ROBBED A STORE.

Three Huns Attempt to Help Themselves to New Clothes. Yesterday morning three half-drunken Huns entered Kinsey's hat store, on the Square, and finding no one in but a small boy, proceeded to help themselves to what they wanted. Each took a good hat, a pair of substantial buckskin gover and several winter caps, and were ready to go. The boy, in the meantime, had summoned John Kuschke, the jeweler next door, to his assistke, the jeweler next door, to his assistance, and when the Huns got ready to go, they found Mr. Kuschke at the door. He is a big man and he compelled the Huns to put back all the goods they had taken and then kept them in the store while the boy went for a policeman. The officer locked them up, and at the hearing yesterday afternoon, before the mayor, they were each fined heavily and remanded in default of bail for their appearance at court.

AN AWFUL FALL.

A Car Derailed.

On Wednesday night a Duryea elec-tric car was deratled near the Barnum breaker at Pittston, by a gang of hood-lums who put stones on the track. The car and passengers had a narrow ea-cape from being pitched down an em-bankmant chirty feet high on ton of cape from being pitched down an em-bankment thirty feet high, on top of which the track runs at this point. The Traction company will make a vigorous effort to find out the quilty parties and if they succeed will have them prop-erly punished. This kind of rowdyism that imperils the lives of passengers should be stopped, and the company will take drastic measures to do so,

A Big Suit. The damage suit of Dominick Wojoc hoski vs. the Central Railroad of New Jersey was begun before Judge Wood-ward yesterday. The plaintiff wants $10,000 for damages received by being run into by a train of cars of the de-fendant company, in which collision his horse was killed, the wagon smashed to horse was knied, the wagon smashed to kindling, and he himself sustained some painful injuries. J. M. Garman and his brother, T. D. Garman, appear for the plaintiff, and H. W. Palmer and A. H. McClintock for the company.

Playing on the Streets. Robert Jones, a 13-year-old boy, was arrested on Wednesday charged with disturbing the residents of Madison street. The mayor gave him a severe lecture and sent him below for a few hours. The boys on Madison street, near Butler, are very nolsy, and the mayor has ordered the arrest of any of them' who disturb the residents of that locality with their boisterous games.

Short in His Accounts.

A shortage of $244 in the accounts of James H. George, as secretary of Mane-tou Tribe of Red Men, is reported. Sus-picton was aroused by Mr. George's refusal to give up the books during his recent illness. An investigation was instituted, resulting, it is declared, in the disclosure of a shortage. Mr. George is at present out of town and his whereabouts is unknown.
