costly dressing case. Miss Lewis made a brief speech. Mrs. Hughes thanked the various friends for the mark of friendship. On Friday evening the West Side Ministerial association will tender Dr. Hughes a banquet. The place of meeting has not been selected.

Farmer Was Fortunate. Fortune smiled upon a drunken farmer last evening on this side. The man drove a horse attached to a light buggy from Trip's crossing to the Lackawanna avenue crossing on the railroad track at 10:30 o'clock. He was coming down the main road from the North End in a drunken stupor. When the railroad crossing was reached the horse turned down the railroad track and followed the rails to the Lackawanna avenue crossing, where the buggy became fastened in a switch. Lieutenant Williams and Officer Tom Jones found him there, and the horse was released and taken to Wymbe barn. The farmer was locked in the station house. The man was peculiarly fortunate. Fully twenty minutes were occupied in coming down around the tracks. The horse was about to collide with a train when the railroad men stopped it within several yards of the man. He is now in jail.

Wedded Last Evening. Miss Gwennie Davis, of Hampton street, and B. D. Davis, of Everett avenue, were united in marriage last evening at the home of Rev. David Jones, of the First Welsh Congregational church, of South Main avenue. Miss Davis was attended by Miss Charlotte Davis, of Everett avenue, and Mr. Davis was attended by his brother. Both young ladies were attired in beautiful costumes of china silk, trimmed with lace. After the ceremony the young people returned to the bride's home, where a supper was served to a number of her friends. The young couple will take up their residence on Hampton street.

Pleased West Siders. The news that Professor George Howell had won in the battle for superintendent of our public schools was received on this side with general joy. No fight between two men has been more earnestly followed on this side than the one which the board decided last night. Knobs of our prominent men gathered from 7:30 o'clock onward, waiting for the report. Others were present at the meeting, and to all the result was pleasing. The popularity of Professor Howell was never more forcibly evidenced.

News Nuggets and Personal. A ball for the benefit of Edward Dunn, who lost his leg several years ago by an accident on the Delaware Lackawanna and Western railroad, near the Dodge breaker, will be given on Christmas eve. The cause is a worthy one, and charity should contribute generously toward success. Margaret, an infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, of Longman court, died yesterday. The funeral will be held today at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of an infant child of Mr. and Mrs. P. Duffy, of Erie street, occurred yesterday afternoon. The friends of the family gathered in large numbers and attended the little one's funeral. The deceased was John Durkin, John Grant, Patrick Durkin and John Devaney. Interment was made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. Professor Haydn Evans and John T. Watkins have returned from San Lake City, where they adjudicated at a closed trial.

At last night's meeting of the Hyde Park Literary and Debating society, "What Shall We Do with Our Convicts?" was discussed. A spirited meeting was held. The funeral of Mrs. Jane Williams will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Alfred Twining has relinquished his position as West Side correspondent for the Sunday Free Press, and will hereafter be connected with the evening Times. Mr. Twining takes with him a reputation for a forcible writer, fearless in the interests of the people and active as a newsgatherer.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

First One Held by Hiawatha Council, Daughters of Pochontas.

There was a great time last evening at Lieutenant Ezra S. Griffin post rooms, on Lackawanna avenue, at the first public installation of officers of Hiawatha council, No. 24, Daughters of Pochontas, auxiliary to the Improved Order of Red Men. The lodge is not, by any means, a new one, but this is the first time in its history that the installation of officers has been open to the public. Mrs. Nettie White, of Providence, district deputy, assisted by Mrs. Littlejohn, conducted the installation. Mrs. Della Woodruff acted as conductress.

The officers installed are as follows: Pochontas, Mrs. M. D. Roche; first scout, Mrs. Randolph Jones; second scout, Mrs. E. J. Trumbauer; first runner, Carrie Dunning; second runner, Emma Brown; first warrior, Mrs. A. Stock; second warrior, Mrs. E. J. Trumbauer; Kate Maynard; fourth warrior, Mrs. P. H. De Wild; first counselor, Mrs. Strauss; second counselor, Kate Aere; trustee, Helen Mayer.

An entertainment followed the installation. Miss Ida Strauss was the pianist. The first number was an instrumental duet on the piano, by Miss Alda Atkinson and Etta Dunkerly. Miss Strauss then sang a song, which was very popular in the rendition of a recitation touching on martial incidents; there was a vocal duet by Mrs. Transue and Mrs. Feltow, an address of felicitation by John T. Rice, a recitation by Miss Emma Lamb, a song by Miss Kate Owens, and recitations by Misses Anna Mayer and Edith Bush. Refreshments were passed after the entertainment, and at 11 o'clock the parting words were spoken.

The hall was appropriately decorated with flags, bunting and the emblems of the lodge.

INDOOR BASE BALL.

Its Scranton Enthusiasts Are Preparing for Winter Games.

Prospects for a winter indoor base ball league, mentioned in Saturday's Tribune, are good. The matter was agitated Saturday and yesterday in the North End, West Side, South Side and central city, in each of which sections it is proposed to establish a club, and the indications are that Scranton will have a league.

Emmett Rogers, the well-known professional catcher, will captain and manage the West Side club; Jack Tighe, another professional base ball player, lead with Rochester, will be at the head of the North End club, and James McFouldrick is mentioned as the probable manager of the South Side team. Although two professional base ball players are prominently mentioned, it is a fact that the league is to be run on a professional basis. Light-weighted amateurs really have an advantage over the professionals in the indoor game, which has attracted the attention of some of the best amateur athletes in the city, and the players will be selected from this class of individuals many of whom are now playing on local foot ball teams.

Within a few days there will be a meeting of the representatives from the sections of the city mentioned, and officers will be elected and an organization perfected.
